THE GREAT WAR.

TOKIO CELEBRATES THE COSTLY VICTORY.

Japanese Suffered Heavily in Taking Two Hundred Three Meter Hill.

Taking of Position Exposes Port Arthur and the Fleet There to Nogi's Guns—Attacks Planned to Continue Until December Tenth, it is Said—Skirmishing Continues Below Mukden.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Dec. 2.—[By Atlantic Cable. After Midnight Dispatch.] The correspondent at Chefoo of the Daily Telegraph says that the attack on 203 Meter Hill resulted in heavy losses to the first division of the Japanese stormers. Simultaneously with this assault, the correspondent says, men of the Ninth and Eleventh divisions advanced and menaced Rihlung and Kekwan forts. It is said, the correspondent adds, that within the last twenty-four hours the Japanese casualties have totaled 15,000 and it is asserted that the attacks have been planned to continue until December 10, when, it is hoped, the capture of Port Arthur will be completed.

CAPTURE YET FAR OFF.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Dec. 1.—Richard Barry, war correspondent for a San Francisco newspaper, arrived here today from Port Arthur on the Japanese liner Iyo Maru, en route to San Francisco.

He expresses the opinion that it will be many weeks yet before the fortress at Port Arthur can be captured. He has been with Gen. Nogi's army since August.

He says the Japanese regard the arrival of the Baltic fleet with considerable apprehension, but are making tremendous preparations for its proper reception.

RUSSO-JAPANESE ALLIANCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Dec. 2.—[After Midnight.] The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at St. Petersburg claims to have unimpeachable evidence that Russia is counting on the necessity of making lasting peace with Japan by means of an offensive and defensive alliance, which is recognized as the indispensable condition for the success of Russia's Far Eastern policy.

WARSHIPS AT TANGIER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TANGIER, Dec. 1.—Several warships anchored in the bay late tonight. They are supposed to be a part of the Russian Second Pacific Squadron.

REJOICING IN TOKIO.

CAPTURE OF 203 METER HILL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOKIO, Dec. 1, Noon.—[By Asiatic Cable.] Gen. Nogi's telegram announcing the capture of Two Hundred and Three Meter Hill was received with cheers by the Japanese people. It revives the hope of an early capture of Port Arthur proper. The people have never despaired of the success of the besiegers, but the fortitude of the defenders and the prolongation of the siege, which exceeds by months the most liberal preliminary estimate of the time required to accomplish the reduction of this stronghold, has been a source of deep regret, combined with the loss of life and disappointments over the fact that the siege has occupied such a large force of men, decreasing Field Marshal Oyama's strength at a time when he needed every available man.

Today was the date set under the conscription act when recruits could join the army. Cheered by the news from Gen. Nogi, thousands of recruits throughout the empire marched to barracks and donned uniforms for the first time. Following an honored custom, the relatives of the recruits, carrying flags and banners, escorted the new soldiers to barracks. In Tokio today there have been scores of little processions escorting detachments of popular conscripts. The number of men who have joined the colors today under the conscription act has not been made public.

COMMAND THE HARBOR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 1.—The War Office here is not yet prepared to accept the report that the Japanese before Port Arthur have taken Two Hundred and Three Meter Hill, but if it is officially confirmed, the War Office admits that it will be a vital blow to the galant defenders of the fortress. The position commands the harbor, and if the Japanese can mount siege guns on its summit they can force out the Russian squadron or destroy it at its anchorage.

Those familiar with the supporting plans of the fort think it is by no means certain that even though the Russians are forced to retire from Two Hundred and Three Meter Hill, the Japanese can place in position heavy guns against the fire which the other forts can bring to bear upon it. Still, the War Office officials reluctantly agree that such a breach in the chain renders the position extremely critical, and though the garrison might be able to hold out in Golden Hill, Tiger's Tail and Liaoti forts for some time, it may mark the beginning of the end.

The War Office is convinced that with the approach of the Russian Second Pacific Squadron, the Japanese considered that the elimination of the Port Arthur squadron as a fighting factor was absolutely vital, thus accounting for the reckless sacrifice of life in order to secure a position directly commanding the harbor.

GENERALS WOUNDED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOKIO, Dec. 1, 6 p.m.—It is reported here that Lieut.-Gen. Thuchiya, one of the commanders of the besieging force in front of Port Arthur, has been wounded, and that Gen. Nakamura, leader of the swordsmen, has been injured in both legs.

[A dispatch from Tokio, November 27, reporting the progress of the general attack upon Port Arthur, said that Gens. Nakamura and Saito, leading especially-trained bodies of swordsmen, charged into the Russian forts and engaged the Russians in a bloody hand-to-hand encounter. The result of the charges had not been learned at the time the dispatch was filed.]

RUSSIAN SECURITIES FALL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 1.—The capture of Two Hundred and Three Meter Hill at Port Arthur was reflected on the Bourse today. Imperial 4s declined a quarter of a point.

SKIRMISHES CONTINUE.

WEATHER MORE AGREEABLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MUKDEN, Dec. 1.—[By Asiatic Cable.] There was another small skirmish on Gen. Rennenkampff's front November 30, but otherwise everything remains quiet here. The weather is warmer and more agreeable.

A decidedly hot skirmish took place November 29 on the Russian right between the villages of Chjantan and Syaokcheni, the latter place being occupied by Russian troops. Several companies of Japanese, with cavalry, taking advantage of night, tried to cut the Russian communications in this direction, but border scouts enclosed the Japanese on two sides and routed them, capturing ten rifles, and several horses. The Russian loss was five killed or wounded. The Japanese loss is supposed to have been much heavier.

AIDING RUSSIAN DESERTERS.

UP IN AUSTRIAN PARLIAMENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VIENNA, Dec. 1.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Czech deputies at tomorrow's session of Parliament intend to interpellate Premier Von Koerbers concerning the action of the Lemberg Relief Committee in assisting Russian deserters to emigrate to the United States. The deputies will charge the government with taking the responsibility of countenancing a violation of neutrality, which may entail serious consequences.

It was reported from Lemberg, Galicia, November 25, that the Relief Committee of that place had dispatched 430 Russian deserters by train from Cracow, from whence they were to be sent to Vienna and there given steamship tickets to America. Another batch of 400, it was added, would shortly follow from Lemberg. Nearly all the deserters were reported to be in destitute circumstances.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Of Crew of Nine of Steamer Sunk in Collision, Only Two Reach Shore in Life Boat.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Dec. 2.—[By Atlantic Cable.] A story of terrible experience is told by the two survivors of the crew of nine of the steamer Blanche, which was sunk in the Mersey River, in a collision Wednesday night.

They escaped in a lifeboat, which immediately was dashed against the sinking steamer, three of the seamen being drowned. The remaining six righted the boat and rowed away, but were buffeted by the waves, which soon filled the boat with freezing water. Two more died of exposure. Again the boat was capsized, but the four survivors, by superhuman efforts, managed to scramble in again. Though almost dead from cold, they renewed their efforts to reach shore, but two more succumbed before shore was reached.

At 5 o'clock Thursday morning the lifeboat struck shore at Formby and the survivors painfully dragged the boat and its grewsome cargo through the surf to land, after having been seven hours in the boat without food or water.

FINISH OF "FOOL KILLER."

Dead Body of Peter Nissen and His Wrecked Boat Found on Beach Near Stevensville, Mich.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

STEVENSVILLE (Mich.) Dec. 1.—Peter Nissen, who started across Lake Michigan in his boat, "Fool Killer No. 3," was found dead on the beach two and one-half miles west of here, today. Nissen is supposed to have been washed ashore during the night. His "Fool Killer" was about twenty rods down the beach from the body, and was much damaged. A life preserver and his overcoat were fastened to the basket-shaped car in the boat.

The body was brought to Stevensville, where it lies in the Town Hall. The hands and face are frozen, and the features reflect his suffering. The clothing on the body was somewhat torn. It is thought that Nissen could not have been dead a great while when the body was found, as rigor mortis had not set in.

The body was found by Mrs. Collier, who lives on a farm near the lake shore. Nissen's employer was notified as soon as word was received here that the body had been found here, and a coroner's jury was impaneled. Men have gone from here to bring in the wrecked "Fool Killer."

It is almost certain that Nissen practically reached shore alive yesterday about 4 o'clock, after he had been out of Chicago twenty-four hours. The "Fool Killer, No. 3," was then seen about 200 rods from shore, off Livingston, six miles south of Stevensville. A heavy gale was blowing, and it is presumed that he was unable to land, and probably was tossed about on the shore all night.

It is believed that Nissen was either unconscious, or so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to save himself when the "Fool Killer" finally collapsed, and that he was drowned.

When the wrecked aquatic balloon was examined, one of Nissen's business cards was found, on the back of which was a note from the dead adventurer, saying an air hose upon which he depended to renew his supply of air had broken, and that he was doomed to die of suffocation.

William Fuller, a farmer, saw the balloon boat being driven toward shore about 4 p.m. yesterday, three miles south of the place where Nissen's body was found today. When Fuller sighted it, the craft had apparently not yet broken up.

It is believed here that Nissen was alive when his boat first touched the eastern shore of the lake. His wrecked boat late today was hauled into Stevensville, and a Coroner's inquest was held. The inquest was adjourned for further investigation.

FORTUNE DISAPPEARED.

Brother of Late Mayor Brown of Pittsburgh Leaves for South Dakota to Look for Property.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) Dec. 1.—A special to the Dispatch from Sioux City, Iowa, says J. B. Brown, brother of the late Mayor Brown of Pittsburgh, left here today for Pierre, S. D., where he believes his brother owned a ranch and cattle, embracing 20,000 acres of grazing land under fence, and 225 acres of leased Indian lands.

Since Mayor Brown's death in March, 1903, which was attended with sensational circumstances, it is said here that a fortune, estimated anywhere from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000, has disappeared. Since that time, his brother, who lives in Portland, Or., has been searching for the property, and has recovered about $2,000,000. He says he will bring suits to recover all the property he has unearthed, which is now in other hands, and will have it turned over to the widow, who was left almost destitute.

"RACE WAR" IN SCHOOL.

Daughters of Wealthy Allegheny Citizen Object to Colored Girl's Attendance.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALLEGHENY (Pa.) Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Serious trouble has broken out in the high school. Certain pupils of the school, headed by Misses Mary and Jeannette Young, daughters of A. B. Young, a wealthy citizen, have tried to institute a race war. They have announced that they will not study in the same class with Jean Hamilton, the only colored girl in the school and one of the brightest pupils.

Miss Lang, head of the school, announced today that unless the Misses Young apologized to everyone and promised publicly tomorrow morning to obey, they would both be expelled.

SNOW IN SPAIN.

Heaviest Storm in Many Years Experienced at Madrid, Where There is Much Suffering.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MADRID, Dec. 1.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The heaviest snowstorm experienced in Spain in many years, lasting nearly thirty hours, has compelled a partial cessation of business. In Madrid, street traffic has been stopped, the theaters are closed, the markets are without supplies and 20,000 workmen are out of employment. The telegraph and railway lines are utterly disorganized and have sustained much damage. There have been numerous accidents.

King Alfonso has ordered that barracks be kept open for the temporary accommodation of necessitous persons. The authorities are taking all possible measures of relief.

ITS LIGHT GOES OUT.

World's Fair Ends in Darkness.

Farewell Addresses by Gov. Dockery of Missouri and President Francis.

Exposition Has Taught that America is Greatest of World Powers.

Holiday in State and City Brings Out Almost a Record Attendance.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 2.—A brief, but rather impressive ceremony held at the base of the Louisiana Purchase monument concluded the World's Fair at midnight. President D. R. Francis, accompanied by a number of the officials of the exposition, congregated in the impromptu rostrum.

With the words "Farewell, a long farewell to all your greatness," President Francis touched a small lever, and instantly the illuminations throughout the grounds ceased. The exposition was at an end.

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Dec. 1.—The Louisiana Purchase Exposition has ended. It passes into history as probably having comprised the most representative collection of the resources, industries, art, peoples and customs of the world ever assembled. From the inception of a project to hold an exposition to fittingly commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the purchase of the Louisiana Territory until the portals were thrown open and the world invited to enter occupied seven years. The duration of the exposition has been seven months, and during that time nothing has occurred to throw a dampening effect on the interest, or to detract from the exposition in any way. The best order has been maintained throughout, and no loss of life has occurred during the exposition from accidents.

The man probably most prominently known in connection with the World's Fair is the president, David R. Francis, and it was deemed fitting that the final day should be designated as "Francis Day," in his honor.

"This exposition has been the work of my life," said President Francis. "It has consumed my entire time for the past four years, but every hour has been one of pleasure to me."

The closing exercises were held at the base of the Louisiana Purchase monument, in the Plaza of St. Louis, where were held seven months ago the exercises that formally opened the gates to the world. On the opening day, the vast assemblage was buoyant in spirit and filled with a unanimous desire to give expression to good feeling; today, depression prevailed generally because the conclusion was at hand, and it was rather a mournful assemblage that formed a solid phalanx around the tall monument and listened to the farewell addresses. There was cheering, but it was the cheering of final leave-taking and not the spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm. The principal speeches delivered were by Gov. Dockery of Missouri and President Francis. Mayor Wells spoke briefly, and introduced Gov. Dockery, who said in part:

"In bidding farewell to the World's Fair, I want to pay a tribute to the kindly feeling expressed toward this exposition by the President of the United States. In the execution of this exposition, we have Americans and partisans. We have united in doing everything possible to contribute toward its success, and the President has shown unqualified interest throughout.

"What lesson do we learn from this World's Fair? I learned the lesson long ago, that the United States is the mightiest power known to the world today. These exhibit palaces are the incarnation of the mighty forces of this great republic. It is no longer a question—the United States is a world power, and is to continue an enlarging world power. The St. Louis Exposition takes a long stride toward that contest of the States of which I now warn the nations. We do not intend to send our warships, but we do intend to send our merchant ships, and we will contest on the seas for the trade of the world. We are going to whip in commerce, if in no other way.

"After this exposition will come a better understanding among the nations, and I trust will result in peace that is universal."

The introduction of President Francis was greeted with an ovation of cheering. When quiet had been restored he said:

"The results of this work cannot be adequately measured by the beauty of its landscapes, the grace and symmetry of its buildings, the comprehensiveness of its exhibits, the intelligence of its congresses, the elegance of its social features, nor by the ineffable pleasures conferred on its patrons, but time will be necessary to demonstrate that the thought and labors and sacrifices that have entered into it were not ill-advisedly bestowed. The compensation will continue to flow for at least a generation to come. Its influence will be felt and appreciated in widening circles as the years go by. It marks a new epoch in the intellectual and industrial advancement of the world and the dawn of a new era in the international returns of governments and peoples.

"It is a credit for any State to have had such a gathering within its borders, and a glory to any city to have been the scene of such an assembling. It has brought all countries closer together and has elevated the world.

"Those who have been engaged in the work will never cease to look back to it with pride. All who have shared in the spirit of the undertaking have had their views enlightened, their tastes cultivated and their sympathies broadened. The millions of visitors who have entered these gates have, by their presence, encouraged this band of workers, and let us hope have taken away pleasant recollections of their experiences.

"The distinguished guests whom we have entertained have, by their words of encouragement and manifestations of interest, lightened our labors and incited us to renewed efforts. All who have come have contributed toward the consummation of an understanding upon which this outpouring of people at the end of the task stamps the approval of the people of St. Louis and of Missouri.

"May this enterprise with which we have been connected for nearly seven years past bring into still closer brotherhood all the nations and all the peoples who have participated in it. May it deepen our patriotism. May it strengthen our love for a benign providence that smiles upon us."

After the cheering following President Francis's speech had died away, beautiful silver tea services, as tokens of esteem from the exposition management, were given to Mr. Francis and Treasurer William H. Thompson.

Promptly at 4 o'clock all the great exhibit palaces were closed and visitors were excluded. In the Palace of Agriculture, onslaughts were made on many of the exhibits. The settings were composed of straw and fragile material, and for a time general demolishment was threatened, but prompt action in effecting a general ejectment put a stop to the threatened turmoil.

As the night drew on, throngs concentrated in the main avenues to view for the last time the magnificent electric illumination. One solid stream of humanity swept through the Pike, from end to end. The spirit of revelry was there. Never since the opening had more enlivenment been shown at night on the grounds.

Steadily the white electric bulbs silhouetted the exhibit palaces against the night; periodically the illumination of the Terrace of States surmounting Festival Hill changed from white to red, then to green and then back to white. Over on Agricultural Knoll the great floral clock clicked off the minutes of the departing pageant, and in the night rang out the tone of the massive bell as the midnight hour was tolled by the great clock. Instantly a hush seemed to pervade the entire grounds. The glowing electric bulbs slowly began dimming, the pulsations of the great engines that drove the cascades gradually died down. The light faded steadily, diminishing until but a faint glow was perceptible. Suddenly there was darkness, and the Louisiana Purchase Exposition had passed into the chronicles of history.

It is estimated that the attendance today was in the neighborhood of a record-breaker. Since the exposition opened, April 30, there have been 18,-117,457 admissions recorded. The banner month's attendance was in September, when the total attendance was 3,651,873. The largest single day's attendance was September 15, when St. Louis day was observed. That every citizen of St. Louis might participate in the last day of the exposition, today was proclaimed a holiday by Mayor Wells. Gov. Dockery likewise had proclaimed a holiday throughout the State, and crowds poured into the city. A large number of business houses and the public schools were closed.

STATEMENT OF FINANCES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 1.—While it will be impossible to obtain the actual receipts and expenditures of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company before the middle of December, Secretary Walter B. Stevens of the World's Fair made the following statement to the Associated Press tonight:

"From reports that have been submitted of the admissions to the grounds up to 9 o'clock tonight, we estimate that the attendance on Francis Day' will be a few thousand in excess of 200,000, and that the advance for the exposition period will be in the neighborhood of 18,800,000.

"In round numbers, the exposition company has expended $22,000,000 since the inception of the World's Fair project and the expenditures of the several States and Territories have reached a total of $9,000,000. The receipts since the opening day, April 30, have amounted to about $10,000,000, consisting of admissions and concession royalties. In addition to these receipts were the funds, amounting to about $12,000,000, raised by subscriptions and appropriated to build the exposition.

Closing Argument for Burton—Dead Letter Chief.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor reports that the exports from the United States to Canada in the first ten months of this year were $116,775,656, against $111,884,763 in the corresponding months of 1903 and $93,792,394 in the corresponding months of 1902.

The fiscal year statements show that the imports from Canada grew from $33,264,403 in 1865 to $51,406,265 in 1904, and that our exports to Canada grew from $28,829,402 in 1865 to $131,274,346 in 1904. The most rapid growth has occurred from 1894 to 1904, our total exports to Canada in 1894 having been $56,664,094, as against $131,274,346 in 1904, an increase of 131 per cent.

DEAD LETTER OFFICE CHIEF.

JAMES R. YOUNG APPOINTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The Postmaster-General has appointed former Congressman James R. Young of Philadelphia superintendent of the Dead Letter Office, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of D. P. Leibhart last September. Young took the oath of office this afternoon and immediately assumed the duties of the office.

ORDINARY CRIMINAL CASE.

GOVERNMENT IN RE BURTON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Solicitor-General Hoyt of the Department of Justice made the opening argument for the government in the case of United States Senator J. R. Burton of Kansas in the Supreme Court of the United States today. Mr. Hoyt contended that this was an ordinary criminal case, and that the questioning of the jurisdiction of the court which tried Mr. Burton could not be successfully maintained.

Replying to a question from Justice White, Mr. Hoyt said that Mr. Burton's name appeared on the Rialto Company's circulars, but at what time he could not say. Justice White replied that as the department was investigating the case, the time seemed very material.

Mr. Hoyt argued that Senator Burton knew what he was doing when he accepted service with the Rialto company. He said it was questionable whether a Senator should perform such services as was required of the defendant by the company, but that when he accepted a fee "he completed the fatal chain." Mr. Hoyt discussed the claim of the defense that the charge was an "infamous crime" instead of a "misdemeanor," and therefore that the defense should have ten instead of three challenges. He alleged that the contention of the defense was not valid.

Justice White asked if he did not realise that the penalty carried disqualification of the accused, debar him from citizenship and forever put a stigma upon him. Mr. Hoyt maintained that the statute made the offense a misdemeanor.

Mr. Lehman closed the case in an hour's argument for Senator Burton. He reviewed the testimony with reference to Mr. Burton's visit to the Postoffice Department, and insisted they involved no possible interest in the United States and nothing in the Senator's acts were to the prejudice of the United States. Mr. Lehman also maintained that the charge of the lower court was unfair to the defendant.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Free Delivery for Java.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rural free delivery established to commence January 2, Java, Cal., one additional route, length 17 miles, area covered, 15 square miles; population served, 448.

Philippines's Chief Surgeon.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The last monthly report of the chief surgeon of the Philippines, covering the month ending October 15, just received by Surgeon-General O'Reilley, shows the percentage of sick, out of a total strength of 17,664 soldiers, to have been less than 6 per cent. But six deaths occurred during that month, three from disease, the other being violent or accidental.

Stonewall Jackson's Grandson.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The President today indicated his intention to appoint Sonewall Jackson Christian, a grandson of Gen. Stonewall Jackson, the Confederate thisftain, as a cadet to the West Point Military Academy. The young man is a student at the Georgia Military Academy.

Gold Watch for a Briton.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Commander Nugent, commanding the British gunboat Algerin, will receive from the American government a handsome gold watch as an evidence of this government's appreciation for his services in rescuing thirty-three seamen of the crew of the American steamer Mineola, wrecked off Kamchatka. The facts in the case were reported to the State Department by Mr. Griscom, the American Minister at Tokio, and the State Department will ask the British government for permission to present this gift to Commander Nugent. Two members of the crew were Russians, who shipped from San Francisco. Negotiations for their return were conducted with Mr. Griscom.

Russia and Peace Conference.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The official announcement was made at the State Department today of Russia's conditional acceptance of the American government's invitation to join the other powers at The Hague for a second peace conference. Russia's suggestion for a postponement of the Congress until the close of the war must necessarily delay further steps for the present, for the reason that it is desired that Russia shall participate in this conference, and, moreover, several powers would be unwilling to attend the conference if Russia were not represented.

November's Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The Weather Bureau's monthly summary of crop conditions says: "As a whole November was very mild and exceptionally dry. Complaints of drought are received from Southern California."

Venezuela Affairs Unsettled.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Reports reach the State Department of a very unsettled state of affairs in Venezuela. Many citizens have been put in prison for alleged political offenses, public opinion is inflamed, and serious apprehension for their safety prevails among the foreign element. The State Department is closely observing the progress of events there. It is patiently awaiting the final decision of the Supreme Court of Venezuela in the case of the American asphalt concern. When that decision is handed down, announcement will be made of the policy to be pursued by this government.

First Battalion, Filipino Scouts.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The President has directed that the Fourth, Twenty-fourth, Thirtieth, and Forty-seventh companies, Filipino Scouts, now at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, be organized as a battalion of infantry to be designated as the First Battalion, Filipino Scouts. Capt. William H. Johnson, Sixteenth Infantry, has been detailed as major and assigned to the command of the battalion.

DUEL OVER JOAN OF ARC.

One Will be Fought Unless French Socialist Takes Back What He Said About.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Dec. 1.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Deputy Jaures, the Socialist leader, has telegraphed a challenge to fight a duel to Paul de Roulede, who has been in political exile since his participation in the plot to overthrow the government. The challenge grows out of the agitation of the students resulting from alleged insulting remarks about Joan of Arc made by a professor of history at the Lysee Condorcet.

M. De Roulede telegraphed from Spain declaring that the Socialists were responsible for the attacks on Joan of Arc and adding she was the most sublime figure in history, whereas M. Jaures was the most contemptible of her detractors. The challenge expressed M. Jaures's readiness to meet M. De Roulede at the place and time he wishes.

The student demonstrations in behalf of Joan of Arc were continued today.

LODGE JOINT PROTEST.

Foreign Ministers at Peking Emphatically Oppose Additional Transit Fees—No Answer.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PEKING, Dec. 1.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The foreign ministers have lodged with the government a joint protest against levying additional transit fees, as being contrary to treaty understandings. Heretofore the Chinese authorities levied 2½ per cent. on goods sent from and to ports, but latterly additional amounts have been levied under the plea of working expenses.

The joint document of the ministers is most emphatic in tone and unusual in form. The diplomats considered the occasion an urgent one, and their decision to enter a protest was unanimously arrived at. No answer has yet been made.

WANT LIQUOR BARRED.

W.C.T.U. Requests the President to See that Congress Observes Existing Treatise With Indians.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—President Roosevelt was today requested by the National W.C.T.U., in convention here, to see that Congress observes the existing treaties with the Indians prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors before granting Statehood right to Indian Territory. The resolution was presented by Mrs. Margaret D. Ellis of Washington, chairman of the Executive Committee, and the following telegram was forwarded to the President:

"The National Women's Christian Temperance Union, representing a half million women of the United States, most respectfully urges that your great influence be given to carrying out treaties of our government with the Indians concerning the sale of intoxicating liquors in Indian Territory and that this prohibitory clause be inserted in the enabling act for the new State."

PATENT MEDICINES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—At the first session today of the convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Stella B. Irvine of California presented a report on Sunday-school work.

Mrs. Allen reviewed the work of the year in the exposé of the alcoholic nature of many patent medicines. Prominent physicians were quoted as being opposed to the use of liquor for medicinal purposes, and this was advanced as a strong argument in favor of total abstinence.

NOVEMBER CAPITALIZATION.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—New companies formed under the laws of eastern States in November, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000 or more, according to the returns to the Journal of Commerce, had a grand total of $121,200,000. Nearly half this amount was furnished by the Chicago Subway Company, which was incorporated with $50,000,000. The November total compares with $215,000,000 in October, but of this large amount the new American Tobacco Company contributed $180,000,000. In November a year ago, the total was $56,100,000, and two years ago $115,140,000. As usual, New Jersey heads the list.

YALE "FRESHIES" ASSESSED.

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Dec. 1.—Dean Wright of the academic department of Yale has ordered the members of the freshman class to pay an assessment of 20 cents each, in order to meet the expense incurred by the City Park Commissioner in cleaning East Rock Park after a freshman celebration here. Signs on the fences in the neighborhood of the park were disfigured and the numericals of the classes were painted on the face of the lofty cliff.

KILLED IN A COLLISION.

PEABODY (Kan.) Dec. 1.—Three men were killed by a head-on collision of two Rock Island freight trains, near here this afternoon. The dead are Engineer Walter Griffith, Herington, Kan.; H. A. Warren, Blue Mound, Kan., and Charles Kincaid, Dresden, O. The two last named were stealing a ride.

RUSSIAN-AMERICAN TREATY.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 1.—There is universal commendation of the promptness with which Russia accepted the American arbitration-treaty proposal, but beyond expressions of satisfaction at the fact that it will bind the two countries closer together, the papers indulged in little comment.

TALKS ON TARIFF.

Vice-President-Elect Fairbanks Addresses the Home Market Club of Boston—Chief Executive Sends a Telegram.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON, Dec. 1.—Before an audience of more than three thousand people, Vice-President-elect Fairbanks of Indianapolis defined the attitude of the Republican administration on the tariff question at the annual banquet of the Home Market Club in Mechanics' Hall tonight. Among the other guests were Gov. John L. Bates of Massachusetts, former Secretary of the Navy John D. Long, Dr. W. H. Montague of Toronto, a privy councillor of the Dominion of Canada; Governor-elect McLane of New Hampshire and Governor-elect Roberts of Connecticut. The speakers were Senator Fairbanks, Gov. Bates, Mr. Long and Dr. Montague.

Former Congressman Robert T. Davis of Fall River, president of the club, as toastmaster, made the opening address, and in referring to the principle of a protective tariff, which is fostered by the Home Market Club, said that the leading members of the national House of Representatives and Senate would soon confer with the administration on the subject of tariff revision.

"And," he added, "we are willing to stand by their judgment as to the time and nature of such revision."

Telegrams of regret at not being able to be present were received from the President and the Massachusetts Senator. The President's message follows:

"I regret extremely that I cannot be with you. I congratulate you on having the Vice-President-elect as your guest, and I wish you a most enjoyable evening."

Vice-President-elect Fairbanks, in his speech, said:

"The expansion of our foreign commerce under Republican policies and Republican administration is conclusive evidence of the fact that Republican policies are not restrictive, as far as our foreign trade is concerned. In 1860, our exports of manufactured products to other countries amounted to only $102,000,000, while last year they reached the enormous sum of $452,000,000. We have been rapidly increasing our wealth through our foreign commerce. The balance of trade is greatly in our favor.

"From the beginning of George Washington's first administration to William McKinney's first term, the net balance in favor of the United States was $383,000,000; since the beginning of President McKinley's first term until March, 1904, the net balance in favor of the United States was upward of $3,500,000,000. It would seem the part of wisdom to hold fast to those measures and the administration of public affairs under which gratifying and unparalleled results have been accomplished.

"While the tariff question is an old one, it is of continual and vital interest. It must not be overthrown or surrendered, either by ignorance or prejudice; it must be maintained by education, by intelligent discussion.

"The Republican party has revised tariff schedules in the past when revision was essential, and it will not hesitate in the future to subject them to careful scrutiny and alterations so that our protective system may be just in its operation. Whenever change of schedules is essential in the public interest, the alteration will be made; it will be made advisedly; it will be made, not in response to mere sentiment, but agreeably to sound economic necessity. Any other policy is obviously unwise and disturbing in its tendency.

"The Republican party adheres to the doctrine of commercial treaties, reciprocity which tends to expand our commerce and to develop American industry in interest of American labor and American capital. It holds the reciprocity which is the 'handmaiden of protection,' but not to do that which is but another form of free trade and which is hostile to the protective system.

"President McKinley has been quoted by the enemies of protection as favoring the Democratic system of reciprocity. The text of his last great speech gives denial to such pretensions. His utterances were entirely free from ambiguity. No one would misunderstand them who did not desire to do so. He distinctly favored trade relations which will not interrupt our productions. 'We should take from our customers,' said he, 'such of our products as we can use without harm to our industries and labor.' And he further declared that 'if perchance some of our tariffs are no longer needed for revenue and to encourage and protect industries at home, why should they not be employed to extend and promote our markets abroad?' It will be observed that he kept well in mind the home market and protection to our industries and labor. There is in these observations no suggestion of the abandonment by him of the great policy for which he lived and wrought so well.

"The result of the recent national election needs no interpretation. It plainly signifies that the people have unabated faith in the great principles for which the party has wrought so well. It clearly indicates exceptional interest in the soundness and conservatism of the administration. The power committed to us is to be used with prudence. We are to continue to adhere to and uphold the great policies which have so well served us in the past. They are not to be undermined or subverted; they are to be upheld and maintained with wisdom and resolution."

Dr. Montague said that the Dominion had tried all forms of trade relations, from reciprocity to free trade. All these have been dropped in favor of protection. Since the time when protection was firmly established, the country has seen more prosperity than ever before. The speaker pointed out that today the policy of Canada is to allow to come in free all the necessities of life, but to maintain and protect its own industries against the world.

"I come here to tell you," continued Montague, "that no government could exist in Canada today that does not maintain the system of protection to Canada's industries."

He then took up the subject of reciprocity between the United States and Canada. He said: "In Canada today, there is no party or politician who is not agitating for reciprocity, and there is no great desire for it."

Mr. Long said: "The simple key to this whole puzzle of the protective tariff, construing its principles not narrowly nor with partiality, but liberally and for the general welfare, is in the one word 'adjustment'—the adjustment of the schedule to the needs of time, shifting at reasonable intervals as they shift. We already have for Canada the reciprocity of good-will, of mutual respect and of mutual consciousness of our common obligations for the welfare of the continent of which we two are so large a part. And whenever and wherever, by more liberal trade relations and by mutual give-and-take tariff concessions, which shall not impair the general industrial and commercial interests of either side, the general interests can be conserved and promoted, we are for reciprocity in that respect also."

INCREASED EFFICIENCY.

Motive Which Induces Gen. Corbin to Appoint Board to Deal With Philippine Army Matters.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MANILA, Dec. 1.—[By Pacific Cable.] Maj.-Gen. H. C. Corbin, military commander of the Philippines, has appointed a board of three officers to take into consideration details for the administration of the staff departments and their several divisions and also to report the number of officers necessary to efficiently administer the executive duties.

This board will consider plans for the betterment of the service, seeking a means whereby increased efficiency may be attained, with a possible reduction of expenses. The board will give special consideration to the reduction of the number of depots and garrisons, as well as to the amount of water and land transportation required.

Maj.-Gen. Corbin is in favor of giving the transportation business only to steamship and railroad companies capable of handling a large volume. It is his purpose to confer with steamship companies in the United States, with a view to inducing them to establish a line of up-to-date inter-island steamers, to which the army business would be given.

ISSUE MANIFESTO.

Opposition Parties in Russia Make Known Their Intentions in Document Published at Paris.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Dec. 1.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Socialist leader, Jaures, today made public the text of a manifesto of the Revolutionary, Socialist, and other opposition parties in Russia, which, he says, was issued simultaneously throughout Europe. The manifesto is signed by representatives of the various revolutionary and socialist parties of the empire, particularly in European Russia, Poland and Finland, who recently have been holding secret meetings.

The manifesto leaves the individual parties free to pursue their own methods of opposition to the government, but pledges the union of all elements of opposition to end autocracy and substitute a democratic system based upon universal suffrage, revocation of measures destructive of the Constitution of Finland, and suppression of the violence of the central government against various sections of the empire.

The manifesto closes as follows: "The parties represented here will unite their efforts for the purpose of hastening the inevitable fall of absolutism."

Jaures says that uniting of opposition parties is part of the movement for the adoption of a democratic institution in Russia, which, he declares, will be the most important historical achievement since the French Revolution.

STILL NEGOTIATING.

Conference Between Secretary Taft and Panama Government Will Yield Agreement Soon.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PANAMA, Dec. 1.—Negotiations are still in progress between Secretary Taft, representing the United States, and the Panama government looking to the settlement of points in dispute regarding the government of the canal zone, and an agreement may be said to be in sight. In order that possible complications may be avoided the conferences are being conducted in secret and nothing will be given out until both sides are agreed.

President Amador gave a banquet tonight in honor of Secretary Taft.

Speeches were made by President Amador, Minister of War Giuadara, Minister Arosemena, Secretary Taft and William Nelson Cromwell, counsel of the Panama Canal Company.

Minister of Justice Valle of France, has appointed a commission of the most prominent jurists, Senators, deputies, and academicians to revise the Civil Code. This will be the first comprehensive revision of the code since Napoleon promulgated it in 1804.

STOCKHOLDER BRINGS SUIT.

Misappropriation of Water Company Funds Charged.

Handwriting Expert Figures in Land-fraud Trial.

Derelict Drifts Ashore and Begins to Break up.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—As a stockholder of the Contra Costa Water Company, Jeanne D. Carter charges that William J. Dingee, president of the corporation, with the assistance of the other directors, has misappropriated $295,000 of the company's funds. She filed an action for the recovery of that sum in damages for all the owners of the shares.

The basis of suit is found in a resolution of the directors of the company April 7, 1903, declaring that questions had arisen as to the validity of the title of the Contra Costa Company to its reality, and many suits were threatened and therefore $360,000 should be placed aside and placed in Dingee's hands and expended, all or in part, for the purchase of adverse titles and the compromise of prospective litigation. On the same date, another resolution was adopted approving the report of President Dingee that he had already expended $295,000 for the purposes mentioned.

The plaintiff alleges that no question whatever had arisen as to the validity of the titles of the Contra Costa Water Company to any of its realty or other holdings, and that no suits were ever threatened, and she believes that no part of the $295,000 was ever paid out for the purposes enumerated.

MISS DOLBEER'S WISHES.

SEVERE BLOW TO SCHANDER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The severest blow given to Adolph Schander, in his contest of the will of his niece, Bertha M. Dolbeer, was administered today by Addison Mizner, who was an intimate friend of the late heiress for about nine years, and came from New York for the purpose of giving testimony in the case.

Mizner testified that the day Miss Dolbeer made her will she told him "there is only one person in the world that I really care much for, and only one person I want to provide for, and I want to see that Miss Warren is settled for life, if anything should happen to me. My money came to me from my father. He has no near relations. My mother's relations were never on friendly terms with my father; never crossed his threshold, and did not even speak to him."

MYSTERY OF A DEATH.

MRS. NATALIE PRAMBERG SHOT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Mystery has been thrown about the death of Mrs. Natalie Pramberg in St. Luke's Hospital from a bullet wound, said to have been accidentally inflicted at her home in Black Diamond, Contra Costa county, last Wednesday morning. The woman was removed to the hospital Wednesday night, escorted by Dr. Gregory and a man who represented that he was the patient's husband. She stated that she was removing a coat from a bed, and that a Colt's revolver of 41-caliber fell out of one of the pockets to the floor and was discharged, the bullet entering her abdomen.

Later in the day, Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa county telephoned to the Coroner that the man who accompanied Mrs. Pramberg to St. Luke's Hospital was Thomas Rogers, Town Marshal of Black Diamond. Rogers is now under arrest in charge of Sheriff Veale. Rogers told the Sheriff that he was lying on the bed in Mrs. Pramberg's room while she was seated at a table near by, writing a letter. In arising from the bed, the revolver fell out of his pocket and was accidentally discharged.

TUG REDONDO'S ESCAPE.

DEPARTS FROM A LIBEL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The tug Redondo departed from Hoquiam suddenly Monday afternoon, and is now being towed to San Francisco, thus escaping the libel filed Monday in the Federal Court here.

General Manager Emerson of the Northwestern Lumber Company libels the Redondo for $5200, covering the salvage claim of his tug, which rescued and towed her to Hoquiam last week. A new libel will be filed against her in the California district.

DERELICT DRIFTS ASHORE.

BARKENTINE QUICKSTEP'S FATE

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEWPORT (Or.) Dec. 1.—The derelict barkentine Quickstep, from Mukilteo to San Francisco, which was abandoned off Gray's Harbor, Wash., November 24, drifted ashore at Yaquina Head, four miles north of Newport, today. The vessel struck heavily on a reef and her foremast was carried away. The heavy seas which continually swept over her forced the barkentine across the reef and onto the beach, where she lay at ebb tide, about 250 yards from the water's edge.

When the derelict struck the beach her mainmast went overboard and later the heavy surf broke away her deckload of lumber and part of her cabin, which, with most of her keel and figurehead, are strewn along the beach. It isexpected that the next flood tide will carry her high enough on to the beach so that she may be boarded and part of her cargo saved unless she goes to pieces in the meantime.

FEAR FOR PASSENGERS.

SCHOONER FAILS TO RETURN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

EVERETT (Wash.) Dec. 1.—The 30-foot schooner Seawitch of Ballard, Wash., left Everett last Friday with seven passengers on board. They were expected to return Saturday. They have not been heard of in Everett since. It is feared the craft may have gone down in a storm of Saturday night. Those on board were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Pritchard and their three daughters, R. Starks, owner of the boat, who makes the craft his home, and a man named Sprink, a marine engineer.

Millie Pritchard, a sister of the three girls in the missing party, says the trip was undertaken as a pleasure voyage, and none of the party was prepared to be away more than a day. They had expected to land in Seattle or Ballard.

THREW LUMBER OVERBOARD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The schooner Jennie Wand, which sailed from Gray's Harbor twenty-three days ago with a cargo of 225,000 feet of lumber, has arrived here after a stormy trip. During a southeast gale off Coos Bay, November 17, she sprung a leak and there were soon seven feet of water in her hold. The capacity of her pumps was overtaxed and 100,000 feet of lumber were thrown overboard to keep the vessel afloat.

MAY HAVE FOUNDERED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EVERETT (Wash.) Dec. 1.—There are grave fears that the schooner Sea Witch of Ballard, with a pleasure party numbering seven people on board, foundered in the storm last Saturday night. The party left Everett for Seattle November 25, and expected to return the next day but up to a late hour tonight nothing definite has been heard of them.

Capt. Ramwell of the American Tugboat Company says he saw the Sea Witch off Edmonds on Tuesday last, and it is reported that the schooner was seen at Ballard but she is not there at present.

SAILS NEW YEAR'S DAY.

FIFTH BATTERY TO PHILIPPINES

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The Fifth Battery of Field Artillery, now stationed at the Presidio in this city, which was scheduled to sail for the Philippines on the transport leaving February 1, has had its orders changed and will sail on the Thomas on January 1. The Twenty-sixth Field Battery, from Vancouver Barracks, Wash., and the Twenty-eighth, from Fort Leavenworth, Kan., will sail with the Fifth on the Thomas.

The United States Army transport Logan sailed today for Guam and Manila, after being inspected by Gen. Francis Moore. She has on board a large number of cabin passengers, 14 officers and 200 men of the Pallippines Constabulary, 44 recruits, a full cargo of supplies and 1,000,000 newly-coined Philippine pesos.

HANDWRITING EXPERT CALLED.

IN LAND FRAUD TRIAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 1.—The first witness for the government today in the land-fraud trial was John P. Marshall, a handwriting expert. Marshall said that he was unable to state whether the signatures of Mattie E. Lowell and Marie Ware were written by the same person, although the body of the papers of record in the Lowell case, he thought, were written by Miss Ware. He said it was his opinion that the papers in the George A. Graham, John R. Foster and Pettis cases were written by Horace G. McKinley and Miss Marie Ware. Marshall swore that in his opinion the relinquishment of George A. Howe to the United States was written by Horace G. G. McKinley and signed by him.

The next testimony introduced through Handwriting Expert Marshall was to show that the handwriting on the bond of Frank H. Wolgamot, where he himself signed it, and on an affidavit taken before Special Agent Ormsby in regard to Wolgamot's claim were written by the same person.

Marshall testified that in his opinion the final proof papers of Maud Witt were written by S. A. D. Puter. He also stated that he believed that Emma Porter's final proof was written by Puter.

He said he believed Horace G. McKinley wrote the signature of Thomas Wilkinson, to the affidavit taken before Special Agent C. E. Loomis and that the signature on the affidavit of Emma Porter, taken before C. E. Loomis, was written by the same person that wrote the name of Emma Watson as witness.

In the Maud Witt case, three sets of signatures of that name were introduced in the shape of photographic enlargements. In the opinion of the expert, two persons wrote the names, each writing three. Who these persons were, he could not tell and had no means of telling.

J. F. Sherman, deputy clerk of the United States Court at Wichita, Kan., was the next witness for the government. He stated that he had filed that position for twenty years and had made an exhaustive practical and theoretical study of handwriting. His testimony corroborated that of Marshall.

WAS "HELPING JUSTICE."

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—J. A. Wilson, the manager of the Dennison News Company, testified concerning the identity of Thomas R. Wilson, the lame newsboy who was claimed, though under a slightly different initial, by Frank H. Wolgamot as a witness in his final affidavits. The object of this testimony was to prove to the jury that a false name had been used in the affidavits.

Albert Jacobs of Springfield testified that he had been mistaken in the integrity of Special Agent C. E. Loomis and had signed false affidavits at his suggestion, thinking them genuine, so he said. Jacobs told of his having been the proprietor of a general merchandise store at Detroit three years ago and more. He had met Tarpley five years ago at Detroit and about that time had also made the acquaintance of C. E. Loomis, a special agent. He had signed affidavits for the latter.

"Loomis came into my store at Detroit Or., one day," said the witness to a question by Prosecutor Heney, "and asked me if I would sign an affidavit for people who held claims in township 11 south, range 7 east. He said that the people had held the land for several years and wanted to prove upon their claims. He called the names of men whom I knew, and I told him that I would help them in any way I could. I signed the papers but in the bundle was a lot of papers with names I did not know, which I signed by mistake. I found out afterward."

"Did you know S. B. Ormsby?" was the next question.

"Yes," said Jacobs. "He came into the store one day with Dan Tarpley and asked me if I would sign affidavits for the people living there I had known. I made another mistake and signed a lot of papers I did not know anything about."

When asked if he had not been aware that it was a serious thing to make a false affidavit, Jacobs replied: "Under those circumstances, I thought that I was helping justice. In the way Loomis and Ormsby got me into it I thought I was helping those deserving people getting their lands."

The remainder of the day was consumed by the government's endeavor to prove that Dr. Frank H. Wolgamot had lived in Portland continuously for the past eleven years. None of the witnesses examined were willing to state positively such had been the case.

Court adjourned until tomorrow.

REPORT ON MANEUVERS.

PRAISE FOR AMERICAN LAKE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VANCOUVER BARRACKS (Wash.) Dec. 1.—The report of Maj. R. K. Evans, Assistant Adjutant-General, U. S.A., chief umpire of the maneuvers division held at American Lake, has been completed.

Maj. Evans especially praises the adaptability of the maneuver grounds at American Lake and expresses his desire to hold the next maneuver at this point. After describing the site, together with its chain of five lakes, and setting forth its advantages from a military point of view, Maj. Evans says:

"When one considers the particularly favorable conditions existing at American Lake for the assembling of large masses of troops, its advantages are apparent; and should war conditions arise, it is unexcelled as a point of departure for troops requiring transportation on the Pacific Ocean."

PRESIDENT TO RING CHIME.

TO OPEN FAIR FROM CAPITAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 1.—Electrical experts are at work upon an extremely novel arrangement for the opening ceremonies of the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The plan is to ring a chime of bells by electric keys from Washington, connected across the continent with the government exhibit palace on the fair grounds.

Arrangements have already been made to have President Roosevelt set in motion the machinery of the exposition by touching a button, but it will go farther than this. A simple apparatus will make it possible for the President to touch a few keys, which will set in motion chimes in towers 300 feet high. The selection to be played is "America." As the government group of buildings are isolated upon an island in a lake covering 400 acres, the effect, it is thought, will be extremely impressive.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Colder by 10 to 15 degs. was the forecast issued for tomorrow by the Chicago Weather Bureau. At the same time, cold-wave signals were sent out for Kansas, Western Missouri and Southern Nebraska, where the temperature today was unusually high. Chicago's mean temperature today was 6 degs. below normal, the range being from 22 to 30 degs. MISSISSIPPI VALLEY DROUTH.

The closing down of coal mines, the ruining of crops, the tying-up of railroads and disastrous fires may follow one of the worst drouths in the history of the Mississippi Valley, if cold weather sets in without rain. Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Wisconsin and other States in the valley are now feeling the effects of the lack of water. Already several disastrous prairie fires have occurred, railroads and coal mines are having hard work to get water, stock raisers are complaining, and farmers are counting their losses by hundreds of thousands of dollars. In some of the cities in the Mississippi Valley States, the water supply has been completely exhausted, and the first fire that occurs will sweep unchecked through the towns.

GEN. BELL CHALLENGES WRITER

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER (Colo.) Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After a bitter quarrel with Willard Hatch, a young man, whom he had employed to write a book, Adjt.-Gen. Herman Bell issued a challenge to Hatch to fight a duel. Hatch, who is an expert swordsman, chose swords, but Bell demurred, saying the weapons were not in general use among officers of the United States army. Bell said afterward, however, that he would fight with swords if Hatch persisted. Hatch is just as willing, but friends are trying to arbitrate the difficulty.

PROMINENT DIVINE SUSPENDED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TECUMSEH, (Neb.) Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rev. F. P. Blakemore, a prominent Methodist divine, was found guilty at a church trial and suspended on charges of immorality, falsifying and using profane language. So great interest was taken in the case that business was practically suspended for two days while the case was being heard.

RAILROAD TO THE PACIFIC.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA (Neb.) Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reports received here today indicate the extension of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway to the Pacific. Engineers are said to be working east through Wyoming and west from Pierre, S. D., terminus.

GIRLS CLIMB A DOME.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Four girls risked their lives at the fair, this afternoon, by climbing upon the dome of the Festival Hall, crowning the Cascades, in full view of the thousands of spectators in the great square below.

HARRY NEW IS SAFE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is said that in the event of defeat for the Senate, Harry New will be given a Cabinet position or an important foreign mission.

REPORTED SALE CONFIRMED.

SAN JOSE AND SANTA CLARA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN JOSE, Dec. 1.—The sale of the San José and Santa Clara Railroad, with its Alum Rock Park and Tenth-street branches, to J. R. Parkinson of Palo Alto and his associates, was confirmed today by Parkinson, who, however, declined to state the consideration paid.

Parkinson says that they will now proceed to the immediate construction of a standard-gauge line from San Mateo to Palo Alto and thence to San José, via Mayfield, Mountain View, Sunnyvale and Santa Clara. The trunk line will also be extended to Gilroy and numerous branch lines are contemplated.

BAG OF GOLD MISSING.

WAS EXPRESSED TO SAN JOSE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The bag containing $15,000 in gold consigned to San José by the London and San Francisco Bank, through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express office, and which mysteriously disappeared after it had been prepared for shipment, Monday, has not yet been found. Officers of the company say they believe that it was improperly way-billed and will be found at some point to which sealed safes were sent.

The amount has been made good at San José, and no charges have been preferred against any of the clerks who handled the coin.

Since Tuesday officials of the express company and a force of special detectives have been seeking a trace of the gold. The money was in double eagles.

KINIRY ARRAIGNED.

WILL CONDUCT HIS DEFENSE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

OAKLAND, Dec. 1.—David Kiniry, charged with the murder of Policeman James H. Smith, was arraigned this morning before Police Judge Samuels. Kiniry pleaded not guilty and smilingly agreed to all of the arrangements for his preliminary examination, which is set for December 8.

So far as the examination is concerned, Kiniry will conduct his own defense.

An arbitration treaty between Sweden and Norway and Belgium was signed at Brussels Wednesday.

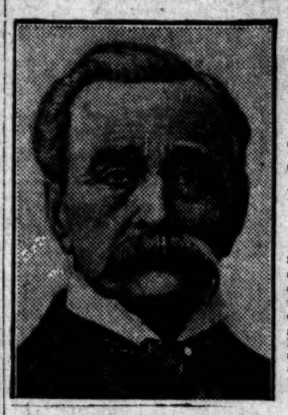
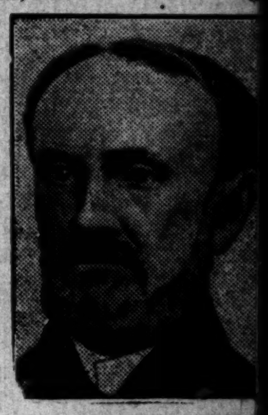
War-Scarred Union Generals Defy Disease and Old Age
General Melbourne and Major-General Hamilton, Past 88 Years of Age
Beloved and Honored Veterans of the Civil War, Tell How They Overcame Wounds and Disease and Keep Vigorous and Healthy in Old Age, by Use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.




Among the survivors of the great war for the preservation of the Union, none are more distinguished for conspicuous courage and gallantry on the field of battle than Gen. W. F. Melbourne and Maj.-Gen. Alexander Hamilton, grandson of the great American patriot and signer of the Declaration of Independence. Like thousands who find themselves growing weak and infirm through sickness or old age they sought vigor and health in Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky, the great tonic-stimulant and health builder.
Gen. W. F. MELBOURNE, Cured of Indigestion and Stomach Trouble by Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky.
"I am a veteran of the war with Mexico, the expedition for the suppression of the Free State in Kansas in 1856, and the Mormon rebellion in 1857. I have fought the Indians for years, served through the Civil War, and was in the war with Spain. Despite it all, I am thankful to say I have enjoyed health until a few months ago, when I suffered a severe attack of stomach trouble, dyspepsia and indigestion. I went all to pieces. I tried many 'cures,' but without relief. Finally I commenced on Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky. It quickly cured me, and my health is splendid in every way. I find 'Duffy's' one of the most invigorating and rejuvenating tonic-stimulants, and cordially recommend it, especially to those getting along in years."—W. F. MELBOURNE, Sec. Nat. Assn. Mexican War Veterans, New York, Aug. 10, 1904.
Maj.-Gen. ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Aged 88, Weak and Run Down by Wounds and Catarrh, Built Up and Invigorated by Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky, After All Other Medicines Failed
"For many years I have been a sufferer from chronic catarrh and other complications as a result of wounds received in the Civil War. After trying almost every known remedy without satisfactory or encouraging results, I dropped everything and began to use Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky exclusively. I began at once to improve, and though in my eighty-ninth year, I am a strong and vigorous man, in possession of all my faculties, and every trace of my catarrh has disappeared. I can never forget what your grand medicine has done for me, or cease to recommend its use to all who are sick, run down, or out of sorts."—ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Tarrytown, N. Y., Aug. 30, 1904.
4,000 CENTENARIANS OWE HEALTH AND OLD AGE TO Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky
There are 4000 men and women in this country alone who have passed the hundred year mark, and nearly every one of them has publicly acknowledged that he or she owes health, strength, continued use of all the faculties, and extreme old age to Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky, the great cure and preventive of disease, the true elixir of life. We will send you free a booklet containing portraits and letters of many of these old people, and valuable medical information.
If you would be strong, husky and vigorous, and able to enjoy the work and pleasures of life to the fullest; if you would live to ripe old age without aches and pains, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky as directed and avoid all drugs. Doctors say it's the most powerful aid they have in fighting and curing diseases of throat, lungs and stomach, hay fevers and all weakening, wasting, nervous, run-down, diseased conditions from whatever cause.
ABSOLUTELY PURE & UNADULTERATED TRADE MARK
It acts quickly and builds up the whole system. Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky is used exclusively in leading hospitals. The old reliable family remedy of hundreds of thousands for over fifty years. Its purity is vouched for by chemists, and by the fact that it's the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine.
Every testimonial is published in full faith and guaranteed.
AVOID SUBSTITUTES
Be sure you get the genuine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, sold in bottles only at all reliable druggists and grocers, or direct, price $1.00. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal Whiskey and contains no fusel oil. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and be certain the seal over the cork is unbroken. If offered in flasks or bulk it's a fraud and is dangerous and will not cure.

LABOR.

CLOSED SHOP IS ILLEGAL.

Brooklyn Judge Decides Against the Unions.

Under Open Shop Production Greatly Increases.

H. M. Parry Further Refutes Logic of Laborites.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a decision handed down today, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Brooklyn declares that the contract between employers and a union to employ only union men is illegal, as contrary to public policy.

Meny Jacobs, president of the Protective Coat Tailors' and Pressers' Union, Local No. 55, of the United Garment Workers of America, brought suit against the firm of M. Cohen & Sons to enforce such an agreement. The union tried to recover on a promissory note given by Cohen to bind the agreement.

"The combination disclosed," declares Justice Hirschberg, writing the opinion, in which all associates except Justice Bartlett agree, "is accordingly one, the purpose of which is to hamper and restrict freedom of employment on the part of both master and servant, under penalty of both loss of service and deprivation of employment, and to coerce all workingmen within the field of its operation to become members of the contracting organization."

Justice Bartlett, in a dissenting opinion, called the agreement "a contract, having the lawful purpose of benefiting parties thereto by procuring for the employer the most capable workmen and not involving the exercise of any physical force."

OPEN-SHOP ADVANTAGES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frederick W. Job, secretary of the Chicago Employers' Association, gave his unqualified indorsement this morning to the statement by H. M. Parry, president of the association, that a change from the closed to the open shop system increases the output from 25 per cent. to 50 per cent. Mr. Job said:

"I can affirm that in every instance it has come under my notice of the open shop being opened to all laborers employed for merit, and regardless of union affiliations, a marked increase in output has resulted immediately."

Anthony Ittner, a manufacturer of St. Louis, contributed "modern instance" of his own. "In a western factory with which I am well acquainted," he said, "men are paid by piece. At first it was a closed shop, and the laborers turned out daily 750 pieces of a certain article. Afterward, when the open shop was established the men were offered for a thousand pieces the same price they had formerly received for 750, with the provision, however, that if they made more than 1000, they should be paid accordingly. As a result of the first day of the open shop, one of the workmen who had formerly turned out 750 pieces, and who now, under a contract for 1000, turned out 2600."

FALLACY EXPOSED.

H. M. Parry, president of the Citizens' Industrial Association, said: "The policy with unions is to make all men conform in their work to the level of the least able. They wish to make impossible for any man to emerge above the average, through his individual ability. The idea of this policy, they say, is work and equal conditions for all.

"They fail to realise, however, that by increasing the price of goods by this method they decrease the popular demand for them, and that the situation thus automatically adjusts itself.

"The fundamental fallacy of unions is just here: They do not understand that men work for products and not for money. They think, on the contrary, that by decreasing production they will increase price. Carried to its logical conclusions, their position implies that if they could only decrease production to zero, all men would be wealthy and happy."

BIG STRIKE, ONE STRIKER.

TATUM DEMANDS MORE PAY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A strike affecting 20,000 employes was called in Chicago today. A break in the strike can occur, as there is but one striker—E. V. Tatum, president of the International Bookbinders' Union, and he struck because 20,000 employers in that organization refused to pay him more than $100 per five years' service. The decision to strike this amount was made before Tatum already had the money, and there was small chance of getting back.

MORE FIRING AT ZEIGLER.

MILITIAMEN CALLED OUT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHEQUOIN (Ill.) Dec. 1.—According to Sheriff Stein, an attack was made on Zeigler last night. Firing began at the pumping station two miles north of the town, and spread back to the mines, where, Stein said, at least 1000 shots were fired. The machine guns responded promptly. All militiamen were called out and the Sheriff's son rode for a posse in Zeigler, but the non-union miners would not respond. Superintendent C. C. Whittier refused to give details, beyond stating that there was considerable firing, to which the company's machine guns responded. Sheriff Stein said that he could not tell whether most of the firing was from the inside or the outside of the town. It is not known whether anyone was injured.

Assistant Adjutant-General Reece, who is at Zeigler, stated today that the shooting last night was of the same character as previous firings, continuing at irregular periods. The militia, according to Col. Reece, took no part in the shooting last night. Col. Reece left for Springfield today to make his report to Gov. Yates on the situation at Zeigler.

The Zeigler Coal Company has concluded to rush into the mining town as many men as are necessary to work the plant to its full capacity. Two coachloads brought in last night were drawn directly inside the stockades.

Residents of Michigan representing about $30,000 of stock of the Montana Cooperative Ranch Company have intervened in the suit brought against that company by Samuel H. Wood, the promoter, at Great Falls, Mont. They charge Wood with fraud and with having converted to his own use about $30,000 of the company's funds.

"Suicide during temporary insanity," was the verdict of the Coroner's inquest on Elverton R. Chapman of New York City, who committed suicide the evening of November 28, at the Carlton Hotel, by throwing himself from the third floor landing to the vestibule. The evidence of friends showed that Chapman, while in Paris, exhibited signs of derangement. He therefore was closely watched at the hotel, but eluded the vigilance of his attendant.

The German Emperor did some remarkable shooting at Alawenits, Silesia, yesterday. From daylight to 4 o'clock in the afternoon he brought down 910 pheasants, eighteen other birds and two hares. The guns of the party bagged 3215 head of game. The Emperor and his party shot 10,042 birds in two days last week on the estate of Count Von Tiele-Winckler, which of Count Von Tiele-Winckler, which city receives almost every day several thousand phesants, besides larger game, as a result of the imperial party's forays.

Queen Alexandra celebrated her sixtieth birthday yesterday at Sandringham. The festivities at Sandringham were of a simple character, the main feature being the entertainment of the school children of the estate, at which the Queen and her guests personally attended to the wants of the little folks. The Queen was the recipient of an immense variety of presents, mostly curios and artistic knicknacks. Telegrams of congratulations from friends and public bodies, to which the Queen always responds personally, reached Sandringham in very large numbers.

The United States Court of Appeals of the Third Judicial District ended its September term yesterday. Among the cases argued before the court during the term was that of Harriman vs. The Northern Securities Company, in which no decision was reached. It is expected that when the judges arrive at a conclusion, the opinion will be filed with the clerk of the court.

POLITICAL.

WHY IS A DEMOCRAT?

The President's Great Victory Crushes His Critics.

Parker's Vote Over a Million Less Than Bryan's.

California Congress District Elections—Vote of States.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The country has not yet realized the extent of the Republican victory of three weeks ago. The gravitation of accumulating majorities has crushed Democrats into silence. What they are "up against" outside of the South is that the vote for Roosevelt was practically double that for Parker. Out of the total popular vote of nearly fifteen millions, the minor parties have cast a little over a million votes. President Roosevelt and Parker will divide the remaining 14,000,000 votes in the proportion of about 8,250,000 and 5,750,000. If the Solid South, where an untrammeled expression of popular will was not had, be eliminated from the calculations, with its 1,600,000 votes, it will be found that President Roosevelt has beaten Parker only a little less than by 2 to 1.

In New York State, Parker was defeated by more than 170,000. Pennsylvania, with its 500,000 plurality, went for the President by more than 2 to 1. Illinois, with 300,000, and Ohio, with 250,000 plurality, by almost 2 to 1. Wisconsin, one of the "doubtful" States, and California, gave Roosevelt about five votes to Parker's two. Washington, nearly four votes to Parker's one. Several of the smaller States, like Vermont and South Dakota, made it almost unanimous.

The figures reveal a Republican gain of 28 per cent. and a Democratic loss of 72 per cent. over the vote of 1900, and a total vote of 100,000 less than that cast for McKinley and Bryan in 1900. Only in three States, Georgia, Mississippi and South Carolina, did Parker gain and Roosevelt lose. The President lost 137,674 votes in Alabama, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, while Parker lost 233,526 in the same States. Both gained in Delaware, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and West Virginia. In the remaining thirty States, the President gained 599,747 over 1900, but Parker lost 1,035,224.

SHE REBUKED HOBSON.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Threatened removal at the end of the present school term, of Ida Galbraith, a teacher at Columbia City, because she rebuked Capt. Hobson for abuse of the President when Hobson spoke in that place during the campaign, has brought the girl many letters and offers of a position, if the threat to remove her is carried out. Parents and many pupils protested against the anticipated action of the trustees, but there is a feeling that Miss Galbraith may be quietly dropped from the roll of teachers when the school closes for Christmas.

Among the letters which Miss Galbraith has received is one from a friend in Washington, who says a position in the Philippines as principal of a school will be open to her.

COLORADO FRAUDS.

COURT SUMMONS GRAND JURY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER (Colo.) Dec. 1.—District Judge John L. Mullins, in the Criminal Court today issued an order summoning a grand jury to investigate alleged election frauds in this county. This step is taken at the behest of Democratic leaders, who charge that money was wrongfully used by corporations to elect certain candidates at the recent election, and that voters were coerced by their employers. The Sheriff was instructed to return the venire next Saturday.

MORE WARRANTS SERVED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, Dec. 1.—Arguments were made in five of the contempt cases before the Supreme Court today, and at the conclusion the court announced that decision would be rendered Monday morning next. Twelve more Supreme Court warrants for Democratic elections were served in Denver today. Two arrests were made this afternoon, both of the pesons arrested, Max Schradsky and Max Sissock, being released in $1000 bonds. The men are charged with contempt in refusing to accord special Supreme Court watchers the right conferred upon them by the Supreme Court at the time of their appointment.

Attorneys representing the Democratic State organization also secured the issuance of a batch of warrants for Republicans in Huerfano county. The charge is the same as in the Denver cases, the alleged contempt consisting of refusal to allow special Supreme Court watchers to enter the polling places designated in Huerfano county.

Hearing in contempt cases will be resumed in the Supreme Court tomorrow. There are about fifty cases still pending.

VOTES OF STATES.

NOTABLE FIGURES FROM UTAH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) Dec. 1.—The official returns for Utah in the recent election has been completed. The highest vote for a Republican Presidential elector was 42,444 and the highest Democratic, 33,413. Roosevelt's plurality, therefore, was 29,031. Debs, Socialist, received 5757 votes. The American Party, organized during the campaign to fight alleged church interference in politics, polled 7959 votes. Other Presidential nominees, including Watson (Populist) received a vote of 47 in the State.

INAUGURATION OF GEN. DIAZ.

He Takes Oath of Office for His Seventh Term.

Most Auspicious Circumstances Attend Occasion.

Mexican Capital Given Over to Notable Event.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 1.—The inauguration of Gen. Porfirio Diaz as President of the Republic of Mexico for the seventh term, and of Don Ramon Corral as First Vice-President took place today in the hall of the Chamber of Deputies under most auspicious circumstances.

Preparations for the inauguration have been going on ever since the election, June 7, last, but actively extended over a period of about a fortnight, beginning with the grand ball given in honor of President and Madame Diaz, November 20, which was attended by the Mexican and Spanish aristocracy of the capital.

At sunrise today all the artillery stationed in the Federal district, and also the infantry heer and at barracks throughout the republic, fired a Presidential salute and flags were hoisted over all public buildings.

The principal streets and edifices and residences were decorated profusely with arches and national flags, freely interspersed with the flags of foreign nations. One of the features of the street decorations was two allegorical arches over the Paso De La Reforma, the principal street of the capital, representing "Peace" and "Glory."

A heavy rain which had fallen the previous day necessitated the postponement of the grand civic and military procession, for which elaborate preparations had been made.

The afternoon was devoted to field sports and merrymaking. Tonight there will be music on the various plazas by military bands, and an inaugural ball, to which over 1000 persons have received invitations.

RECEPTION TO STILLWELL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 1.—Shortly after his inauguration today President Diaz tendered a reception to A. E. Stillwell party which consisted of 55 men prominent in the professional and business life of the United States, who are interested in the building of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway. In response to the speech of Judge Werner of the New York Court of Appeals, President Diaz paid a tribute to the ability of Mr. Stillwell, referring at length to the distinguished career of Gen. Joseph Wheeler, who was one of the party, and concluded by expressing his best wishes for the enterprise.

SEQUEL TO TRAGEDY.

Triple Murderer Barricades His Home and Defies Officers Until Overcome by Sleep, When He is Shot.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

FORT WORTH (Tex.) Dec. 1.—The sequel to the tragedy that cost the lives of Steve McKinney, his father and a hired man, on their farm near Alvarado, Tuesday, came today.

J. M. Williams, the triple murderer, barricaded himself in his home and defied the officers. He sent word to his daughter, the widowed bride of the man he had murdered, that if she did not come to him he would kill her. In fear and trembling, she went to the house. There she found her father armed with a Winchester rifle and in a frenzy of rage.

The officers were afraid to fire into the house for fear of killing some member of Williams's family whom he held prisoners there to shield him.

All night the officers watched from the McKinney home, where lay the bodies of the men killed by Williams. Finally the murderer seated himself by a window, his Winchester across his lap, he became drowsy, his head dropped on his breast and he slept.

Assuring herself that her father was asleep, the widowed bride stole from the house and fled to the home where her husband's body lay.

The officers were watching for an opportunity to make the attack upon the murderer. As soon as they learned he was alone, they opened fire. He was not slow in returning it. Finally the crack of his Winchester was heard no more. Cautiously the Sheriff entered and found the murderer lying prone on the floor, with a bullet through his brain.

THOUSANDS LOSE SAVINGS.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—A further meeting of the Stock Exchange creditors of the London and Paris Exchange, which closed its offices here yesterday, was held today. The suspension had no effect whatever on the market, but aroused considerable interest because of the wide ramifications of the business, involving thousands who, attracted by the bold advertising of the exchange, invested their whole savings, heretofore entrusted to the postoffice savings banks. Some 300 clerks were employed by the exchange and its customers are estimated to number 50,000 persons.

Idaho's Vote Canvassed.

BOISE (Idaho) Dec. 1.—The State Board today canvassed returns of the election. The figures are as follows: Roosevelt, 47,783; Parker, 18,480; Debs, 4949; Swallow, 1013; Watson, 353. Roosevelt's plurality, 29,303.

What Uricsol Will Do.

URICSOL not only cures the common form of Rheumatism, but it does what no other remedy ever has succeeded in accomplishing before.

It dissolves and eliminates deposits in the joints, where they have been accumulating for years.

Records are in our possession, not of one but of many cases where the joints of the fingers were so thickened as to be practically rigid and useless; where the hip or knee joints were so filled with the deposit as to render the patient wholly unable to walk, and who have been restored to health and activity by the systematic use of URICSOL.

Gentlemen: For the last five years I have been a constant sufferer from Inflammatory Rheumatism. These five years have been full of torture and excruciating pain.

I have tried every known remedy in existence. The doctors prescribed for me until I became discouraged in trying to obtain a cure. Up to this day I have used three bottles of URICSOL and have driven the Rheumatism entirely out of my system.

Tale of Female's Frenzied Finances at an End.

The Banker from Brookline Gets Back His Bullion.

Woman Has a Million, it Was Shown at Midnight.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—George Ryall, legal counsel for Herbert D. Newton, tonight made the statement that the settlement agreed upon with Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick of Cleveland is for the payment in cash of Newton's entire claim. The payment, he said, is to be made either this week or early next.

"No securities have been given for this payment," he added, "but we are sure it will be made."

In reference to the statement this afternoon by Edmund Powers, counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, that of the amount claimed by Newton, $65,000 represented notes given for bonuses, Ryall said:

"Mr. Powers is mistaken in his figures. The notes he refers to do not represent bonuses. The settlement is upon our full claim of $190,800."

Ryall further said that Newton was in conference with his own attorneys today, but that no one representing him held any conference with Mrs. Chadwick or her attorneys.

Newton and Carver returned to Boston this afternoon.

NEW PHASE OF CASE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The announcement that one of the largest creditors of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, the Cleveland woman whose financial affairs came into prominence in a sensational way a few days ago, had agreed upon a settlement, has given a new phase to this strange case. That all the legitimate claims against Mrs. Chadwick will be met, is the statement made by her attorneys, but at the same time they decline to say anything as to the source from which the necessary funds will be obtained.

The settlement of the Newton claim, when made, will reduce Mrs. Chadwick's alleged obligation by $190,000. At the same time, however, there remain claims aggregating at least $500,000. That they may reach a greater sum is apparent from a statement made by her attorney yesterday. When asked if they would reach $1,000,000 he replied: "Well, you may place it at that figure. For all I know, there may be claims for $20,000,000 against her."

Percy Carver, of counsel for Herbert D. Newton, said today: "Mr. Newton's suit against Mrs. Chadwick will be held in abeyance until a full settlement is made. This is done to give Mrs. Chadwick time to think the matter over and to give us an opportunity to learn whether she is willing and able to settle the case out of court.

"Concerning the report that Mr. Carnegie's name appeared on the $500,000 note which Mrs. Chadwick showed to Mr. Newton, I have nothing to say. Nor will I discuss any other suits which have been brought against Mrs. Chadwick."

Edmund W. Powers, counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, made a statement regarding the case this afternoon. He said that the total indebtedness to Newton was approximately $190,800. Of this sum, he said, $75,000 was money actually owed and due; $65,000 was due on bonuses to be paid for the accommodation, and $50,800 was owed on two notes of $25,400 each, which would not mature for a year.

SHE HAS COIN IN PLENTY.

"Mrs. Chadwick has ample money to meet her debts," said Mr. Powers. "She has over $1,000,000 in her own right. It is true that she paid over to her husband $2,500,000 some time ago, but had enough to meet all her debts, which total about $600,000."

Regarding the failure of the Citizens' National Bank, Lawyer Powers said that Mrs. Chadwick was in no way to blame. He attributed the insolvency to the methods pursued by the officials of the bank.

"We are now in a position to state that Mr. Newton's claim will be paid in full, and we have gone so far that we are not relying any more on mere promises." This statement concerning his client's present position was made today by Arthur A. Stearns, the Cleveland lawyer representing Herbert D. Newton.

Newton, Stearns and Percy W. Carver, the Brookline man's Boston attorney, were in conference relative to the expected settlement of the suit, at the office of George F. Ryall, during the forenoon. It was then understood that Mrs. Chadwick was to visit Ryall's office today.

Mrs. Chadwick today left the hotel where she had been stopping and it was reported that before leaving she paid her bill, indicating that she did not intend to return. It was believed that she intended to leave for Cleveland today. When Carver, counsel for Newton, was asked this afternoon if it was correct that $65,000 of his client's claim against Mrs. Chadwick was for bonuses for obtaining the loan, he said: "I have no further statements to make.

"Mrs. Chadwick's personal statement will not be ready until Saturday," he said. "She is now working on it and will have it ready then."

Mrs. Chadwick returned to the Holland House this afternoon and notified the management that she probably would leave the city Saturday.

Newton had a long conference with his attorneys here during the day, when the situation with regard to a settlement of the claim against Mrs. Chadwick was thoroughly discussed. At the conclusion of the conference, George Royal, Newton's counsel, said:

"We are now satisfied that Mrs. Chadwick has ample means with which to meet all our claims and that she means to do so. It is now only a question of arranging the details of the settlement."

A definite acceptance of the arrangement entered into between the attorneys for Mrs. Chadwick and Newton for a settlement is stated to have been agreed upon at a midnight conference held at the Park Avenue Hotel. Present were Banker Newton and his Boston counsel.

Attorney Carver said: "Circumstances have arisen which have caused us to change our front. The conference was merely to end in good shape the agreement entered into."

Newton arrived here last night from Boston especially to attend the conference.

CLEVELAND DEVELOPMENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CLEVELAND (O.) Dec. 1.—The receivership case brought by Herbert D. Newton of Brookline, Mass., against Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, was called in Common Pleas Court today. Attorney Carr, representing the plaintiff, requested the court to again postpone the hearing. Judge Babcock granted the request with the consent of counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, and the hearing was fixed to take place next Saturday. The action was taken, it is understood as a result of the negotiations in settling the claim of Newton.

Ira Reynolds, secretary and treasurer of the Wade Park Banking Company, who is reported to have securities in his possession belonging to Mrs. Chadwick, to the value of from $750,000 to $1,000,000, stated today that if the Newton claim "should be settled the other claims would doubtless be liquidated within a few days at the most. Reynolds again declined to make any statement concerning the bonds, stocks or notes alleged to be in his possession and owned by Mrs. Chadwick.

A force of experts are still at work on the books of the Wade Park Banking Company, preparing a financial statement of the institution. Reynolds declared today that a statement to be issued by the bank would show that institution in first class condition and also that the indebtedness of Mrs. Chadwick to it to be only about $17,000.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED

Hyomei's Wonderful Action in Curing a Case of Thirty Years' Standing. Guaranteed by Your Druggist.

Do not try to cure catarrh by taking drugs into the stomach. It cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this common disease can be cured is through a direct application that will kill the germs of catarrh and prevent their growth. Hyomei is the only known method of treatment that accomplishes this. It is the simplest, most pleasant, and only absolute cure for catarrh that has ever been discovered.

Mrs. C. A. Derby of Beverly, Mass., writes: "My husband has had catarrhal trouble for thirty years and Hyomei is the first thing which has ever helped him. He had catarrh in its worst form, and nothing except Hyomei ever had any effect on it whatever. This gave him relief from the first, and he has steadily improved, until now he is cured."

Your druggists have so much confidence in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh that they will sell the treatment under their personal guarantee to refund the money if the purchasers can say it does not benefit. Ask them to show you the strong guarantee under which it is sold.

SIDE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

Yesterday the boss handed me a bouquet, he called me in his private office, I thought he was going to rip me up the back, but he said, "It has always been my policy to advance boys as rapidly as possible, two of my managers started in with the same job that you have now, at about your age. They had the right stuff in them and got to the top. Several other boys are now in the front of the store working up to the management of a branch store, many others proved to be failures and are drifting through life with an occasional job. It's strictly up to you whether you'll be a success or a failure. You'll find that keeping everlastingly at it is what brings success. The door to success is labeled 'Push.' You bet I'm going to do my best to hold my job. I know lots of kids whose bosses won't even recognize them. When I grow up if I can't manage a Silverwood store I'm going to run one of my own on the same plan, treat everybody alike whether looking or buying, have strictly one price and play fair ball all of the time.

LOCAL POLITICS.

STEW'S FIXED IN THE SIXTH.

Jim Lynch Takes Charge of Howton's Campaign.

Verdin, Snyder and Howton Make Secret Deal.

Freak's Part in Plot is to Faint Awhile Longer.

When Attorney M. W. Conkling accepted Councilman Howton's challenge to fight, and thrashed the challenger for his trouble, he little thought he was driving a nail on which to hang a excuse for the appearance on the scene of Jim Lynch, the father of all the totem-tosers in the Typographical Union, who is the president of the International organization, with headquarters at Indianapolis, Ind. Now that Lynch "has came," it is demonstrated what stupendous epochs can spring from trivialities, even such trivialities as the prompt and invited lambasteement of an individual of the type of the freak Councilman from the Sixth Ward.

For by an arrangement completed yesterday, the chief of all the totem-tosers is here to assume the management of Howton's campaign for the few brief days that are left. This is a serious business. Howton is at home in a strictly dying condition and expected to expire some time between 7 and 5 o'clock next Monday, and manifestly it is impossible for him to appear on the streets in support of his own reelection. The best he can make it to do is to stick that inside doors and alternately faint away for the benefit of the Evening Express and confer with the leaders of the Howton-Snyder-Howton-Werdin-Howton-Lynch crowd for the benefit of himself and them. This would keep it well man unusually busy; in the case of a man who has been publicly thrashed for under it is exhausting. Howton's friends are not sure how long he can keep up the dual role, but they are in hopes their cunning can diddle can go on fainting and confessing until the polls close Monday evening, after which, if the mental strain has not proved too great and blood poisoning does not set in as a result of the election returns, complete recovery may be looked for in a few hours.

A SWEET QUARTETTE.

By the pact signed up yesterday, out the Sixth Ward Howton is to help Snyder and Werdin. Snyder and Werdin are to help Howton, and Jim Lynch is to herd the typographical and all other union votes he can clunch for the ree of them. This is the latest audeville quartette to appear on the political stage. It is an unusually sweet one. With the aid of the questionable votes that Werdin and Snyder have arranged for, Howton hopes to defeat by a narrow margin the will of the straightforward element in his ward and thereby be recompensed in some measure for the heavy prospection strain of fainting several times a day according to order. In return Howton is to hand over to Werdin and Snyder as many votes as he can from among such earnest and unsuspecting fourth Warders as have swallowed Howton's "possibly fatally injured" advertisement and let their "sympathy," or a cunning freak run away with their discernment and common sense, and over this fragrant stew of political trickery and campaign fraud the honorable Jim Lynch is to preside. If Howton is elected he is to "use his influence, publicly when advisable, privately when deemed best, for the benefit at all times of trades unionism." Snyder and Werdin are elected, or other of them, they are to keep the same pledge.

Thus, the pact entered into yesterday, is the secret agreement that the voters of the Sixth Ward are asked to unknowingly approve next Monday by voting for Howton and his new-made confederates.

ACTUALLY AT WORK.

Yesterday 12,000 Sixth-Ward sample ballots were delivered at the headquarters of the Typographical Union, on the fourth floor of the Wilson block. These were the major portion of an order for the printing of 15,000, placed by Boycott-Arthur Hay after a conference participated in by Lynch, Fennessy and other and representatives of Snyder, Werdin and Howton. The distribution of these sample ballots is to be begun in the Sixth Ward today. The fact of their having been printed at the order of Lynch and his crowd leaked out through the blunder of a delivery boy, who got into the wrong office in the Wilson building yesterday—the office of a citizen who has no use for the union stem or the sympathy-begging shams of Howton—with a big bundle of these ballots and insisted upon having them accepted and signed for. The citizen saw at once that the boy had gotten into the wrong address, and in the explanations that followed it came out what the ballots were and by whom they had been ordered. Eventually they were delivered to Hay in the totem room on the top floor and duly receipted for. It is said the blunder has cost the boy his job.

MUST STAY IN BED.

Lynch is to follow up the ballot distribution by "underground" personal work for his three precious confederates among the union voters of the Fourth Ward, Hay, Fennessy and other talking delegates and labor agitators to assist. The campaign is to be pushed by them vigorously and unceasingly from now until the closing of the polls next Monday night. How-ard's chief part in the plot, aside from holding frequent conferences with his co-operators in the curtained seclusion of his home, is to maintain the faint-act, keep the Express posted on his dizzyings and sinkings, stave off by his feigned illness the trial of M. W. Conkling for thrashing him until after election day, and, above all things, to remain in his bed (or close enough to jump into bed when the door bell rings,) and have someone always on hand in his house to give the "wise" answer over the telephone when persons who really believe he is suffering ask up to ask how he is getting along and whether or not he will "recover."

Final Blast in Seventh.

The Seventh Ward Republican Club will close the campaign tonight with a rousing meeting at No. 653 Central avenue, under Tom's Hotel. They will have a brass band and a huge bonfire, and all the candidates will be present.

Polling Place Changed.

The polling place for Precinct 76, Fifth Ward, has been changed to No. 656 Central avenue. The change was made necessary by the fact that the building at No. 3867 Central avenue will not be completed in time for the election.

Good Government Meeting.

The Westlake Good Government and Improvement Association will hold a meeting this evening at the Westlake Methodist Church, Eighth street and Burlington avenue, to consider the proposed charter amendments to be voted for at the coming election. The association will take no part in partisan politics, but will simply aim to bring about the best possible conditions in the care of streets, trees and other questions affecting all people and the general good of the city.

DEMOCRATS DONE WITH SNYDER.

PROMINENT MEMBERS OF PARTY OPPOSED TO HIM.

Gen. John R. Mathews Gives Reasons Why He Can no Longer Support the Present Mayor—Will Vote for McAleer—Many Others Will Follow His Example.

"I voted three times for Mayor Snyder, and I don't know but that was once too often. I shall not vote for him for a fourth term. You may quote me as saying that I intend to vote for Owen McAleer for Mayor at the coming election."

The speaker was Gen. John R. Mathews, ex-Assemblyman, ex-State Senator and ex-postmaster of Los Angeles. If there is a Democrat in Los Angeles who commands the respect of his own party, and of Republicans, as well, more than Gen. Mathews, the fact is not patent. Gen. Mathews was twice elected to the State Legislature, once as Assemblyman and once as Senator, from a district which is overwhelmingly Republican, and it goes without contradiction that Los Angeles county never had a more able, or more satisfactory representative at the State capital.

As postmaster of Los Angeles for four years, by appointment of President Cleveland, during his second administration, Gen. Mathews added to his reputation for integrity and efficiency. As a business man and as president of the Los Angeles Produce Exchange, and in the various capacities in which he has served the community, Gen. Mathews has always been held in the supremest esteem by the citizens of Los Angeles, generally.

When a man of Gen. Mathews's high standing, who has been an ardent Democrat from his youth up to the present time, renounces the standard-bearer of his party in a municipal campaign, there must be some good reason for his action. Asked, yesterday, why he had foresworn Snyder, Gen. Mathews said:

"I have no grievance against Mayor Snyder personally. He is not obligated to me for anything, and I am under no obligations to him. Personally I like him, and I would walk ten blocks at any time to do him a personal favor. But officially I am opposed to him, as I consider him a failure as Mayor of this great city.

"If Mayor Snyder had been a real watchdog for the people's interests, instead of using his office for his self-advancement, the abuses which have occurred in some of the city departments could have been prevented.

"This city, which is in some respects one of the greatest in the country, needs a man in the executive chair who will not subserve his public duties to politics. We want a Mayor who is not the slave of the corporations or any private interests. I have but scant acquaintance with Mr. McAleer, but from my observations of the man, I am convinced that if elected he will try to perform the duties of the office of Mayor faithfully, without regard to the effect his acts may have on his future political career.

"I regret that I must forsake the nominee of my own party for so important an office, but I believe the welfare of the city is of higher importance than the success of any party, and therefore I shall vote for the man whom my conscience dictates as the best man available for the position."

L. J. Mathews, brother of the general and his business partner, also a life-long Democrat, likewise declared himself as opposed to Mayor Snyder for a fourth term. The Mathews brothers stated that a number of Los Angeles-street business men who supported Snyder in his former campaigns, are done with him and will vote for McAleer at the coming election.

The defection from Snyder in his own party ranks is quite formidable. Many of the most prominent Democrats in the city have either publicly or privately declared their intention to vote for the Republican nominee for Mayor, or not vote for Mayor at all. Not all are so outspoken as Gen. Mathews, but one does not have to seek far to find leaders of the Democracy who denounce Snyder with more or less vehemence and who declare they will not vote to perpetuate him in office.

SWEDES RALLY, WERDIN TALKS.

CANDIDATE BECOMES VINDICTIVE IN HIS SPEECH.

Elk's Hall Crowded With the Loyal Scandinavians of the City Who Listen to Various Candidates and Hear George Adams Analysis of C. D. Willard—Enthusiasm.

Elks' Hall was filled with the Scandinavians of the city last night, who participated in the rally given by the Scandinavian-American Republican Club with enthusiasm that held the crowd until nearly 11 o'clock. This was somewhat out of the usual order of the city campaign meetings, in that a large portion of the audience were ladies, who evinced much interest in the proceedings, and who were appealed to by nearly every one of the speakers.

G. Eckdahl was chairman, and gave a brief history of the work of the Scandinavian-American Republican Club. He said: "This club was organized for its first campaign in 1896, and we were all green then, knew very little about practical politics, and didn't accomplish much for the party; but since that time we have been successful factors in several stirring campaigns, and have received within the past two years more recognition than ever before." Mr. Eckdahl closed his short talk with a strong plea for votes for Werdin for Street Superintendent, and declared that Werdin had employed more Swedes in the street department in the past term of his office than had ever been employed by the city in all its departments before.

This was followed by the appearance of Werdin, with his usual stereotyped speech, bad grammar, poor logic, vindictive spirit and all, except that he found time to devote a portion of his talk to a tirade against The Times for not lauding him in his candidacy.

E. E. Johnson, candidate for Tax Collector; Evan Lewis, for Assessor; J. W. Whittington, for the school board; and McAleer for Mayor, all presented their claims, and were received enthusiastically by the audience. Owen McAleer, especially, received an ovation, as he arrived during the course of the meeting from another Republican assemblage, and he was wildly cheered as he passed up the aisle to the platform during the speech of one of the other candidates.

George T. Adams spoke on the local situation, and during his remarks took occasion to flay C. D. Willard, declaring that "This man Willard has been eating at the public or semi-public crib ever since he has been in town—and he probably couldn't make a living anywhere else. He is in reality the Municipal League, and gets up and issues statements which not one in ten of the members of the league have ever seen or been consulted about."

The main address was made by Rev. J. E. Nelander of San Francisco. Rev. Nelander prefaced his talk with a beautiful tribute to Sweden as a land of liberty-loving people, and gave an eloquent portrayal of the coming of the sturdy men of the Northland to America to participate in the government of a land where freedom is predominant.

The speaker dilated in glowing rhetoric upon the true manly qualities which had ever been the real dominant factor in political life everywhere, and the absence, in the main, of the Scandinavian peoples from corruption and baseness and the general shady machinery of elections.

Further, he held forth at humorous and interesting length upon some common-sense things that pertain to everyday life. He spoke of the prolific Swedish peoples, and of the world-blessing of large families.

"I don't know how you feel about it," exclaimed he, "but I would to God that His avenging angel would strike dead every poodle dog in America that has been born to take the place of a real baby."

"The Swede in politics might forge much closer to the front than he is today. For forty generations he and his kind have drunk in the spirit of thrift and honesty and loyalty and liberty."

Excellent music was rendered during the evening, the "Svea" male quartette furnishing a good part of it. This organization is composed of M. Fleming, P. Olson, C. E. Norberg and N. Olson. Miss Alice Wermlund also sang.

WILD RALLY AT WESTLAKE.

LEE GATES LAYS DOWN THE LAW ON THE MAYORALTY.

Republicans Hold an Al Fresco Session at Seventh and Alvarado Streets—Owen McAleer a Plain Man—Witty Irishman's Funny Remark Elicits Laughter.

In a large tent with the floor carpeted by nature's stubble, and the cool night wind blowing flaring torches, Republican orators and candidates stood on a rough platform opposite Westlake Park on Alvarado street last night and laid down the law of politics in the good old fashioned style. It was a political rally where men were at their ease and did a large amount of thinking.

Dr. W. A. Lamb acted as chairman of the meeting and in addition to his strong words on the value of being an American citizen and a Republican and the duties resultant from such a favor, he shook the sugar shaker of flattery on the head of each speaker and added a little of the salt of humor to the programme.

The applause that greeted John G. Mott's statement that Owen McAleer received the Republican nomination for Mayor as a reward of his worth, left no doubt in the mind of a listener as to the truth of the statement.

"He did not seek the nomination for personal reasons," said the speaker, "he did not seek it at all but accepted it because of an appeal from the citizens of this city who have followed his career as a Councilman and found that he is an exemplification of the old saying, 'A public office is a public trust,' and honesty and loyalty and liberty."

Excellent music was rendered during the evening, the "Svea" male quartette furnishing a good part of it. This organization is composed of M. Fleming, P. Olson, C. E. Norberg and N. Olson. Miss Alice Wermlund also sang.

Many men slipped quietly through the tent flaps unnoticed and seated themselves on the outskirts of the throng, but when a tall, straight square-shouldered, modest appearing man in a weather-worn tan overcoat turned up about a firm jaw attempted to hide away, a torrent of applause swept him to the platform. "Honest Owen, the humblest of them all."

A few promises, given briefly, quietly, but in a manner that carried conviction and the Republican candidate for the city's highest honor was away to another meeting with the echo of a greeting and farewell ringing triumphantly in his ears.

"He dont' say much but he is always on hand. He is not an artful dodger," said the chairman.

Republican nominees for the School Board then had an inning. E. E. Selph, Charles W. Harding, A. J. Sheerer and W. G. Tanner making short talks, followed by S. W. Hiller, Republican nominee for Councilman from the Third Ward.

"There has been great pressure back of the gates of oratory and eloquence —we will now raise the gates," said Dr. Lamb introducing the speaker of the evening, Lee C. Gates.

He drew a convincing parallel between a man on the one hand, "who is a candidate for Mayor for the fifth time and a candidate for reelection for a fourth term;" a man, "whose only hope of reelection is in his belief that he has built up a wall of political jobbery about him which will perpetuate him in office;" a man, "for whom the honor of the office has been self-aggrandizement," and one who has been a "dodger of responsibility and decision, a trimmer and a scheming politician," this man he compared with "a strong, self-reliant, energetic citizen who has ever done his duty and stood by his better judgment."

"If President Roosevelt had his choice of these two men, which would he take?" asked the speaker.

"Owen McAleer!" shouted the crowd.

"The declaration of President Roosevelt that under no circumstances will he allow himself to become a Presidential candidate for another term is the declaration of a principle that is deep in the hearts of the people," continued Mr. Gates. "When in 1880 one of the grandest men this country ever knew, a warrior whose record on the battle field was the nation's pride, announced himself a candidate for a third term as President of these United States, Gen. Grant met defeat and his claim was forever dissipated by a principle that has ruled the hearts of the American people ever since. In all this fair land, where can you show me a city that has so shamefully violated that principle as this city? Will you allow it to be violated again?"

"No! No! Never!" shouted the crowd.

"Snyder says that he has welcomed a very large number of great and illustrious men into this city and then in the next sentence—he said this in a speech the other night—he told of the wonderful progress of the city. Does he think that the one is accountable for the other? [Laughter.] I remember hearing a speaker in the East who took as his theme the corruption of politics and said: 'When I see this fraud and corruption stalking high-headed through the country, I wish with the poet, would that I had the wings of a dove, I would fly away, far above it.'

"'No you wouldn't,' shouted an Irishman in the back part of the house. 'No you wouldn't. Some fellow would shoot you for a shitepoke before you had gone a half a mile.'

"Mayor Snyder thinks that he can fly across the political horizon of this city and land in the Mayoralty chair for the fourth time, but I tell you the people of this city will be out gunning for him next Monday and they will bring him down, not as a Mayor, but as a pretender who has served his last term."

E. R. Werdin devoted his entire remarks to a defense of his acts in the past, with no reference to his hopes and intentions for the future. It was apparent that his fight is purely a personal one. He neither mentioned his party nor his fellow-candidates. Most of his remarks were devoted to what a cheap afternoon sheet had to say about him.

Harry J. Lelande, nominee for City Clerk, was well received and said that he had done his best in the past to fill that responsible clerical office and that he hoped to be given an opportunity to continue to do.

Denies Combination.

The Democratic City Central Committee yesterday issued a denial "branding as absolutely false" the no-longer-questioned Werdin-Snyder combination reported heretofore.

This Woman Knows

What One of the Sex Discovered to Her Great Joy.

Mrs. De Long Finds That the Indescribable Pains of Rheumatism Can be Cured Through the Blood.

Mrs. De Long's recovery from rheumatism has aroused considerable interest because it occurred as the result of an independent course of treatment, which she pursued in accordance with a theory of her own. When interviewed on the subject of her illness, Mrs. De Long said:

"I was in bed half the time, suffering from pain that cannot be described to one who has never had rheumatism. It would concentrate sometimes in one set of joints."

"Just what do you mean?"

"Why, sometimes it would be altogether in my feet and then I could not walk. At another time it would be all in my elbows and wrists, and then I could not even draw the coverlets over my body. Whenever the pain was in my ankles, knees and hips, or in my wrists and elbows, it caused me extreme suffering. The doctor gave me no relief, and I finally decided to get on without him."

"Your was a hard condition to face without the aid of a doctor. What did you do?"

"I did a great deal of thinking, you may be sure. I happened to have a brother-in-law who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and who was a perfect enthusiast on their value as a purifier of the blood. What he had said came often to my mind in connection with the thought that rheumatism is a disease of the blood. I concluded that if Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are so good for the condition of the blood in general, they must be good for rheumatism, too.

"As my sufferings continued unrelieved it was necessary for me to do something, so I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and to see whether they would not drive the mischief out of my blood."

"How did the experiment turn out?"

"It was a complete success. Two weeks after I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, they showed what they were capable of doing by giving me the very first relief I had found in all my illness. I kept on using them until I was entirely well."

"How long was that?"

"I was really cured by the time I had taken six boxes, but to make perfectly sure I continued to use them for about two weeks longer, and then I stopped altogether. The benefit has lasted, and for several years I have had no occasion to use them for myself, but I am constantly recommending them to others."

Mrs. De Long lives at No. 160 West Broadway, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Her experience with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills establishes the fact that improvement begins very quickly and that a cure once accomplished is thorough. This is due to the wonderful change which these pills effect in the blood. They really make new blood and cure not only rheumatism, but all disorders of the blood or nerves. They are sold by all druggists.

Y.W.C.A. WILL BUILD HOME.

Lot on Hill Street is Already Bought.

Surprise is Announced at Committee Tea.

Raising Forty-two Thousand Dollars in Order.

The Young Women's Christian Association has decided to buy a lot. The board of managers has so decided, the trustees have indorsed it, and all that remains is the comparatively small task of raising $42,000 in six months' time. The lot is just across Hill street from the association's present quarters, sixty feet front, 165 feet deep, next to the corner lot, and costing $700 a front foot.

The option that has been offered the association—the unusual one of six months—was made possible by a number of large-hearted women on the board who purchased the lot last week

MISS THERESA WILBUR.
New State Secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

at the above-named price and will hold it at the same price for six months so the association may have the chance of buying it for the purpose of building on it a home, though as Mrs. W. C. Patterson said last evening at the annual committee tea, where the good news was told by Mrs. Mathuss, the vice-president, to the throng of women clustered around the tables, "we are not going to talk anything about the building until we get that lot paid for."

Mrs. Patterson should know, for she is chairman of that most important committee, the "Ways and Means," formerly known as the "Building Committee," and now familiarly dubbed "The Lot Committee," and which is composed of Mmes. Z. D. Mathuss, W. F. Callander, D. K. Edwards, Gail Johnson, H. W. Mills, E. R. Smith, Kate Vosburg, F. T. Bicknell, Rose Bullard, H. W. Brodbeck, Belle Lemmon and Leonard Merrill.

The many representative women at the tea last evening were happy. Golden chrysanthemums reared their plumy heads in great baskets along the table and twined with the green tracery of ferns mingling with the golden ribbon running like a thread down the center of the table. The news seemed good to them, for they know how greatly this wonderful association, said to excel in numbers any other in the United States at the present writing, needs to enlarge its borders and to possess a home of its own, the first step, of course, being the possession of just such a lot as is proposed because it is centrally located and adapted to the needs of the work.

"Who would not be president of such an association?" said Mrs. Frank Dewey, as she glanced from one face to another and caught the answering smiles from women who are a potent factor in whatever stands for the best and highest in the community.

The women who form the committees, the twelve secretaries of which the association now boasts, and its loyal members form the assets of the association, as the general secretary, Elsie Tatham, said last night, assets, said she, more valuable than Bradstreet's could rate, and there seemed to be not the slightest doubt in the mind of any member of a committee present but the money will be raised to purchase the desire of their eyes. No wonder they feel confident, for as the president stated, that association was started eleven years ago with $15, and with the blessing of God it has grown until the story reads like a fairy tale come true.

The first chapter of the fairy tale was told by Miss Tatham after the good things to eat had been disposed of. It told of the rejoicing of two short years ago, when the present quarters were leased, that at last a place had been found where there was room for this young giant. Since then many different departments have been added; there has been a gymnasium, a domestic-science department, an employment department, educational classes and clubs numbering 1100 members, as well as a family of twelve secretaries, the newest member being the extension secretary, who has recently been added.

There were smiles from one and another when a certain sacred committee room was mentioned which in the beginning was never to be invaded by any but committees. Alas! that room, according to the secretary's tale, does a lightning-change act about every hour in the day to accommodate any and everything, and committees sit on the edge of their chairs in the uneasy thought of keeping classes and clubs from the room a moment beyond the allotted time. "Thus far hath the Lord led us," said Miss Tatham, "and if the cattle upon a thousand hills are His, we know that the gold and silver of Los Angeles are His also." At this point Mrs. Matthews took up the story and then broke the good news and smiles wreathed the faces of the women present. Mrs. W. C. Patterson was introduced as the schemer for the whole affair, as she is treasurer. "I have never been called a schemer to my face before," said Mrs. Patterson, "but I certainly have a scheme," which was unfolded in due time.

Mrs. Josiah E. Cowles was the first to introduce a scheme which she thought might put the association in possession of at least a foot or two of the lot. The scheme was a taking one, for it represents a lecture delivered at Simpson Auditorium January 3 by the noted Jacob Riis. This lecture has already been arranged for under the auspices of the association, and will be the only one delivered by Mr. Riis in Los Angeles, the subject being "The Battle With the Slum," and Mrs. Cowles told in touching phrase of the work of this man from Denmark who has written of the "Making of an American," and who has labored to bring light into the slums of New York City.

Mrs. Patterson's scheme was to have manufactured a certain number of souvenir spoons—special Y.W.C.A. spoons—to sell and set the ball rolling.

Among others who spoke at the tea was Miss Chappell, the new extension secretary, who has recently come from Pittsburgh, with its grand association. It has been compared, she said, to the city of darkness, or even to "hell itself with the lid on," and now she has come to what has been called heaven itself, and she was glad to form a part if the association family in this city of light.

Miss Theresa Wilbur was the last speaker. She is the new State secretary of the Y.W.C.A., and is a magnificent specimen of young Christian womanhood. Her special subject for congratulation to the association was in the possession of a board who had done to such perfection in the history of the work, the "harmless as a serpent dodge." Many beautiful things she said of the board, which were greeted with enthusiasm.

ASSOCIATION RALLY.

Miss Wilbur has planned for the annual Y.W.C.A. rally, which will take place tomorrow at the First Methodist Church. This includes the associations of Southern California, eight college associations, and two city associations, the Long Beach and the Los Angeles, this being the first time that the city associations have participated in the rally.

Miss Wilbur will preside over the rally, and she is wondrously well fitted for the position of State secretary, which she occupies. She is a Stanford girl, and was president of the Stanford association, graduating from that institution in 1903. Last year she took a prominent part in the State committee work.

The rally will open at 9:45 with praise service, Bible study, Miss Cunningham; "Duty and Privilege of Mission Study," Miss Winn; solo, Miss Malle; "World-wide View," Mrs. Mathuss; violin solo, Miss Stration; "Personal Work," Miss Wilson; question box, Miss Barnes. At noon a capitola luncheon at the association rooms, Third and Hill streets, will be followed by informal reception. In the afternoon there will be a solo by Miss Collier; "Extension Work," Miss Chappell; "The Supreme Purpose," Miss Helen F. Barnes.

Weather Conditions.—Light rain has fallen on the Pacific Slope from Puget Sound to Cape Mendocino, but this morning's chart shows the approach of a high pressure area in the Central Pacific Coast, with clearing weather. Cloudy weather prevails south of the Tehachepi this morning, but fair weather will follow by Friday.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair, with some cloudiness, tonight and Friday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Weather conditions and general forecast: Cloudy weather prevails over the entire Pacific Coast, and the pressure distribution is such that a storm in the Pacific Ocean might move in rapidly over California south of the Tehachepi. Cooler weather prevails generally in Nevada and California north of the Tehachepi. Forecast:

Northern California: Cloudy Friday; fresh northerly winds.

California south of the Tehachepi: Cloudy, unsettled weather Friday; possibly showers; fresh south winds.

San Francisco and vicinity: Cloudy Friday; light north winds.

Los Angeles and vicinity: Cloudy, unsettled weather Friday; possibly showers; fresh south wind.

Sacramento: Cloudy Friday; light north wind.

Fresno: Cloudy Friday; light north wind.

Nevada: Cloudy Friday.

SPLENDID HOMES CHEAP.
SPLENDID HOMES CHEAP.

These homes represent excellent values. A careful reading will convince you that the homes we offer you represent values somewhat in advance of the present market. If you are looking for a home by all means see us, we have every description of house, furnished or unfurnished, in every part of the city, ranging in price from the three-room cottage to the palatial brown-stone front.

—$3000—

Here is one of those beautiful six-room bungalows you have read so much about. This comfortable home has been built only seven months and must be sacrificed at $3000; it is well worth $3500; rooms are large and conveniently arranged; downstairs rooms finished in ebony; bedrooms in white enamel; plumbing the very latest; bath and all conveniences; lot 50x161, fenced; yard is improved and presents a pleasing appearance; even at this very low price we can arrange terms if you wish.

—$4750—

A modern home on one of the best streets in the city; all woodwork downstairs in antique oak finely polished; the floors are of birch cut with the grain; large bay windows admitting plenty of air and sunshine; the mantels are works of art; the bedrooms are large and finished in white enamel; finest plumbing; modern bath; cement basement piped for furnace. Lot large and improved. Our price is $4750 and we do not hesitate to state that this property is worth more money.

—$5000—

A new six-room bungalow, just completed, in the Westlake district, overlooking the Westmoreland tract. This house was built for a home and is modern throughout, polished floors; fine modern bath; two toilets; large living-room 18x30 feet; fine mantels which add greatly to the general appearance; the best material has been used in the plumbing and the work done with great care; lot is 60x150 feet and well improved. See this today.

—$7500—

A beautiful 9-room mission house, modern in all respects; all rooms large and well arranged; floors in quarter-sawed oak downstairs, upstairs in rock maple; dining-room is paneled six feet high with selected wood; many rooms have beamed ceilings; very expensive lighting fixtures; fine shades at all windows; good brick basement with cement floor; new furnace; this is a brand new house possessing many original features very close in and MUST BE SOLD AT ONCE. You can walk from the house to Broadway and Third in ten minutes. We can arrange for $1000 cash and balance monthly; see us at once, this will not last long.

—$10,500—

This very palatial ten-room home which has been held for $13,000 is now offered for $10,500; one of the finest homes in the city; located near Adams and Hoover sts.; the rooms are large and the entire downstairs is finished in hard-wood effects giving a very rich appearance; parlor has handsome bird's-eye maple mantel; the large pleasant living-room has brick mantel with open fireplace and handsome oak mantel with oak sideboard in dining-room; walls and ceilings artistically decorated; fine music room; combination gas and electric fixtures; fine balcony opening off sleeping rooms on second floor; bedrooms have polished floors; plenty of closets; bathroom with tile floor, nickel plumbing and one of the latest patterns of broad slate porcelain baths; the attic is finished in good taste; barn has cement floors, room for two carriages, separate box stalls, coachman's quarters; splendid stone steps and cement driveway and walk; the lot is very large 100x140 feet with a 16-foot alley in the rear; there is a splendid client eare, pretty lawn, flowers, shrubs and trees add to the greater elegance of the home. As we said this property has already been held at $13,000, but the owner is forced to sell and we offer it now for only $10,500. This is an exceptional opportunity. See it today.

Over 250 New Students

ENROLLED since September 1st. We appreciate this confidence and compliment. These young people will not be disappointed. They shall leave us stronger and better than on entering. Intelligent self-confidence and legitimate self-assertion are the mainsprings of success. The Woodbury develops these qualities. We think success, talk success, teach success. The Woodbury atmosphere is not congenial to laggards. Like attracts like. Strict attention to business is our slogan. "The success of the student" is our motto. A wholesome moral tone is our aim. To obtain the best positions possible for our graduates is a standing rule.

DECEMBER registration in active progress. No use waiting till after the Holidays. Christmas week will be made up. Solid work until Christmas. All books and stationery obtained at the school. College offices open at 8 A.M., and on Night School evenings until 9 P.M. The great shorthand authority—Charles M. Miller, of New York—says: "Gregg Shorthand is the best system on earth." The Woodbury teaches it to perfection. No other school in the city does. Call, write, or 'phone for new catalogue.

Plymouth Pansies.

"Plymouth Pansies" are planning to give a bazaar this afternoon at the Plymouth Church on Twenty-first street. Truly, they are "Pansies," too, everyone of these bright-eyed fair-skinned little maids, who have been working faithfully with this project in view. They are members of a class conducted by Rev. J. H. Mallows, pastor of the church, and in the afternoons, for the past two months, these mites have been working faithfully in the interest of the bazaar, and all the articles are neatly and well made, by these same pretty children. There are all sorts of fancy bags, and sachets, and Christmas gifts for everybody. These small girls will be assisted by some of the most fascinating tots, who are members of Mrs. Mallows's class, and who will bring all sorts of sweets, and goodies, which will doubtless prove temptin- under the direction of these sweet children. Decorations are in charge of Mrs. Faunler, and unique features are promised. In the evening the women of the church are planning to serve a "tamale supper," and entertainment for the evening will be furnished by the members of the Christian Endeavor Society.

The members of the Plymouth Pansies are: Alice Clark, Marian Allen, Verona Mierset, Ester Bachman, Ruth Hutchinson, Myrtle Bachman, Margaret Wilcox, Marian Cutler, Beatrice Burnham, Richlie Walters, Myrtle Dawson, Ivy Dawson, Emma Pettigrew, Dorothy Olmstead, Bessie Sachett, Marjorie Taylor, Opal Strader, and Genevieve Faulkner, president. Under the direction of Mrs. Faunler, decorations of lavender-crepe paper and pansies have transformed the church into a fairy bower, where small flesh and blood fairies will preside, in their sweetest gowns and ribbons.

Plymouth Pansies Who Will Give a Bazaar Today.

La Habladora Club.

Members of La Habladora Club were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. C. Morrow of No. 1053 South Burlington avenue, with a Japanese whist party. Decorations were all Japanese. Lanterns and umbrellas swung about the room, while the odor of incense was exuded from the brass burners containing Chinese "punk." Ferns and chrysanthemums added to the oriental effect. All guests were gowned in stunning Japanese kimonas, and mandarin coats, with chrysanthemums, and fans adorning their shining hair. Scores were marked on cards ornamented with dragons, and lanterns, and prizes were also Japanese. After the games a luncheon was served in the dining-room. Here Japanese mats were on the table, and chrysanthemums adorned the center, while quaint Japanese dishes were used for serving. Lanterns and umbrellas added to the pretty effect. Those bidden to the party were: Mrs. James Mo-ry, Mrs. A. Zobelein, Mrs. Philip Zobelein, Miss Rose Zobelein, Mrs. W. R. Davis, Mrs. Susan Eckley, Mrs. John Hartnack, Mrs. Marsh of San Francisco, Miss Laura Ewarld, Miss Julia Frankles and Mrs. Rettkowsky.

Wedding Wednesday.

Miss Letitia Rowena Talbot and David W. Tungate were married Wednesday evening at

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

W.C.T.U. Institute.

The County Institute of the W.C. T.U. will be held today at the North Main-street Congregational Church, Main and Railroad streets.

Dies of Injuries.

Natividad Rubio caught by a belt and dropped in a pit at the Simons brick yard Wednesday, died at the County Hospital yesterday afternoon. An inquest will be held today.

Lecture for Temple Union.

"A Run Through the Yellowstone Park" will be the subject of an illustrated lecture by Dr. Thomas B. Comstock Tuesday evening before the literary section of the Temple Union of B'nai B'rith Congregation.

P. Ballard Dead.

P. Ballard, one of the best known of the older residents, died yesterday at the French Hospital, aged 65 years. He was well known also in San Diego and San Francisco, and was instrumental in the early history of this city.

Gilis Gone.

M. Levy of No. 103 East Second street reported to the police yesterday that a sneak thief entered his room Wednesday night and took $20 from a trunk. Two $1 bills on the First National Bank of Chicago were included in the cash.

Craw Is Held.

James B. Craw, recently arrested here by Federal authorities on an indictment brought against him in the State of Washington charging him with impersonating a secret service officer, was yesterday held to answer by United States Commissioner Van Dyke and an order for his removal to Washington will be applied for.

Christmas Sales.

Park Congregational Church, on Temple street, will hold a sale of Christmas goods this afternoon and evening, and will also serve a supper this evening. Centennial Methodist Church, Twenty-second street and Union avenue, will hold a like sale on the afternoon and evening of December 8 and 9, and will serve a supper on the evening of the 8th.

Christmas Dinner.

Maj. Connett of the Salvation Army has issued a circular calling upon charitably-inclined people to make donations of supplies and money for the purpose of giving the army's annual Christmas dinner to the poor. The circular bears a splendid indorsement from the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association urging the public to give the appeal liberal response.

Dwellings Find Buyers.

W. M. Eberharde has purchased of J. L. Griffin, through Nolan & Smith, 126x135 feet, on the southwest corner of Main and Fourteenth streets, with two frame residences; consideration named, $35,000. Robert Hale and D. F. Hill have purchased of E. D. Ryder 50x150 feet, on the west side of Maple avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets, with an eight-room frame dwelling; consideration named, $12,500.

Crusade on Toughs.

War to the knife on hobos, yeggmen and all kindred spirits has been declared by the police, and a general crusade to clean up First, Second, San Pedro and other streets which are overrun by toughs and loiterers has been begun. Last night special officers in plain clothes, in addition to the regular patrolmen, kept a special watch on the infected district and rounded up many suspicious-looking characters, who were lodged in jail.

To Raze Downey Block.

In order to make room for the new postoffice building, the contract for the sale and wreckage of the Downey block at Temple and Spring streets and the Wolfskill properties on the lots bounded by Main, Spring, Temple and New High streets, is soon to be awarded. Sealed bids for the removal of the buildings will be received by Joseph Mesmer, No. 138 North Main street, to January 1, 1905. Ninety days will be allowed for the removal of the material.

Festival of the Maccabees.

This evening will begin the festival of the Maccabees, commemorating the victory of the Jews over the Syrians in the year 160 B.C. Services will be held at Temple B'nai B'rith, Ninth and Hope streets, at 8 o'clock. Rabbi S. Hecht will preach on the "Festival of Light," and during the service the eight-fold light will be kindled. A special musical programme will be given. At 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon the children of the Sunday-school will celebrate this festival with an entertainment and a talk by Dr. Hecht on "The Lesson of the Maccabees."

Bucket Shops Squeal.

The keepers of the "bucket shops" that were compelled to close up ten days ago or face prosecution in the courts, have made complaint that a couple other stock concerns are doing the same kind of business they did and yet are permitted to go on without interruption. George Beebe, Deputy District Attorney, yesterday began an investigation of an establishment on Fourth street and another on Broadway and will pursue it farther today. If they are doing anything except a legitimate stock business they will be ordered to close up.

BREVITIES.

Beginning today, a free demonstration of Mrs. Gervaise Graham's toilet articles will be conducted by a specialist direct from her Chicago establishment. Call for consultation regarding facial blemishes and beautifying the complexion and hair. This is an opportunity of special value to ladies, as they will receive as skillful advice and treatment as they could obtain in any eastern city. Weaver Jackson Hair Co., 443 S. Broadway.

The annual bazaar of the Uncle Sam W.R.C. will be held in Odd Fellows' Hall, 220 S. Main st., today and evening. Dancing tonight. The public is cordially invited.

Tourists are given the best attention at Hotel Rosslyn Café; fine dinners 5 to 8 p.m.; short orders all day. Hart Bros., props.

Malicious Report Contradicted

We have found that certain of our competitors have maliciously spread abroad the report that we have retired from the Men's Clothing Business. It is true that we are selling out our Men's Clothing and will permanently discontinue it, but just now we are in the height of the busiest season we have ever had.

Our clothing comprises almost exclusively the smartest and handsomest Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats, which we are sacrificing at less than wholesale prices.

By this signature you shall know the O'Sullivan Rubber Heel: you'll find it on each box. It is a guarantee that you are getting heels of brand new rubber as it comes from the banks of the Amazon.

AT the present time crude rubber costs $1.15 per pound, but it is the only rubber giving resiliency comfort, dependability, and wear.

These are the features that have caused our rubber heel to be recognized by physicians, adopted by hospitals and used by hustlers. They are a relief to the world; are a panacea to women and the greatest boon ever offered to the public. Remove jar in walking, give a silent easy tread, outwear the shoes, but like all other good things, have substitutes. Substituting means cheapening. All other makes claim to be as good as O'SULLIVAN'S, but where they demand the same price for substitutes, is it not a reason you should demand O'SULLIVAN'S, the only kind made of new rubber?

BURNING UP A PREACHER.

Wrath of Insulted Women Turned on Dowling.

Fierce Public Denunciation of Man and Talk.

W.C.T.U. Names Committee to Resent Sermon.

Rev. G. T. Dowling, a Los Angeles preacher, is in more hot water.

A committee of the Mother Stewart Chapter, W.C.T.U., was delegated yesterday to call upon Dowling and demand an explanation of certain offensive (to them) remarks about women, made from the pulpit last Sunday.

The same committee was requested to ask Dowling for the names of the women with whom he has been associating, "in order that we may do missionary work among them and perhaps convert them."

The preacher and his sermon were both denounced with fierce intensity.

Mrs. L. E. Yokom, a splendid southern woman, tried to speak her resentment, but broke down and cried. Tears came into her eyes, her voice choked with emotion, and she was almost unable to continue.

One of the women appointed on the committee to have a "heart-to-heart talk" with Rev. Mr. Dowling, simply burned him up in her speech to the club yesterday.

Dowling has a hot time coming. Someone remarked that a hasty start on a tour abroad might stave it off.

One woman said, witheringly, that the sermon and Rev. Mr. Dowling are really of no consequence, but should not be passed over, because his position, as the pastor of Christ Church, will give some weight to his remarks.

Following is the portion of Dowling's sermon which gave offense; these women consider it an imputation against the motherhood of all women who seek the ballot:

"But I am speaking of the class of women whom someone has appropriately termed 'andro-maniacs,' who are possessed with an insane passion to be either men haters or imitators; women, who, leaving their home duties, are found stumping the State in order to advocate the ballot, and who are never so eloquent as when enlarging on the wickedness and innate tyranny of men.

"To each of these I want to say, if there are any here present this morning, that without a single exception everyone of those wicked and tyrannical men was born of a woman, and all the probability is that if she had remained at home, had been a better and more womanly mother, he would have been a better and more manly man."

BLAZING DENUNCIATION.

It was called to the attention of the club by Mrs. M. V. Osborne, a pretty, quiet little woman who addressed, with rare good sense, the Mother Stewart Chapter meeting in Hazard's Pavilion.

"I think we ought to make a protest," she said indignantly, "against this sermon of George Thomas Dowling. I have heard of women leaving home for the stage and for other worse things, but I never yet heard of a woman being drawn from her home by woman suffrage, or of being a bad mother because of it."

Her eyes blazed as she stepped quickly forward to face them all; the color came and went in hot flashes in her cheeks.

"What he says is absolutely without truth," she declared. "He knows it is not true; he has no testimony whatever upon which to base such an assertion."

She broke off, and her voice was full of scorn as she said: "That from a minister in the pulpit!"

Mrs. Yokom, tall, stately, queenly, a typical woman of the South, rose to her feet, white ang aghast.

"Is he an Episcopalian?" she asked, quickly.

Heads could be seen nodding all over the hall.

She began to speak in his denunciation, but her voice broke and her words came tremulous with quivering sobs.

"Why," she said, "I have trundled a baby through the mining camps of Colorado collecting funds from the rough miners—for what? To support a drunken Episcopalian minister!

"I left that church for just such injustices as this sermon from Dr. Dowling.

"If I had the answer to make to Dr. Dowling I should say, 'Excuse me; I will go back to my home and my children because your church work is keeping me from them.'"

Overcome with emotion, she stopped, and Mrs. C. H. Fitzgerald, a witty, keen woman, out of old Maine, jumped up with a typical remark.

WHAT KIND OF WOMEN?

"I think we had better go a little slow with this gentleman," she said. "We don't know with what kind of women he has been associating, and from whom he must get his information.

"I think we should ask him to tell us the names of his women associates. We might do missionary work among them. Perhaps we may be able to convert some of the brawlers."

After considerable discussion during which Dowling was nearly skinned alive, and during which constantly there was the interruption of applause, the following named were appointed a committee to rebuke him: Mrs. C. H. Fitzgerald, Miss Corine Ruttinger and Mary J. Lightner, M.D.

"NO GANDERS."

Another man was neatly attended to yesterday at the meeting.

G. T. Bartels, a Socialist, was continually attempting to butt into a little meeting of women called for the purpose of hearing a sensible address made by Mrs. Osborne, the president of the city Equal Suffrage Association.

Bartels kept up a steady yawp, which they stood with long-suffering patience.

At last he hopped up for about the twentieth time, and demanded to know where the "propogander" of the women suffragists is.

Mrs. Fitzgerald called out suddenly, "We haven't any ganders here; these are all females."

Taken aback, Bartels sawed the air and asked, with chagrin, "Well, what are you doing to educate women?"

"Come around here every week and you will find out," was the neat retort.

That was about the last of Bartels, socialistic "orator."

GETS SHOES.

Fake Purchaser Has Goods Delivered and Skips Without Paying the Messenger.

A smooth shoe thief is working an old game successfully here. Yesterday afternoon he called at the C. M. Staub shoe store and looked at a pair of $5 shoes. He said he wanted them at once, but did not have the cash with him. Leaving an address on West Pico street the thief asked that the shoes be sent out immediately and he would pay for them on delivery. A messenger on a wheel was sent out with the package and was met in front of the house by the "purchaser," who took the shoes and made a motion as if to pay the money, but instead darted away across a vacant lot. The messenger returned to the store without shoes or money.

The same man, according to a description furnished the detectives, has operated on other shoe merchants at previous times.

FORTUNE SEEKS LOST WOMAN.

HEIR TO RICHES SUPPOSEDLY IN LOS ANGELES.

Runs Away from New Orleans a Few Months Before Her Father Dies and Leaves Her Fifty Thousand Dollars—Police Now Asked to Find Her.

This New Orleans woman would be rushing home on the new airship if she knew what was waiting for her.

It is over a year and a half since Mrs. L. A. Chapotel, an attractive French woman, 43 years of age, quietly slid away from her home in the southern city and disappeared to nobody knew where.

MRS. L. A. CHAPOTEL.

For a year past her brother, F. Carrau, has been moving heaven and earth to find her and lay in her palm $50,000, to which she has fallen heir by the death of her father, which occurred soon after the disappearance of Mrs. Chapotel.

The brother recently received notice from the Chief of Police of Helena, Mont., that the woman had been in that city in July, 1903, and had come to Los Angeles during that month in company with a man named Dundonni.

A letter written by Carrau to Paul Daubion of this city, who is a cousin of the missing woman, was yesterday placed in the hands of Chief Hammel, together with a copy of a letter from Chief Tevis of Helena, in which he says that at the request of the woman's husband he had some time before traced Mrs. Chapotel to this city and had information from the Police Department here that she was in Los Angeles.

A careful search of the records of the office, however, fails to show that any note had ever been made of a search for such a person, and nobody connected with the department has any recollection of it.

The brother states that he has traveled all over this country and has visited all the hospitals and insane asylums in every city he has entered, in the hope of finding some trace of his sister, whose maiden name was Marie Carrau.

One of the brother's recent experiences was to be fleeced out of a bunch of money by some sharpers in Philadelphia, who had seen his advertisements seeking to locate the woman.

He received a letter from Philadelphia, purporting to have been written by Mrs. Chapotel, in which he was told that she was in that city and was about to go to a hospital for treatment and asking him to address her in care of the general delivery at the postoffice. He answered the letter and begged of his sister that she come home at once and secure her inheritance. This letter was promptly delivered to the person who represented Mrs. Chapotel for in a few days Carrau received another requesting him to wire funds to a given address and she would at once go to New Orleans. He readily complied with this request, but as his sister did not come he put on foot an investigation and then went to Philadelphia.

The money had been collected on the telegram by persons representing his sister, but the detectives of that city have been unable to unravel the mystery.

If Mrs. Chapotel is still in this city it is hoped that somebody will recognize her picture and give the information to the police.

MINING IN MEXICO.

George D. Bunch, former License Collector of Los Angeles county, and Ed Gibson, the last Democratic incumbent of the shrievalty of this county, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday after a prolonged absence in Sonora, Mex., where they are engaged in developing the property of the Promontory Mining Company, a Detroit corporation. The mine at which they are employed is about thirty miles south of Nogales. Gibson is installing machinery for the mine, and Bunch is looking after development work. Both are trustworthy men in their occupations and have many friends in Los Angeles who are glad to see them. Mr. Bunch will probably remain here until after the holidays. Gibson may return to the mines sooner.

PITTSBURGH BROKERS CLOSE.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 1.—Richmond & Co., incorporated, brokers, closed their doors today and issued the following notice: "On account of financial embarrassment, no further business will be transacted by this company until further notice." Bert R. Falkner, manager, was not at the office today and no statement could be obtained. It is understood that the firm did the largest trade of any bid between New York and Chicago.

WERDIN SUES C. D. WILLARD.

Desires Fifteen Thousand Dollars for "Libel."

Campaign Vaudeville Framed up for the Courts.

A Serio-comic Horseplay, by Two Dromios.

The halting inanities of the late grand jury's report, rich in insinuation but not virile enough to arraign, are to awake a $15,000 echo this morning in the Superior Court, when suit will be brought for libel against the foreman and prime minister of that remarkable jury, Charles Dwight Willard, known to some as secretary of the United Jobbers (a peculiarly unfortunate coincidence) and to others as "Citizen Fixit, who is for the Public that has suffered long." Of course, the instigator of the suit is the retiring Street Superintendent, E. R. Werdin, who scarcely could be expected to overlook this bright chance to make campaign capital out of the juvenile joustings of the Willard jury.

It is hardly to be dreamed that this libel suit will secure to Werdin any goods or chattels of more abiding value that is to be garnered from a modicum of prelection "effect" on the public mind; though it is claimed that Willard still owns the house and lot at Terminal Island which drifted into his possession about or soon after the time when he presided over the editorial destinies of the Evening Express and wrote things concerning the city's waterworks system.

Yet, should the action be pressed and the sum sued for be obtained, it would become a mathematical fact that $15,000 privately owned would draw almost as much interest in bank to the credit of Werdin's account as would $18,000 held in public trust but deposited as personal funds. And that would be some comfort after December 5.

THE ALLEGATIONS.

The action for libel that will be filed this morning at the opening of court is based on the "findings" of the late grand jury in criticism of Werdin's conduct of the office of Street Superintendent, and the allegations rest on the claim that Willard, as foreman of the jury and with malice toward the plaintiff, was chiefly responsible for the framing and filing of this criticism. For instance, certain paragraphs of the complaint recite as follows:

"That at all times herein mentioned the said Charles Dwight Willard had and entertained, and frequently expressed, against this plaintiff a bitter animosity, ill-feeling and enmity; that said hostility, enmity and ill-feeling was without foundation in truth and justice, but, on the contrary, arose because this plaintiff refused to permit the said Willard to obtain public notoriety and prestige through an unwarranted and unofficial intrusion into the affairs and conduct of plaintiff's said office, as follows, to wit: The said Willard claims to be the secretary of an organization calling itself 'The Municipal League,' and prior to the said 28th day of November the said Willard as secretary of said 'Municipal League' aforesaid introduced to plaintiff four so-called experts to examine plaintiff's official books, papers and records on behalf of said Willard and the 'Municipal League,' that after said instruction by said Willard one of the so-called experts uttered, issued, published and cashed upon said plaintiff a certain forged, fraudulent and fictitious check for the payment of money, which said check said plaintiff was unable to collect. That thereafter when one of the said experts so sent by the said Willard, without authority sought to examine certain valuable contracts, the property of the city of Los Angeles and necessary to its public business, in the safe of the said plaintiff, the said plaintiff, because of the said forgery of said expert, so-called, and on account of his connection of said expert with said check, refused him access to said safe or said valuable papers. That said Willard thereupon declared to plaintiff and others that he intended to and would if possible 'do up' this plaintiff, and to injure, distress, harass and annoy this plaintiff so far as he was able.

A MALICIOUS FOREMAN.

"That thereafter it happened and came to pass that said Charles Dwight Willard became foreman of a purported Grand Jury, sitting in the said County of Los Angeles, and thereafter the said Charles Dwight Willard to the exclusion of all other business and things whatsoever, except his said secretaryship, devoted himself to the so-called investigation of the official acts and conduct of this plaintiff; that thereafter, to wit, on or about the 28th day of November, 1904, the said Charles Dwight Willard, actuated, governed and moved by said hostility, malice and enmity towards this plaintiff, and not otherwise, maliciously, falsely, libelously and with intent to defame, slander and libel this plaintiff, and to hold him up to public scorn, ridicule, hatred and execration, wrote, printed, published and caused to be written and published, of and concerning this plaintiff, the following false, libelous and defamatory statement, to wit:

"Take, for example, the paving of East Ninth street in comparison with that of South Hill street. The grading of those streets, which are theoretically included in the contract, and which contributed an element of cost running into thousands of dollars, was in the former case largely done by city teams and men, and in the latter case by the contractors."

WILLARD CALLED "LIAR."

"That said words, and said statement so written, made and published by said defendant of and concerning this plaintiff, were by numerous persons understood to mean that this plaintiff had been guilty of corruption in his official capacity, and conduct in his official capacity, and had violated his duty and oath of office as such Street Superintendent.

"That said statement of said Willard so written and published as aforesaid, was false, defamatory, libelous and altogether untrue, and was maliciously made by the said Willard, and was by the said Willard known at the time of the said making and publishing to be untrue, false and defamatory, and was made with the intent to injure, harass, annoy and defame this plaintiff as aforesaid."

WANTED: FIVE THOUSAND.

After ostensibly and at considerable length explaining why the grand jury's instructions were false and libelous, the meat of the matter is gotten at as follows:

"And at the time of the writing and publication of the said false and defamatory matter as aforesaid by said defendant, this plaintiff was a candidate, nominated by the Republican party of the city of Los Angeles, for reelection to the said office of Street Superintendent; that said Charles Dwight Willard made said statement, and caused the same to be published as aforesaid, for the purpose of influencing the public and the voters of the city of Los Angeles against this plaintiff, and for the purpose of depriving this plaintiff of the votes of certain persons in said city.

"That said statement has been believed by some few persons in said city to be true, and by reason of said statement said persons not informed in the premises do now believe that the said plaintiff acted corruptly and unlawfully. That by reason of said statement this plaintiff has suffered annoyance and distress of mind, and has been injured in the esteem and good will of said persons, all to his damage to the extent of $5000."

TEN THOUSAND MORE.

Another $5000 is asked for by Werdin in punishment of Willard and recompense for himself on the score of the grand jury's remarks concerning the renting and using of teams in the Street Department—a matter which already has been given notice in the press.

Finally Werdin asks for a third $5000 damages in payment for the jury's published incendoes against him in connection with the purchase of supplies for the Street Department on "emergency" orders instead of through regularly advertised competitive bids.

The main questions, then, seem to be:

How much—if any—of rich-earned public scorn will Werdin succeed in changing into votes for himself by the filing of this campaign libel suit? And how many fainting fits will solus "Citizen Fixit, who is for the Public that has suffered long"—otherwise coincidentally known as secretary of the United Jobbers; and will he succumb quietly, or expire with the usual noise?

GRAND ARMY'S ONLY BABY TAKEN AWAY.

UNUSUAL sorrow has settled over the Soldiers' Home, Sawtelle is in mourning. John A. Martin Cunningham is dead. He was a mere babe, but his passing has caused deep regret at the resting place for disabled veterans.

This baby was the ward and mascot of John A. Martin Post, G.A.R., and also the adopted son of the Woman's Relief Corps—the only child in the world with such a distinction, it is said.

His father is a member of the post and also of the home, while his mother is a member of the corps.

It was two years ago that a chance stork deposited the baby boy in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Cunningham at Sawtelle. The little fellow was given a rousing welcome by the soldiery and later, when the Grand Army post asked permission to name and christen him, the parents consented. And the christening day will be long remembered at the home, where babies' voices are like angels' visits. The exercises were held in Ward Memorial Hall and were largely attended by the veterans of many a battle. The child was the pride of the old soldiers and his honorary membership in the Grand Army of the Republic distinguished him from all others.

Last week the little one became sick and yesterday morning he died. His ailment was spinal meningitis. The burial will be tomorrow. It is probable a large number of the "boys" who were the blue will follow the little casket to its final long home in the cemetery near the foothills.

JOHN A. MARTIN CUNNINGHAM.

JAPS HOLD TRENCH IN GLENDORA WAR.

APPEALS from a beleaguered gang of Jap workmen, about to be attacked by a mob of armed ruffians at Glendora, came last night to influential Japanese of this city; help must be had.

Unless the Japanese leave Glendora at once, in the next few hours, a race war is threatened.

The Japs, who are all from Los Angeles, are now lying in trenches of their own making next door to the Beckwith Fruit Packing House in Glendora, prepared to fight for their lives. They refuse to be driven out of the place.

The mob has made one reconnoissance, but finding the Japs so heavily entrenched, has temporarily withdrawn.

The owners of the packing-house have been notified that unless the Japanese leave, the packing-house will be burned down.

The leader of the mob is an ex-prize fighter from Philadelphia.

The Japanese arrived a few days ago and grumbling began among the white laborers.

Tuesday evening a message was sent to their camp, next door to the packing-house, warning them to leave town before 8 o'clock Wednesday night. The Japs took no notice of the warning.

H. H. Beckwith was then called up on and peremptorily ordered to deport the Jap laborers on pain of having his packing-house burned.

When evening came, Wednesday, and the Japs had not left their camp, an angry mob gathered and marched, brawling and muttering, down upon the packing-house. Their meeting place was in the center of town. As the irregular procession neared the packing-house, the quiet of the place was ominous.

Out of the half darkness there appeared an impromptu entrenchment, over which peeped gun barrels. The Japs were ready. The packing-house was under the guard of two special officers.

The mob drew off sullenly and disappeared into the night.

Yesterday morning Beckwith found a valuable orange tree on his ranch cut down and mutilated by hacking.

On it this sign: "This will be done again unless the Japs leave."

The mob threatened to cut more trees last night.

The Beckwiths notified the Japs yesterday morning to leave.

WANTED FOR FORGERY.

Teamster Charged With Passing Bogus Checks Here Caught in San Francisco.

George Edelman, a teamster, formerly employed by Constable H. F. Newell, of Pasadena, was arrested in San Francisco last night at the request of the local police on a warrant charging him with forgery. Edelman is alleged to have forged Newell's name to two checks for $5 and $15 respectively in August. When he left here he was accompanied by a Mrs. Castile, who deserted her husband and four small children but took her eldest daughter with her. Edelman was a soldier in the Philippines, having served with the volunteers. He will be brought to this city for trial.

WOMAN ALSO BOOKED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George Edelman, wanted in Los Angeles for forgery, was arrested tonight in company with Mrs. J. A. Castile, with whom he eloped from the southern city, and her six-year-old daughter. Edelman and the woman were located at No. 2367 Twenty-sixth street, where they were living. Edelman is said to have become infatuated with the woman, who is of plain appearance and has several children. He is said to have induced her to flee with him, leaving all but one of the children behind. Mrs. Castile was registered on the detention book as Lillie Baker. She has also gone under the name of Lillie Edelman.

YOUNG ROCKEFELLER TO REST

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—At the eighth annual banquet of the Young Men's Bible class of the Fifth-avenue Baptist Church last night, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., leader of the class, announced that within a week he would be on the ocean bound for Europe, with his family, having been advised by his physicians to seek rest, by a trip during three months, because he is not in his usual good health.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Advertisement was yesterday ordered by the Council for bids for supplying 1,000,000 sewer brick on which the Independent Company defaulted.

The Health Officer yesterday preferred charges of pernicious activity with the Civil Service Commission against Charles Hilton, a chain-gang guard.

A bench warrant was issued by Justice Young for the arrest of A. Z. Smith, for having tampered with the court records.

S. L. Luce, a local architect, sued Mrs. Tracy for his trunk, and the latter held to it for an alleged board bill. Justice Pierce has to decide where the right lies, and confesses that he is heavily handicapped.

In the Police Court yesterday extradition papers were presented in the case of J. F. Harcourt and the felony charges were withdrawn. Today he will be taken to Arizona.

PUBLIC ADVERTISING—NEW TODAY.

(1.) Notice to brick contractors. (2.) Ordinance authorizing property owners to improve a portion of Western avenue under private contract. (3.) Notice requesting proposals for purchasing Sixth-street school site. (4.) Notice requesting proposal for the sale of school site to the Board of Education.

BRICK CONTRACT HIT UP AGAIN.

INDEPENDENT IN DEFAULT ON ANOTHER MILLION.

That Company Sustains Heavy Loss, and Council Orders Advertisement to Cover November Delinquency—Advance May Mean Over Hundred Thousand Dollar Loss.

The Council yesterday afternoon took another fall out of the Independent Brick Company by ordering the City Clerk to advertise for bids to supply 1,000,000 brick for use in the outfall sewer. This is the amount on which the brick makers defaulted during the month of November.

When the Council adjourned Monday it was to meet again at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. But when the hour arrived only Bowen and Skilling were present. After half an hour's wait President Bowen waxed wroth and declared that he would have a Council meeting in the afternoon if it were necessary to call the police force to bring the absent members to the chamber.

Skilling moved, seconded and voted unanimously that the Council should adjourn until 2 o'clock.

President Bowen's threat had the desired effect, for at the afternoon session seven members were present. Summerland was confined at home by a rheumatic arm, and Howton by an alleged sore head.

Farish expressed dissatisfaction because the city could not proceed to collect damages from the Independent Brick Company for failure to live up to the terms of the contract. He said that under the contract provisions the city could not proceed to collect damages from the brick makers until twenty months had elapsed; that the contract called for 1,000,000 brick a month, and that all the city could do was to purchase the brick as they became delinquent, and, at the expiration of the contract, sue the independent company on its bond for the difference between the contract price and that at which the brick were purchased in the open market.

Other members of the Council evinced by their attitude that they were growing restive over the failure of the independent company to furnish brick according to contract.

Nine months ago the city entered into a contract with C. P. Forrester to furnish brick for the outfall at the rate of 1,000,000 a month. The first delivery was to be made in August of the present year. Three months have elapsed and the first delivery was due, but, with the exception of 100,000 purchased of the Santa Monica Brick Company, no brick have been delivered for use on the sewer and the contractors have been seriously delayed in their construction work. The independent company has defaulted on 1,900,000 brick. These brick at the prevailing price, $12 a thousand, will cost the city $46,800. At the contract price of $8.40 a thousand the brick would cost $24,960.

This shows that if the brick on which the independent company is now delinquent are purchased at the prevailing market price for large quantities, it will entail a loss, as compared with the contract price of $21,840, or over half the independent company's bond, which is but $40,000.

The City Engineer has estimated that 20,000,000 brick will be used in the outfall sewer. If the present price for semi-vitrified brick such as are contemplated in the specification for material for the outfall should remain unchanged, it would mean a loss to some one of $112,000.

One More Unfortunate.

Health Officer Powers yesterday filed with the Civil Service Commission charges against Charles Hilton, a quarantine guard whom the Health Officer accuses of "pernicious activity in partisan politics," a complaint which appears to be epidemic just now in municipal circles. Hilton's alleged offense consisted in sitting as a delegate in the Democratic City Convention.

Want Anti-cat Ordinance.

Residents of Boston street have protested to the Health Office against the cat nuisance. They claim that the neighborhood is infested with felines which line up on sheds and back fences at eventide and make the night hideous with their caterwauls. There is a prospect that the protest may bear fruit in the passage of an ordinance limiting the number of cats which may be kept in a single household. The protestants assert that the cats are worst in the 900 block on Boston street.

Lunch Room Dialect.

"Two men on a raft, toes up, draw in the dark."

This has nothing to do with a marine disaster. It is simply what the quick lunch waiter said down the tube to the man in the kitchen to order two poached eggs, cooked soft, and a cup of black coffee.—[New York Sun.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

TAMPERED WITH COURT RECORD.

WARRANT OUT FOR ARREST OF ANDREW ZACHARY SMITH.

Assumed Function of Court Clerk and Must Answer for It—Queer Legal Tangle in Which Gas Engine Agent and Alleged Attorney-at-Law is Involved.

Andrew Zachary Smith ventured to arrogate to himself a duty of the Court Clerk and found himself up against a snag. There is a bench warrant out for the arrest for contempt of court, and Smith will have to explain.

Zachary tried to bring suit against a man for stepping between him and a possible customer for a distillate gas engine. S. J. Smith, a local dealer in gas engines, is the man who got ahead of him. A. Z. Smith is sales agent for a Stockton house; he also claims to have been admitted to the bar in San Francisco.

When his first complaint proved defective he inserted the names of C. T. Howland, attorney for S. J. Smith; T. F. Simpson, clerk of the Township Court where the complaint had been filed; J. H. De la Monte, constable of the court, and several other persons, and made them all co-defendants in an action in which he demanded $50,000 damages. He set out that the defendants had lunched themselves in a conspiracy against him, and that he wanted satisfaction, but in order to have the case tried in the Township Court, he was willing to waive $49,-750.01, and ask for a judgment merely of $250.99.

The plaintiff didn't file this curiously worded document in the regular manner, but just left it with the clerk of the court, notwithstanding that the clerk was himself a defendant. Andrew Zachary then surreptitiously entered his suit in the register of actions, making several entries, some of which were misleading and erroneous. Then he skipped out.

The tampering with the records of the court was brought to the notice of Justice Young yesterday, and he issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Smith for contempt of court. As Constable De la Monte is a party to the suit, the question was raised whether he could serve the warrant. He said he would take chances.

Andrew Zachary Smith was not to be found in his accustomed haunts yesterday afternoon, but it is anticipated that he will be arrested today.

TWO OF A KIND.

SI CASTILE'S TRIAL.

The jury in the case of Jake Castile, charged with highway robbery, did not take long to determine upon a verdict, and after being out a little over an hour returned to court with a verdict of guilty.

Gen. Johnstone Jones desired to have a breathing spell after the arduous trial, and asked the court to postpone the trial of Si Castile for a week or two, but the District Attorney objected. Mr. Fredericks had the Castile gang on the run, and was not inclined to allow the case of Si to go over at the risk of losing some of the witnesses for the prosecution. The case was ordered to trial yesterday.

The term trial jurors soon gave out, and a special venire was issued by Judge Smith for fifteen talesmen, made returnable at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. There was no delay in obtaining a jury, and then the same testimony offered in the case of Jake was offered against the brother. Morris Ellis, the Roumanian peddler, who was robbed, again went over the story of the robbery at Montebello.

MONTHLY REPORTS.

THE RECORD BROKEN.

The record was broken in the receipts of the several county offices during the month just ended, and, in a different way, for the smallness of the amount of money on hand in the county treasury.

County Clerk Keyes, in filing his monthly report, showed as follows: Receipts—Probate business, $554.30; civil, $2695.35; miscellaneous, $720.75; total, $3970.55. Disbursements—To the treasurer of law library, $461; to salary fund, $3509.55; total, $3970.55.

The aggregated amount of filing fees, etc., received during November is larger than ever taken over the counter of the County Clerk's office before. The same applies to the office of County Recorder Hartwell. The aggregated fees amounted to $9140.65, which exceeds any previous month's record.

The money in the county treasury at the end of the month amounts to $535,-645, a smaller amount than for a very long time. This sum was made up as follows: Gold, $444,290; currency, $90,-519; silver, $836.

HELD HIS TRUNK.

ARCHITECTS AT OUTS.

F. L. Luce and H. T. Tracy formed a partnership as architects, and that was the foundation of trouble that yesterday landed them before Justice Pierce. Luce was suing Tracy to recover a trunk packed with raiment and odds and ends of value to the owner. Luce valued the trunk and its contents at $200.

Tracy got back at his partner with a cross-complaint in which he claimed $31 for room rent.

Luce, who is an elderly man and an architect, went to live at the Hazel lodging-house early in the present year. The Hazel is located at No. 107½ South Broadway, and is conducted by Mrs. Sadie Tracy. Her husband is a young man and something of an architect himself. He and Luce became friendly and a partnership was agreed upon.

About July Luce went east and stated yesterday that the Tracys consented to keep one of his trunks for him until his return. This is the trunk now in dispute.

At the beginning of his suit Luce averred that the Hazel was not such a house as he cared to live in. He said sporty women beset his path every time he ventured to peek out of his room. Not relishing their blandishments he sought another abiding place. In the meantime the partnership had been dissolved with some friction, but the Tracys held on to his trunk.

Before the case come to trial Luce was made to back water as to his allegations regarding naughty goings-on at the Hazel rooming-house, and at the hearing yesterday allegations of that nature were carefully avoided. It did appear, however, that he was having his room rent free for a considerable time before going east, in part payment of Tracy's interest in the architect's business. When he returned Mrs. Tracy said that she refused to let him have a room, on account of the money he owed for retaining his quarters during his absence, and also because of some difficulties that had arisen in the partnership. She claimed that she was entitled to hold the trunk for the room rent due. Luce was called upon to tell what valuables it contained. He said there were five suits of clothes, fifty laundered collars, two suits of pajamas, one dozen pairs of cuffs, half a dozen suits of underwear, hats, shoes, neckties, miscellaneous paraphernalia, letters and papers and other things not mentioned.

Counsel for the defense offered to call things square if Luce would pay $51 and take the trunk, but that was just what the fight was about, so the wrestle went on.

Justice Pierce had to sit for two hours and listen to the wrangle over partnership debts which Luce swore that Tracy had collected after the partnership had been dissolved. The court said it was a mixed case, but he'd make as good a guess at it as he could next Monday.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

HABEAS CORPUS DROPPED. After hanging fire for some time the habeas corpus proceedings in which J. F. Harcourt, the alleged diamond swindler from Tucson, was interested, were dismissed yesterday on motion before Judge Smith.

CHRONIC DRUNK. Cora B. Johnson was granted a divorce from Will F. Johnson by Judge York yesterday. The parties were married in March, 1898, at Lincoln, Neb., and afterward went to San Francisco and thence here. The husband was addicted to gambling and dissipation generally, so the court granted the decree asked for by the wife.

SUBURBAN BANK. The Hollywood Savings Bank and Trust Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000, fully subscribed. The directors are G. Hoover, J. C. Kays, H. J. Whitley, W. Mead, J. B. Brokau, P. B. Chase, A. Gardner, H. Goodwin, J. Law, R. Hall and J. E. Law, all residents of Hollywood, save R. Hall, who lives in Los Angeles.

SNAP-A-JACKS. The Snap-a-Jack Manufacturing Company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000, of which $1000 has been subscribed, for the purpose of manufacturing a patented preparation called Snap-a-Jack, candy confections, etc. The directors are C. W. Leonard, D. A. Leonard, C. S. Huff, L. F. Huff and G. W. Williams, all of Los Angeles.

THE WULFKEN DIVORCE. Emma Wulfken was granted a divorce from Henry Wulfken yesterday, by Judge Trask, on the ground of desertion. The parties married on the last day of December, 1879, at Colorado Springs.

SENT TO PATTON. Woo Tom, a Chinaman, was pronounced insane by the insanity commission, and Judge Wilbur sent him to Patton.

MISSION LAND COMPANY. The San Fernando Mission Land Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $1,000,000, all of which has been subscribed. The purposes of the company are to buy and sell water, divide land into farm and town lots, and improve and develop the lands that may be obtained by the incorporation. The directors are E. H. Harriman, New York; H. E. Huntington, H. G. Otis, W. G. Kerckhoff, J. F. Sartori, L. C. Brand and E. T. Earl, all of Los Angeles.

REAL ESTATE COMPANY. The Heber Subdivision Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $50,-000, of which $250 has been subscribed. The directors are W. H. O'Bryan, W. H. Townsend, F. C. Paulin, R. T. Perry and W. G. Emerson, all of this city.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

WEARS CLOAK OF BUTTER MAN.

HIGH-SOUNDING COMPANY WITH POOREST HORSES.

Moropulus Puts His Enemies to Flight Hands Down — Harcourt Will be Taken Back to Arizona Early This Morning—Wagonload Thieves Held for Trial.

The cloak of the butter man who a year ago was charged with being the owner of all the decrepit horses available, seems to have fallen upon the shoulders of J. E. Dodson, who does business under the high-sounding title of "The American Express."

M. W. Zimmer, superintendent of the S.P.C.A., testified in the Police Court yesterday that Dodson, who was on trial for cruelty to animals, had at least four poor old horses, none fit for anything but the boneyard. The worst was taken from one of Dodson's teams and killed Wednesday, and its owner was fined $15 for permitting it to be driven. The driver, A. Mosier, was fined $5 for driving the poor old horse.

Dodson was notified in October to cease driving the horse, and again early in November, but despite the warnings he continued to do so. Another of his horses is now under suspension by an officer of the society, and he will be compelled to drive better horses, or none.

MOROPULUS VINDICATED.

ACTS AS HIS OWN LAWYER.

Considerable excitement and a round-up of the Greek colony attended the trial of A. Moropulus, a well-known Greek fruit dealer, on a charge of battery in Justice Austin's court yesterday.

Moropulus wears a star as a deputy constable, and in a Greek restaurant on South Los Angeles street he was told to look out for a man named George Coralis, and to order him from the restaurant should he enter. Coralis soon appeared and in his efforts to get him out Moropulus took Coralis by the ear and for this the latter swore out a warrant for battery.

The facts as stated were sworn to by several witnesses for the prosecution and Moropulus was discharged without being required to put in any evidence. He acted as his own lawyer, and called the Greek interpreter to book for not correctly giving the answers of the witnesses.

HARCOURT GOING.

IN HANDS OF ARIZONAN.

The felony charges against J. F. Harcourt, alleged diamond swindler, which had been lodged in both the police courts, after his arrest upon a telegram from Tucson, were dismissed yesterday upon presentation to the courts of the papers for requisition issued by Gov. Pardee for Harcourt's return to Arizona. Sheriff Murphy of Tucson will leave with his prisoner early this morning.

Harcourt's handsome wife has been indefatigable in her efforts to secure for her husband the best legal advice, and to render his several weeks in jail as comfortable as possible, but if the truth were known, Harcourt has been less thoughtful of her. She was only saved the most dire distress by the unexpected coming to her rescue of the widower of her deceased sister, who lives in this city. When her brother-in-law learned that Harcourt had demanded his wife's last dollar in order that he might be fed from a restaurant, and turned her penniless on the street, means were furnished her. It is desired to keep this man's name secret, but he probably furnished the money for attorneys' fees also.

Wagonload Burglars.

Pasqual Gutierrez, Sr., and Pasqual Gutierrez, Jr., engaged in the theft of two wagonloads of furniture from a house on New High street, were yesterday held in $1500 bail each for trial in the Superior Court, on a charge of burglary. The junior Gutierrez is the uncle of the senior.

Police Court Briefs.

Frank Devine got forty days on the chain gang for carrying a gun, and Frank Frey, his colored companion, was sentenced to serve sixty days for borrowing the gun and poking it in a young man's face, as he sat with his girl on a bench in Eastlake Park.

Ed Synan and Jim McNeuman were given forty and thirty-five days, respectively, for vagrancy.

TOO MUCH SARCASM.

In Empty "Barrel-of-Money" Case Federal Judge Orders Language Cut Out.

Judge Wellborn of the United States District Court yesterday morning directed that certain language used by Attorney Burnett, representing the Columbia Savings Bank, in the hearing before the referee in bankruptcy in the S. P. Cressinger bankruptcy case, be stricken from the records. The sarcastic paragraphs declared "so obviously disrespectful to the referee that the court is constrained of its own motion to strike them from the record," are as follows:

"Hence the Supreme Court made a rule in bankruptcy that this should never be done except by order of a judge, not, as otherwise might often happen, by some petty officer puffed up with a little brief authority, not by one who cannot rise above the stings of wounded vanity, but by a constitutional officer—one who has so proved his wisdom and strength as to be nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate of the United States to hold for life the exalted position of Federal judge.

"I may concede the jurisdiction of the referee to make a temporary stay pending investigation, the marshalling of assets, etc., even to the time of discharge of bankrupt. But after investigation, after adjudication and discharge, after recognition by this court that the lien is valid and uncontested, then I say if the court further interferes to deprive the mortgagee of the remedies afforded by law, it commits an act of despotism unparalleled outside of Russia."

"A pencil mark has been run through some of the lines," remarked the court, "of the first of these two paragraphs, leaving it, however, still plainly legible. These paragraphs are so obviously disrespectful to the referee that the court is constrained, of its own motion, to strike them from the record and an order to that effect accordingly will be entered."

Judge Wellborn also sustained the order of Referee Lynn Helm staying proceedings instituted by the Columbia Savings Bank, in the State court, to foreclose a mortgage upon certain lots in the Phillips tract in the Rancho Puente and 120 shares of stock in the Azusa Water and Development Company, given by Cressinger to secure a note for $10,000. This order of the referee was the cause of the caustic remarks in the brief above referred to, which we found objectionable in the sight of the court. Attorney Burnett had applied for a review by the court of the referee's order, and the matter was ordered submitted on briefs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—It has been practically decided that Billy Roche will referee the fight between Jimmie Britt and "Battling" Nelson, which will take place in this city December 20 next. Representatives of the two fighters met tonight, and the Britt faction asked for Eddie Graney. Ted Murphy, manager for Nelson, agreed to this, with the undrestanding that should Graney not accept, Roche would be chosen. This was satisfactory to all concerned. It was later learned that Graney would refuse to act.

TUTHILL ON CORBETT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Harry Tuthill left for New York today. Before he took the train he had a few words to say about "Young Corbett."

"Some people think that 'Kid' held Nelson cheaply," he said. "Now, this is not so. Corbett knew that Nelson was a hard nut, though he expected to beat him. Corbett worked as hard for this fight as any other, but the trouble was he did not work long enough. Instead of training a month, he should have trained two. You take a racehorse and lay him up eight months, and you cannot get him ready for a race in a day. You must take time. It is the same with a fighter. Corbett weighed 130 for Nelson. When he is at his best, he should not weigh over 128."

TACOMA A WINNER.

BEATS LOOLOOS 3 TO 1.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Tacoma evened up matters today by taking the second game of the special series of eleven, by winning from Los Angeles with a score of 3 to 1. Newton and Overall did the slab work. Although the latter was batted for five hits, but one of them was a run-getter. Score:

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHOENIX, Dec. 1.—J. C. Adams of Phoenix today sold to William Simpson of Cuba, N. Y., Lady Rivers, dam of Sweet Marie, who holds seven world's records made this year. Simpson recently bought McKinney, sire of Sweet Marie, for $50,000. Lady Rivers sold for $5000.

Lady Rivers leaves by express tomorrow morning for the Empire Stock Farms, New York.

GOT INSIDE THE MONEY.

WINNERS WELL PLAYED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Favorites took three of the races at Oakland today, and the other winners were not neglected in the betting. One of the closest finishes this season occurred in the last event, when Davis landed Nigrette up in time to win by the shortest of noses from Andrew B. Cook, who opened up a gap of four lengths in the early stages. Red Cross Nurse, an 8-to-1 chance, led all the way in the mile race, beating Ishlana, the favorite, by less than a length. Summary:

Five and a half furlongs, selling: Albermarle, 107 (J. T. Sheehan,) 6 to 5, won; Batidor, 102 (P. Sullivan,) 20 to 1, second; Blackthorn, 116 (Anderson,) 12 to 1, third; time 1:09¾. Molto, Nullah, Puredale, Homage, Alta G., Medalia, Karabel, Emma Reupold Arthur Ray and Ragnarok II. finished as named.

Futurity course, purse: Lillitus, 112 (Vickery,) 4 to 1, won; Jerusha, 109 (Sherwood,) 7 to 1, second; Indicate, 113 (McLaughlin,) 15 to 1, third; time 1:14. Bearskin, Herthus, Glid, Macene, Baboe, Tarcoola Belle and Julia South finished as named.

Five and a half furlongs, selling: Red Reed, 112 (Helgerson,) 6 to 1, won; Pickaway, 102 (McBride,) 9 to 5, second; Educate, 107 (W. Davis,) 10 to 1, third; time 1:09. Mimo, Nanon, Reno, Hard Burns and Ned Dennis finished as named.

One mile, selling: Red Cross Nurse, 97 (W. Knapp,) 8 to 1, won; Ishlana, 100 (Kunz,) 3 to 5, second; Col. Van, 96 (J. Fountaine,) 10 to 1, third; time 1:46. G. W. Trahern and Grafter finished as named.

Mile and a sixteenth: Briers, 101 (W. Davis,) 7 to 5, won; Northwest, 100 (R. Butler,) 12 to 5, second; Galanthus, 104 (W. Knapp,) 8 to 1, third; time 1:51. The Fretter, Col. Ballantyne, Achilles, Imbecile and Chickadee finished as named.

Six furlongs, purse: Nigrette, 110 (W. Davis,) 9 to 10, won; Andrew B. Cook, 18 (Dominick,) 16 to 5, second; Sol Lichtenstein, 114 (Holbrook,) 12 to 1, third; time 1:16. Kenilworth, Instructor and Sir Preston finished as named.

Bennings Races.

BENNINGS (D. C.) Dec. 1.—Six furlongs: Arsenal won, Hob Murphy second, Blue and Orange third; time 1:16 2-5.

Five and a half furlongs: Winchester won, Calmness second, Bravery third; time 1:09 3-5.

Steeplechase, about two and a half miles: Gas Car won, Ohnet second, Woden third; time 5:11 2-5.

Six furlongs: Delphia won, Dazzle second, Capersauce third; time 1:15 1-5.

One mile: Hippocrates won, Ostrich second, Rector third; time 1:41 4-5.

Mile and seventy yards: Charles won, Monte Carlo second, Minotaur third; time 1:48.

New Orleans Results.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—Six furlongs: Allista won, Lord of the Valley second, Mimosa third; time 1:13.

Half mile: Sponge Cake won, Yorkshire Lad second, Husted third; time 0:50.

Mile and a sixteenth: Katie Powers won, Judge Himes second, Mizzen third; time 1:54.

Seven furlongs: Dick Bernard won, Rankin second, Ahola third; time 1:32.

Mile and seventy yards: Mamselle won, Gaslighter second, Harry New third; time 1:53 3-5.

Seven furlongs: Gigantic won, Kleinwood second, Glendon third; time 1:32 1-5.

POMONA'S SIDE.

LATER DATE IS WANTED.

Pomona High School's football management thinks the team has been hard used in the matter of a game with Los Angeles High School.

The Pomona contingent denies being a lot of "chubbers" and says a game December 10 is perfectly agreeable to them. They claim to have a game with San Bernardino December 3, next Saturday, and feel unable to dispense with it as it involves the high honor of champion of the Citrus League, whatever that may be.

Then, too, there was a bit of disagreement over the post-graduate player rule. It is not very likely Los Angeles High will care to take the game away from Los Angeles, as there will be no money in playing it off in the brush with coyotes and rabbits for an audience.

Besides, the date Pomona wants is reserved for the Olympic-Sherman game of a week from Saturday. The High boys all want to see it, and do not care to play on that day. The week following is set for the State championship game with Lick School.

Santa Ana High plays Los Angeles High tomorrow in Fiesta Park.

BILLIARDS.

SEYMOUR BEATS SUTTON.

Arthur Seymour of this city beat George Sutton last night on the total of their 600-point match for a purse of $100, the scores being 600 and 513. The game was at Morley's rooms on South Main street, and drew quite as large a crowd of enthusiasts as was present on Wednesday evening.

Seymour was in good form last night at times and rolled up an average of over 11½, with high runs of 72 and 51. Sutton, on the contrary, was away off his usual game, but still does remarkably well for a man who has really not yet commenced his practice for the winter season in the East. His grand average for the two nights' play of 600 points is 9, and as he gains about one point a week in practice he says he does not expect to satisfy himself for several months yet.

Seymour played carefully last night and yet missed some very easy shots, while Sutton had a bad time of it, and could not get together. He made some beautiful draws, but had the billiardist's night "off" and simply couldn't make things go to suit him.

The score at the end of Wednesday night's play was, Sutton, 300, and Seymour 262, but in the ninth inning last night, Seymour pulled up with a pretty run of 51, but after that fell down until the twenty-second inning, when he practically won the game, with a run of 72, and finally finished the game in the twenty-ninth inning with an unfinished run of two.

The runs by innings of last night's game, and the summary of the two games are as follows:

Seymour—9 8 24 6 0 0 21 15 31 0 31 0 16 22 5 2 0 4 6 19 0 72 19 0 0 5 3 0 2—328.

ANIMATED SITTING.

Conduct of French Minister of Public Instruction Discussed in Chamber of Deputies.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, Dec. 1.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Today's sitting of the Chamber of Deputies was an animated one, in which exchanges of personalities and invectives were frequent. The discussions were with reference to the conduct of the Minister of Public Instruction in connection with professional secret reports on the policies of their colleagues and the Joan of Arc incident.

The former brought out a protest from Premier Combes against the persistence of the opposition in bringing up questions which were settled at the time Gen. André resigned the war portfolio, when the government promised to abolish all systems of official espionage.

The motion of censure which had been introduced was subsequently withdrawn and discussion of the interpellation concerning Joan of Arc proceeded. Ministerialists who declared that M. Chauvé, Minister of Instructions, had made a weak concession to the Nationalists in reviewing the professor of history at the Lycée Condorcet, demanded protection for republican educators. M. Chaumieree replied that the professor unquestionably showed lack of tact.

It was not advisable, he added, to address boys with the same freedom as adults. The punishment of the offender, he said further, would remind professors of the necessity of respecting public opinion. The minister concluded with a eulogy of Joan of Arc and promised to maintain the political neutrality of the schools.

The chamber voted confidence by a considerable majority, including several prominent members of the opposition. Many deputies did not vote.

KANSAS DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

IOLA (Kan.) ec. 1.—Mrs. Jennie Johnson and James Williams were found dead at the home of the former today. The woman, who was a widow, had two bullet wounds in her head, and Williams's throat was cut. Officers say Williams killed the woman and then himself.

VARRO A BIG FALSE ALARM.

A Second Favorite Runs a Very Bad Race.

Two Track Records Equaled in Hot Finishes.

Good Things Surprise Many Watchful Sports.

Someone out at Ascot yesterday said that Varro in the fifth would run a grand race, and might win!

He did run a grand race, and might really have won if there had been no other horses in the race. If he had been on the card to run a match race with himself the struggle would have been an exciting one, and in a three-cornered event with a blind pig and a cow staked out in the back lot, Varro might have finished first by a half length if the cow failed to break the rope or if the pig had fallen down a deep well.

This Varro was about the biggest false alarm that anyone ever heard of to stick in against Merwan and make a second favorite of. He might have been a good one once, but of all the fakes ever put up against a lot of sports he has the whole bunch hushed to a tombless whisper. With such a good rider as Dugan on him, he got away first, and from there on to the finish he was from four to seven lengths behind everything in the race, and if that fifth race had been at two miles instead of one and an eighth he would have been beaten half a mile. Yet this thing on a first out was made an almost even favorite with Merwan, but not many of the sports played him, aside from those steered by the touts, because he could not be seen. There was nothing to this fifth race, but Merwan, the favorite, for he shot out in front with his usual speed, and led all the way by any kind of a distance Hildebrand wanted him to go.

Three favorites finished first out of six races, and on the whole the sports must have broken about even, for Merwan, Interlude and Alamansor were strongly supported. Workman at 6 to 1 took the third race, and Bath Beach at 7 to 1 the last, and it was just about a stand off between Princess Tulane and Flo Bob in the fourth. There were very close finishes in the third, fourth and last races, and the 2000 spectators had an exciting time of it in these, but the other three were won by plenty of daylight.

RECORDS EQUALED.

Two track records were equaled yesterday, Workman running five and one-half furlongs in 1:07⅘, with 103 pounds, as compared with Best Man's 106 pounds carried March 30 and Princess Tulane going a mile and a sixteenth in 1:46⅘ with 103 pounds, Haviland carrying the same weight in the same time and distance, January 23 last. All the other races were slow as compared with what was done here last winter.

EXCITING HANDICAP.

The feature of the card was the fourth race, a free handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, and the starters were Princess Tulane, Flo Bob, Elle and William Wright. Flo Bob opened at 2 to 5, and closed at 9 to 10, while Princess was never any better or worse than 8 to 5. Elle was 10, 2 and ½, and a considerable number of the wise ones with any money to bet took Elle to show at 1 to 2, and a swell chance it was, for he ran the two good ones a head-and-neck finish. In a hard drive of three. He was probably used too much at the start, for he set the pace, and led Princess to the three-quarter pole by over a length, with Flo Bob another length away. These positions were unchanged from the barrier into the stretch, and the really beautiful race created a great amount of excitement as the three horses came tearing down the stretch neck and neck. The race belonged to either of the three, and at the paddock gate they were on even terms. Flo Bob was doubtless the best, and should have won. All through the race Hildebrand was on the rail with Flo, right behind Elle, Princess being lapped on the leader just outside. Hildebrand was practically in a pocket, and coming through the stretch he tried to cut through on the rail, and then had to pull out and go around, and thus lost enough time to lose him the race. Elle was there all the way, and was only beaten a head and a neck for first money. It was a great finish, and will probably not be duplicated again this winter.

TWO SURPRISES.

There were two surprises in the victory of Workman in the third and Bath Beach in the last, each at 6 and 7 to 1. Cutter was the favorite in the third. Tramator led Workman all the way by almost two lengths, but in the stretch run Workman just managed to get up in time to win by a head in a driving finish. In the last Bath Beach at 6 and 7 led the favorite, Elfin King, all the way, and won by a neck under urging. The favorite, Interlude, was easily the class in the second race, in which the second favorite, James J. Corbett, was cut on the left front foot quarter at the start, and couldn't make a showing. The first race brought out about the worst lot of dogs that have started at the meeting, but the favorite of all of these won, it being Baldwin's Alamansor, at 2 to 1.

TODAY'S RACES.

Winner br. c., 3, Santiago-Leola. Trained by W. J. Spiers.
Alamansor showed most speed throughout, coming away easily final eighth, with Smith needlessly shaking him up last sixteenth. Angeleno moved up fast nearing far turn, but Weiher, trying to get through on inside, was badly cut off, losing much ground. He came fast turning for home; was easily best of others, and might have had a chance but for mishap. Tizen finished lucky third. Nogg being sharply cut off on far turn, which threw Him out of contending position.

Post 2:20. At post 2 min. Start good. Won easily. Second driving.
Merwan place 3-5, show 1-4; Invictus place 2, show 1; Helgerson 2-5.
Winner b. g., 4, Oddfellow-Chauntress. Trained by owner.
Merwan skilfully rated in front, decisively outpaced the others and won with plenty to spare. Hildebrand riding with confidence throughout. Invictus reserved for the stretch run; moved up fast when a quarter out, and in sharp last one hundred yards struggle got up in time to nip out Helgerson. Latter faltered on far turn, but rallied final eighth and finished fast under hard urging. Liberto went well one mile. Frangible faltered badly when called on final effort.

39 THIRD RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse. Two-year-olds. Value to first, $225.

Beach place 8-5, show 3-5; King out place and show; O'Shanter out.
Winner ch. c., 3, Ben Strome-Irvana. Trained by owner.
Beach off flying; stole a long lead first quarter, and this stood him in good stead, having just enough left to stall off King's determined challenge. Latter made up ground gradually last quarter, and finished resolutely under keen urging; was fast wearing winner down closing strides. O'Shanter faltered badly final sixteenth under whip. Gemgas do better.

TOD SLOAN'S CASE.

JOCKEY GETS A SETBACK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Dec. 1.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Advocate-General Blondel submitted to the Court of Appeals his opinion that the lower court had erred in giving a judgment favorable to "Tod" Sloan, the American jockey, against the Jockey Club. The opinion says the club is the exclusive judge of discipline within its precincts. This opinion foreshadows the judgment of the Court of Appeals which was postponed for a week.

The Court of Appeals at Paris, November 17, began hearing the appeal of the French Jockey Club against the decision of a lower court favorable to "Tod" Sloan in the suit for $40,000 damages which the jockey brought against the club for being warned off the turf in connection with Rose de Mai's winning the Prix de Diane at the Chantilly races in May, 1902.

M'LAUGHLIN COMING.

WILL BRING EXTENSIVE STRING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Immediately after the last race at Bennings, Saturday, Trainer James McLaughlin will leave for Ascot Park, Los Angeles, with an extensive string. The star of the lot is the two-year-old Pasadena, which has won a number of good races in the East. The colt is undergoing special preparation for the Los Angeles Derby.

Occidental Basketball.

The basketball season was opened at Occidental College courts yesterday by a match game between the freshmen and sophomore classes. Great interest was taken and all who attended are convinced that one good team can easily be placed in the field which will be a real factor for championship honors in this section. The sophomores had much the better of the game and owing to the shortness of the halves, which were ten minutes, their score of 17 to 2 is creditable, Misses Brooke, Darling, Lane, Means and Gordon, were conspicuous for brilliant playing at times. Five goals were scored from field and three foul throws by Miss Brooke, Miss Lane made two goals from field, while Miss K. Darling was credited with one. Line-up was:

Sophomores,		Freshmen
Brooke	forward,	K. Darling
Lane,		M. Darling
Gordon,	center,	Mordy
Means,	guards,	List
McKallip,		Boal

Officials: Dan S. Hammack and Ed Merrill.

BOWLING.

THAT TOURNEY.

Four team prizes are offered as follows:

First, percentage of games, $50.
Second, most total pins, $30.
Third, second high percentage, $20.
Fourth, third high percentage, $15.
Also a $20 consolation for non-prize winners.
First individual, $20; second, $10; third, $5.

HOLLYWOOD.

INJURED IN NEW MEXICO.

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 1.—Gordon Sandison, son of E. W. Sandison, was brought home this morning from New Mexico, where he was injured last Sunday in a runaway. He was met at the train by Dr. J. Addison Jackson of Hollywood and brought to his home on Franklin avenue. Mr. Sandison is severely injured about the face and head.

The First Baptist Church will celebrate its first anniversary Sunday in the Masonic Temple. Dr. Baldwin, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Los Angeles, will preach and Prof. James A. Foshay and other prominent soloists will sing.

BUSINESS.

The general stock list did not become animated save in spots, at New York yesterday, but so long as money rates remain easy, there seems nothing that can disturb speculative confidence. Weakening influences at Chicago took December down to 108 at the close and May to 109 3-8@109 1-2.

OAXACA'S NOBLE SON.

Yesterday, Gen. Porfirio Diaz was for the seventh time inaugurated President of the Republic of Mexico, and, for the first time, a Vice-President was inaugurated in the distinguished person of Señor Don Ramon Corral, whose recent delightful visit to California is well remembered. The occasion was auspicious and notable, and, with it, history was made in the stately capital of our fair sister nation of the South.

Seventy-four years ago Porfirio Diaz was born among the maguey-speared hills of Oaxaca, and today he stands, where he long has stood, among the great rulers of the world. Yesterday his countrymen with every evidence of loyalty, respect and unbounded affection, acclaimed him once more as their chosen chief. And well might they do so. He walked through fire and blood for Mexico. Time and again he became a hunted outlaw for her sake. Sword in hand, he faced the foes that, from within and without, made a prey of her and left her wounded and helpless at the feet of the marauder, the alien tyrant and every buccaneer that rode the seven seas. For her sake he bore the shackle and the gyve and suffered the dungeon's horrors. For thirty years he had no other pillow than his sword, and held his life constantly in his hand throughout all that bloody stretch of time. But he won. He won and Mexico won. Free and strong and great she stands now before the world, and her glory is also the glory of him, her lion-hearted son, who lifted her from her bed of blood and tears and placed her, glad and radiant, upon the sunlit hills of splendor.

Under the successive administrations of President Diaz, Mexico has made marvelous strides. She is in the enjoyment of profound peace, both internally and in her relations with the powers of earth. No revolts against the government have taken place for a generation past. The republic has become stable. With the wise and progressive rule of Gen. Diaz, numberless manufacturies have sprung up in the country, commerce has vastly multiplied, resources have been developed, telegraphs and railroads are extended in a perfect network everywhere, education has advanced and all those things accomplished which were necessary to put Mexico in an honored place among the sisterhood of nations. Her sad and pitiful past has been forgotten, and today she faces the future full of splendid hopes and with a firmly-grounded faith.

The people of the United States will regard the seventh inauguration of President Diaz with feelings of unfeigned joy. They will read the published accounts of the great event with deep pleasure. And they will wish the grand old man of Mexico many years more of life and strength. May it be many a day before his eyes shall close on ancient Tenochtitlan and Popocatapetl's snow-capped peak. Vive Mexico! Long live the President!

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

Under the proposed Charter Amendment No. 1, to be voted upon at Monday's municipal election, provision is made for the creation of a Board of Public Works, consisting of three members, at a salary each of $3600. It is proposed that the elective offices of Street Superintendent and City Engineer shall be abolished, and that the date for holding municipal elections shall be changed from the even to the odd numbered years.

There are many voters who are opposed to the radical change in our city government involved in the creation of an appointive Board of Public Works, indorsed with extraordinary powers superseding and exceeding, in some respects, those of the Mayor, the Council, and other city officers. One of the objections to the creation of a board of this kind, clothed with arbitrary powers, is the fact that it removes the management and control of important city affairs farther from the people. The property of the people—streets, public buildings, etc.—belongs to the people, and certainly the people ought to have some voice in its management. Practically the only voice they would have in the management of public properties, if this board should be created as proposed, would be in the election of a Mayor who would appoint the members of the board. The proposed term of office for members of the board is four years, and from many of the powers which it would exercise there would be no appeal.

The proposition to change the date for holding the general city elections from the first Monday in December of the even-numbered years to the first Tuesday in December of the odd-numbered years, is one which will meet with practically no opposition. If it could be voted upon separately, it would probably carry by nearly a unanimous vote. The advantages of holding the city elections in the odd years are apparent. Under the present arrangement the city campaign follows so closely upon general elections, State or national, that the issues are more or less involved with those of the general elections, and there is apt to be a lack of interest in the local election after the larger campaigns.

Clearly, the people are entitled to vote upon these propositions separately. Yet the proposed amendment creating the Board of Public Works and the one changing the date of city elections are included under one title as Amendment No. 1. The official ballot is so arranged that the voter cannot vote in favor of one proposition without voting for the other, nor against the one without voting also against the other. In view of this unfortunate arrangement, those who are opposed to the creation of a Board of Public Works have no other alternative than to vote against Amendment No. 1.

There are many citizens who object to government by commissions, and they will not fail to register their objections at the polls next Tuesday. It will be better to vote against changing the dates for holding city elections than to vote for the establishment of an autocratic board, with authority far removed from the people, to have control of public property and to exercise, in a large degree, the functions of Mayor and Council.

City Attorney Mathews, while not willing to declare positively that the proposed amendments could not have been so drawn as to permit a separate vote on these questions, expresses the opinion that it would have been a difficult task, because the Board of Public Works proposition, if carried, will abolish the offices of Street Superintendent and City Engineer, while Section 195 of the charter provides for the election of those officials, among others. Of course, if separate amendments had been submitted, one might have carried and the other might have failed. The issues interlock, it is true, to the extent that if the Board of Public Works amendment should carry, the list of elective offices provided for in Section 195 should not contain the offices of Street Superintendent and City Engineer, as those offices would become appointive instead of elective.

It is hardly credible that legal skill would not have been equal to the task of separating these issues, so that each of them would stand before the people on its merits. In proposed Amendment No. 4, concerning the consolidation of certain city and county offices, provision is made for abolishing, by ordinance (to be ratified by the people,) such city offices as may be consolidated with the corresponding county offices. Might not this method have been used to abolish the offices of City Engineer and Street Superintendent, in the event that the Board of Public Works amendment should be successful?

There may have been no wrong intent in the joining of these two questions so closely that the popular vote cannot separate them. But it looks very much as though the Board of Public Works amendment, which is obnoxious to many voters, was tied up with the election amendment, in order that the objectionable amendment might be carried through by the one to which there is no objection. Since the questions cannot be voted upon separately, therefore, it will be better to vote against both by voting down Amendment No. 1.

Russia announces her inability to join the President's Peace Conference, and it is scarcely probable that Japan will be present, either. But there is nothing to prevent either of them from reading the proceedings in their favorite newspapers, or in The Times, for that matter, which will print full accounts of all the sessions.

The question of harbor defenses, discussed at length by The Times several weeks ago, will not down. It must and will be met. We want peace and are hoping for it, but we'll feel better when the shore-line batteries are up and in good working order.

AN IMPRACTICABLE MEASURE.

A correspondent takes issue with an editorial recently published in The Times, criticising proposed Charter Amendment No. 6, relating to public franchises, as impracticable, untimely and therefore unworthy of public support. The correspondent is right in saying that the city would not be bound, should the amendment carry, to purchase the property of the owner of a franchise upon the expiration of the latter. The amendment as presented on the official ballot reads as follows:

"Shall proposed Charter Amendment No. 6, providing that no franchise shall be granted for a longer period than twenty-one years, and that every grant of a franchise shall provide for the purchase by the city of the plant of the grantee at the expiration of such franchise, be ratified?"

Nine voters out of ten, as they read this summary of the amendment on their ballots, will infer that the purchase of the plant by the city at the expiration of the franchise is made obligatory. A careful reading of the proposed amendment in full shows that the purchase is optional, not obligatory. It is provided that no grant of a franchise by the city shall extend over a period of more than twenty-one years, and that "such grant, and any contract in pursuance thereof, shall provide that at the option of the city, declared not more than three (3) years nor less than six months before the termination of such grant, the plant and property, if any, belonging to or used by the grantee, or his or its successors in interest, in the streets, avenues and other public places, shall, at the termination of said grant, upon the payment of a fair valuation therefor, be and become the property of the city; but the grantee shall be entitled to no payment because of any valuation derived from the franchise."

The above quotation of the exact phraseology of the proposed amendment does not serve to show that it is any more practicable than it would be if purchase by the city were made mandatory. The city might refuse to purchase any of the property at the expiration of the franchise, and thus leave the property in the hands of the grantees, almost a total loss. The possibility of such refusal on the part of the city would operate to prevent the purchase of any franchise whatsoever, and the city would be the loser in the long run.

Capital would not seek investment upon such unequal terms as this proposed amendment would present. The adoption of this amendment would stop railway building within the corporate limits of Los Angeles, and in the region adjacent thereto, because the situation would present no adequate inducements for investment.

The limitation of public franchises to a period of twenty-one years, even if the city obligated itself to pay for the property involved at the end of that period, would discourage, if not entirely stop, all applications for franchises. Twenty-one years is a very short period in such transactions. If such a provision as is contained in this proposed amendment had been incorporated into the charter a few years ago, Los Angeles and Southern California (which for railroad purposes is only an extension of Los Angeles,) would not have had the magnificent system of urban, suburban and interurban electric lines which we now have. The building and operation of these roads have added value to every square foot of land in Los Angeles and Southern California. These roads have been a potent factor in the upbuilding of the city and the development of the surrounding country. They have aided in bringing thousands of colonists here, because they have made this entire section more desirable as a place of residence. How much better is all this than it would have been if we had pursued a dog-in-the-manger policy such as is suggested in this Howton amendment, which is apparently designed to check progress and stifle legitimate enterprise?

Although the four ordinances relating to the location of slaughter-houses, to be voted upon on Monday, are conflicting in their provisions, and not likely to furnish a final answer to the questions at issue, every voter who desires to see justice done in the adjustment of this matter should vote for the ordinance which appears to be fairest to all concerned. This ordinance, as The Times views the matter, is the one last named on the official ballot, "Making it unlawful to slaughter any animal within the city of Los Angeles, except within certain described limits in the Sixth and Eighth wards." This ordinance, should it become effective, will give "a square deal"—and that is what is wanted.

Inch by inch the Japs seem to be fighting their way up to Stoessel and his intrepid defenders of Port Arthur. It is bloody work—the bloodiest, perhaps, that the world has ever seen. And there is more of the same story yet to be told. The fortress is not yet taken. Stoessel lives, and the flag of Muscovy still flies from the ramparts.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Symphony Orchestra.

The season's first concert by the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra will take place this afternoon at the Mason Operahouse, Harley Hamilton directing. The number of players has been increased and the list of orchestral instruments diversified, so that the director believes that the body is in better shape in every way than at the beginning of any other season.

The soloists for this afternoon are Miss Lydia Gross, soprano, and Miss Elizabeth Jordon, pianist. A new march by Henry Schoenfeld of this city will be the opening number. Beethoven's Fourth Symphony will be played, and Miss Gross will sing a scene and aria from Weber's "Der Freischutz." Miss Jordon has chosen a Chaminade work—opus 40—for piano and orchestra, and the third orchestral number will be Bizet's "Little Suite."

Methodist Orchestra.

The seventh semi-annual concert of the First Methodist Episcopal Sunday-school orchestra, under the leadership of Earl Bishop Valentine, will be given at the First Methodist Episcopal Church tonight.

The orchestra, which is composed of a large number of young players, will be assisted by the First Church quartette, the members of which are Miss Belle Martin, Miss Jane Nutting, J. B. Poulin and Hubert Whitehead. Other soloists will be Charles Lamb, basso; A. K. Fahrner, zither soloist; A. H. Brown, cornetist, and Miss Bertha Hancock, reader. The accompanists are to be Mrs. Adetha V. Carter and Miss Ada Showalter.

The musical evening will be given to the church and friends free of charge, and is under the direction of the Musicians' Exchange.

SANTA BARBARA.

NEW LINE THROUGH THE CITY.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 1.—The first steel was laid yesterday on the new Southern Pacific line through the city. For several weeks a large gang of graders has been at work preparing the grade from the west end of the line at Castillo street, and the roadbed is practically complete as far west as the Potter Hotel grounds. About 200 feet of rails were laid yesterday, and more rails will be laid daily until Mission Creek is reached. The track will then be used as a work track, over which building material for the Mission Creek bridges will be hauled. This creek will be diverted from its course and run through a cement waterway past the Potter Hotel. As soon as the Mission Creek is crossed by the railroad, the material for a new depot will be hauled to the proposed site just east of the hotel. A branch line will be run to the rear of the Potter Hotel, so that hotel baggage and freight can be loaded and unloaded at the very doors of the big hostelry.

FOR THE ORPHANS' SAKE.

The main social event of the week in Santa Barbara has been the Sisters' fair, given for the benefit of St. Vincent's Orphanage. It was held at Armory Hall for five nights and attracted large crowds. The entire entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Hommel Whitaney, who was assisted by the sisters of the school and a multitude of attractive young ladies of the Catholic Church. Hundreds of dollars' worth of prizes were donated by the merchants of the city for the benefit of the orphans. These were raffled off during the fair, bringing in a large amount of money.

One of the most liberal donations to the fair was made by Plo Calderon, a bootblack, who donated one day's earnings to the fair, which amounted to $6.50. The proceeds of each shine was dropped in a box, which when brought to the fair was opened before the audience. While all the returns have not yet been received, it has been estimated by the ladies in charge that over $1500 will be realized from the entertainment.

M. C. Faulding, who has been in the hardware business in this city for over twenty years, has retired as manager of the Boeseke-Dewe Hardware Company, and will be succeeded by E. A. Boeseke. Mr. Faulding retains an interest in the company, but will not engage in business.

W. L. Clark, one of the most widely known curio dealers on the Coast, has signified his intention of closing out his business here, in order to retire to private life.

Making the High Heel.

Making a wooden heel is an interesting task. The heel itself is molded on an irregular molder, a strange but effective machine, and a singular fact about it is that not a single improvement has been made on it in twenty-five years. The heel is molded from the best quality of rock maple and after it is shaped is covered with leather, usually fine kid or cabretta stock, which may be in many colors, according to prevailing fashions.

The leather is stretched on, fastened with the best quality of rubber cement and then ironed, so that when the job is finished the heel looks as if all of leather. The top lift is next attached. The lift is usually of a superior quality of sole leather and a pair of them cost as much as a full-sized top lift for women's shoes, though less than half their size.

The fact is, good material and workmanship are put into the high heel, for it is one of the vital parts of the shoe or slipper.—Boot and Shoe Retailer.

MINES AND MINING.

COPPER CHIEF NOT SOLD.

MANAGER HANDY CONTRADICTS REPORT OF SALE.

United Verde Works Soon to be Running Again to Full Capacity. New Smelting Process to be Tried in Big Bug District—Copper Prospects in Grand Canyon.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Nov. 30.—Manager Handy of the Copper Chief mine, near Jerome, denies the story of the sale of the property lately sent out broadcast, evidently by interested Prescott parties. The price received from Michigan capitalists was reported at $3,000,000. The property was examined lately, but nothing came of the examination, and no option is out on the property, says Mr. Handy. It is for sale and the price set is $1,250,000. The mine is considered one of the best in Northern Arizona. At the present time its lower workings are filled with water, which is to be pumped out very soon to permit an extension of development on the lower levels.

UNITED VERDE WORKS.

Reports from Jerome are to the effect that the great United Verde works will soon be running at full capacity. For more than a year the smelter has been running at less than half capacity, but that there is no lack of ore is shown by the fact that the works are being constantly improved. The old furnaces have all been removed and replaced with 500-ton water jackets. A new shaft has been dug, equipped with the best hoist in the Southwest, and everything points toward permanency and an enormous production of copper.

The 150-ton smelter of the Iron King, below Jerome, is running regularly producing matte, which is hauled to the United Verde works for purification in converters. The Iron King is owned by Senator Clark.

Additional milling capacity, providing for the reduction of fifty tons of ore a day is being provided for the Little Jessie mine in Chaparral Gulch. A new and convenient cyanide plant will also be put in place of the old and inconvenient tanks. A $10,000 air compressor is in place and the mine has been put in the best of shape for active operation. The Little Jessie is a famous mine in Yavapai county and has been a constant bullion producer for many years. It has several bodies of rich pyritic gold ores, that are remarkably free milling, considering their sulphuretic character. The several mines of the company are connected by three miles of twenty-inch-gauge railroad.

NEW SMELTING PROCESS.

Another novelty in a smelting process is promised the Big Bug district, in the shape of a smelter to be erected by John T. Rigby. The idea is the volatilization of the metallic contents of the ore, and the process is said to have had successful demonstration elsewhere. The buildings, near Mayer, already are up and the machinery, now under construction at Denver, will be installed within a few months. The plant will have a capacity of 100 tons a day. If it proves successful, the company will introduce the process throughout Arizona, as it is claimed to be peculiarly adapted to the ores of the Southwest.

George T. Harrington has filed notice of the location of a mineral site in Tiger district, south of Prescott. The tunnel is designed to be one of the longest in the Southwest. The district is full of rich veins of gold and silver and the promoters of the enterprise believe they have large chances of making a bonanza find. The tunnel will cut the formation at the depth of about 1500 feet.

QUARTZSITE MILL.

The Amalgamated Gold Mines Company, at Quartzsite, is receiving machinery for its 120-stamp mill. It is expected that sixty stamps will be in operation early in the coming year. The mill has a novelty in the shape of cement mortar blocks, instead of the usual wooden ones. The company owns the old Cholla mine, a great deposit of cement lying at shallow depth and carrying high gold values. For years the cement has been dug out in a small way and taken to a little mill at Tyson's well.

A bond for $75,000 is reported to have been secured on the Aztec King group of gold mines, eight miles below Mayer.

It is reported that George W. Middleton has secured a half-dozen mining claims and a ten-stamp mill at Walker from W. B. Clark. The group has been known as the Shelton property and is believed to have good value, but has been tied up in litigation.

HADLEY MAY FORECLOSE.

It is understood that Benjamin Hadley of Summerville, Mass., is to institute proceedings against the Empire Gold Mining and Milling Company to recover $22,000 loaned in 1902, and interest. The property is particularly notable for the perfection of its reduction equipment. Ore reduction is by means of the Hendryx process, which has been eminently successful. The mine has a small vein of fairly rich ore. The property is by no means a wonderful one, but it is believed with economical management it would be an absolutely sure profit producer.

The Poland-American Mining Company is erecting a combination mill of 100 tons daily capacity.

W. B. Sale, president of the St. Louis White Lead Company, has been looking through Yavapai county lately for lead mines suitable for developing a lead supply, independent of the mines held by the lead trust. He states that he will probably have two reduction plants, one in Idaho and the other in Prescott.

PROSPECTING GRAND CANYON.

The main shaft of the Anita Company is down nearly 600 feet, in the copper district near the Grand Cañon, north of Williams. At the bottom the formation is in hard sandstone. This formation on the Grand Cañon is about 800 feet in depth. When it has been penetrated, it is expected that the main ore body will be struck from which came the curious deposits of copper in cavities near the surface. Around the Grand Cañon great quantities of good copper ore have been found, but thus far there is not a real mine on the surface—that is, a property possessing a continuous ore body, or one large enough to insure the running of reduction works.

Charles J. George, E. C. Chapman and A. Bachtell of Los Angeles lately made a visit to the Lincoln mines, in which they are interested. The workings are in sulphide ore that runs as high as $100 to the ton.

The Black Rock Mining Company has raised $30,000 by sale of ten-year bonds. The money will be expended in the development of the company's property in the southern part of Yavapai county.

SOLD UNDER EXECUTION.

The McCabe Extension Mining Company's mines have been sold under execution on a judgment secured by R. H. Burmister & Sons of Prescott. The property was bid in for the judgment amount, about $2000, by Miss Priscilla Bradford of Los Angeles, a creditor, who has already secured possession of the surface property of the company.

Very little work is being done at the Congress mine in Southern Yavapai county. It is understood that practically no ore is being taken out and that the underground force is engaged on prospecting work. Ten stamps of the mill are being run, partly on ore from near-by mines, and the main activity of the camp is in the cyanide works.

SMELTER FOR KINGMAN.

There is a possibility for the construction of an immense smelting plant at Kingman. It is reported that plans are being made to expend $250,000 on the construction of a plant to be capable of handling 1000 tons of ore a day. The scheme is understood to be backed by the Guggenheim syndicate, which has had agents in Mohave county for several months, experting the leading properties in several camps. It is understood that they already have options on the Tennessee and other lead mines at Chloride, and that the Kingman and Colorado Railroad, now badly out of repair, will be taken over as part of the project.

GOLD ROADS MILL.

Several carloads of heavy machinery have been received by the Gold Roads Company of Mohave county, and a new mill will be built soon. At least five years' ore supply is already blocked out within the mine, thus insuring an ore production that shows it nothing less than a bonanza.

An air compressor, with considerable other mining machinery, for the Chloride Gold Mining Company is being held at Kingman, awaiting the reconstruction of the Chloride Railroad.

H. C. Howard of San Francisco, representing San Francisco capitalists, has taken a bond on the New Comstock property of Mohave county, of which S. C. Bagg of Los Angeles is general manager. At the sixty-foot level the main ore body has been shown to run $17 to the ton for a width of eight feet.

Almost fabulous stories are coming of the richness of a find of gold ore near Eldorado Cañon in the southeastern point of Nevada, seventy-five miles northwest of Kingman. The new find is in the mountains ten miles from the Colorado River. The ore is similar to that in the Gold Roads mine, samples running as high as $30,000 in gold to the ton.

CITY AIRS NOT JOY FOR ALL.

SANTA PAULA IS MOVING TO DISINCORPORATE.

Farmers Taken in Though They Didn't Belong There, and Temperance People Who Were Fooled Ready to Upset New Government. Town Patriots Will Oppose.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SANTA PAULA, Dec. 1.—Santa Paula has had enough of incorporation and will soon make a move to step back into the rank of country town if the agitation now going on bears fruit. It is thought it will and that a majority of people will favor the departure. The complaint in a general way is that it costs too much to be a city. When the town was incorporated the boundaries were extended so far out that many farmers who did not want to come in and who had no business inside, were taken in. These have from the first stood ready to upset the new government. The temperance people of the place were strong supporters of the movement for incorporation because they had been trying for a long time to get rid of the saloons and could get no help from the then Board of Supervisors. Santa Paula had always been considered as a strong prohibition town if the people could once have an entire say.

The town was fully incorporated with the aid of the temperance folks and lo, the very first time the question was voted upon the people voted to license the saloons. Now the temperance people believe that they can get from the supervisors what they failed to get before, since the board has closed all the saloons in the county outside incorporated towns. The merchants generally are in favor of disincorporating as it is thought it will lighten their burdens not to support a town government. The saloons will fight disincorporation, but as there are but three of them in the town it is thought they will not be able to prevail. Of course there are a number of Santa Paulans who look upon disincorporation as a step backward and as a matter of local pride and town patriotism, will oppose any movement looking to the making of Santa Paula a country town again.

GOLD DOLLARS.

Lewis and Clark Souvenir Coins Selling Rapidly—Monument to Bird Woman.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Nov. 28.—Lewis and Clark souvenir gold dollars, which sell for $2 each, are proving popular, as was expected, and the first issue of 25,000 coins will soon be exhausted, if the demand for the souvenirs continues.

When the appropriation was made for the fair by Congress, a clause in the bill provided for the coinage of the gold dollars, the issue being limited to 250,000. The coins are of the size of the gold dollar which was formerly current, being somewhat smaller than a dime. They are different from any other coin ever circulated in that they have two heads or obverses. This was made necessary by the fact that it was desired to give credit on the coin to both Meriwether Lewis and William Clark, the explorers whose expedition a century ago, in the words of President Roosevelt, "marked the beginning of the process of exploration and colonization which thrust our national boundaries to the Pacific." On the side of the coin bearing the likeness of Capt. Clark are the words "United States of America" and "One Dollar." On the other side are the portrait of Capt. Lewis, the words "Lewis-Clark Expedition, Portland, Or." and the date "1904." The coin has neither wreath nor stars.

The sale of the Lewis and Clark souvenir coins is being pushed in various ways. In September the Executive Committee of the Portland Commercial Club appointed a committee of fifty young women to take charge of the sale. The committee met and it was decided that each member was to secure four others for the committee, giving the completed committee a membership of 250. The committee also adopted a resolution requesting every man in Oregon to wear one of the coins. The first coin to be put into circulation was sent by the young women to the first young lady in the land, Miss Alice Roosevelt, who has acknowledged the courtesy shown her.

The immediate object of the exposition in putting the coins into circulation is to realize funds for the fair. It is asserted, however, that the coins will in a few years be worth more than their face value, as rarities. The government coins the souvenirs at their face value, and the difference between that price and the selling price represents the exposition company's profit. The coins are sold in lots of six for $10, and storekeepers attracted by the small profit possible for them, are displaying them in their windows.

Jewelers are tastefully mounting the coins for scarf pins, brooches and pendants for watch fobs, and in this form they are selling rapidly.

A circumstance that has greatly enhanced the popularity of the coins among the women is the fact that the proceeds from every sixth coin will go toward a fund for the erection of a monument of Sacajawea, the "Bird Woman." It was the "Bird Woman" who accompanied Lewis and Clark on their first journey to Oregon. Sacajawea shared with the men of the party the dangers and hardships of the long march, and her heroism on two occasions saved the lives of the company. It is natural, then, that the women of today should feel a deep interest in the brown-skinned sister, who, next to Lewis and Clark, is deserving of eulogy. The statue to Sacajawea will be placed in the center of the Columbia Court, on the exposition grounds.

THE Scarf Pin

A Favorite Article With Men

THE SCARF PIN enjoys its popularity not so much because it is useful as because it is ornamental. Other articles, such as cuff-links and studs, are more necessary; they are based on ideas of UTILITY. The scarf pin and the ring, on the contrary, are the two articles of mere adornment most worn by men.

The scarf pin now is worn so generally, however, that its use has become an "artistic necessity"—the dressing of the neck looks unfinished without it. The artistic treatment given to these pins by the manufacturer has, doubtless, served to bring them thus into favor.

Our designs appeal unfailingly to the masculine mind. Prices ranging from one dollars to two hundred dollars. Hundreds of designs to select from.

HUNTINGTON WOULD BUY.

Offers Seventy Thousand for a School Site.

Pacific Electric Needs it for Expansion.

Present School Board May Not Meet Again.

The Pacific Electric Company wants to buy the Sixth-street school site for $70,000 cash.

The offer was made last night to the City Board of Education by W. M. Garland, real estate agent.

The lot is 146 feet front on the south side of Sixth street between Los Angeles street and Maple avenue.

After discussion, the board decided to advertise the property for sale, bids to be opened next Wednesday night. The bids will be sealed, but open bidding will be allowed, provided the first open bid be $1000 over the highest sealed bid.

At the same meeting bids will be received for property desired to be purchased as a site upon which to move the building. The site must be at least 178x225 feet and in the district bounded by Main, San Julian, Seventh and Twelfth streets.

W. E. Dunn appeared for the railroad company.

He stated that the present quarters of the Pacific Electric in the Huntington building are already—even before the building is completed—too small for a terminal and that this school ground is needed. Dunn was very frank.

"We don't ask you gentlemen to sell this property for less than it is worth. I am not trying to drive a trade. I am frank to say that we know this offer is in excess of the market price. Mr. Huntington's interests—his selfish interests—in this city are such that the welfare of the city means more to him possibly than to any other person.

"We know well enough that people will wait to say that this corporation is getting the property for nothing. For that reason, we are willing to pay more than I believe was ever paid for a piece of property on Sixth street, similarly situated."

Mr. Dunn said that the railroad company has several plans in view for this expansion. Unless the city accepts the offer, he stated that the company will be compelled, on acount of press of time, to adopt some plan which does not include the Sixth-street school site.

It being suggested that a trade be made with Huntington for other land, Dunn stated that Huntington would rather pay cash.

"Just in these circumstances, this being public land and the property of school children, we would rather remove all suspicion by paying the price in the gold coin of the realm."

The offer permits the city to move away the schoolhouse.

Discussion of the offer brought out the surprising fact that the new school board will probably go into office immediately after next Monday's city election and that the present board may not have another regular meeting.

It was decided to go ahead anyhow and sell the property.

TOBACCO SLAVES' REDEMPTION.

BAKERSFIELD MAN BRINGS NEW CRUSADE.

Originator of World's Anti-Tobacco League Will Endeavor to Organize Lodge in This City—Rum Drinkers May Enter as Members of the Second Degree.

G. L. Robertson, chairman of the Kern County Prohibitionist Committee, is in the city from Bakersfield, working for the organization of lodges of the World's Anti-Tobacco League, recently formed by himself for the purpose of stopping the use of tobacco and liquor by all classes. The first lodge has already been established at Bakersfield and he is now endeavoring to introduce it into the schools of Kern county.

The league as formed by him has two degrees. In the first, the member pledges himself to abstain entirely from the use of tobacco and to discourage its use by others; in the second he promises to also abstain from the use of liquor.

Robertson is an enthusiast in the work and says he expects to devote his life to it and will probably soon move to Los Angeles to better carry it on.

Mrs. J. E. Anderson of Compton, formerly of Bakersfield, is assisting. He is about to make an effort to establish a lodge at the Whittier State School. He believes that one of the easiest and best ways to carry on his work is among the younger generation, although he makes no distinction as to age or sex.

The charter which he has prepared is an interesting one of elaborate and handsome design. The ritual is being published. The order is not a secret society and will be open in every way on account of the objections entertained by some to secret orders. While nothing is said regarding the use of liquor by those taking the first degree, Mr. Robertson says that habitually hard drinkers would undoubtedly be debarred on the ground of general moral character. He has devoted much time and attention to the order, according to a Times reporter, last evening. Mr. Robertson said:

"I believe that this league will yet become as its name implies, a world affair. It embodies a principle that is most needed and which vitally concerns all classes. When I see the ruin wrought by these twin evils, whisky and tobacco, I resolve to devote my life, as far as I am able, to their extermination. I am confident of success and believe that when once started it will grow very rapidly."

DROPS BIG WAD.

Purse Snatcher, in Haste to Get Away, Casts Aside Hundred Dollars.

In his mad haste to escape, a tyro in the purse-snatching business cast aside over $100 yesterday morning after he had made away with a handbag containing the money. He grabbed it from Miss Belle Hamburger of No. 1147 South Flower street.

Miss Hamburger was walking down Fourth street about 9:45 a.m. swinging the bag in her hand. At an alley just west of Grand avenue a slouchily-dressed man jumped out and snatched the bag. He ran north through the alley, searching the bag as he ran. Inside was a small purse containing $100 in bills and $2.50 in loose silver. The bag and purse were thrown away, and recovered a few moments later by Miss Hamburger, who followed the flying thief.

It was thought the sliver had been taken and Miss Hamburger made no further search for it, but the money was found in the alley where the thief had dropped it.

Miss Hamburger was able to give a good description of the purse snatcher to the police. He is a young man, 5 feet 6 inches tall, slender build, with dark gray suit and hat.

Half prices rule today and tomorrow on two attractive groups of infants' wearables.

Long slips of finest French mull or lawn or nainsook, tastefully trimmed with dainty Val. laces and hand-embroidered French knots. Daintily tucked, too. All hand-made by artistic French women—and they SHOW it.

$1.50 slips at 75c; $2.50 slips at $1.25, and so on up to the $10 sorts at $5.

Infants' caps—French hand-made goods of the same qualities as the slips—also at half price till Saturday night.

The $1 caps, 50c; $2 caps, $1; $3.50 caps, $1.75.

Gift Stationary Eaton-Huribut correspondence papers—nobody even CLAIMS to have anything better—very richly boxed. We can scarcely describe to you how beautiful some of the boxes are. Holly decorations predominate, of course, but there are many other designs suggestive of Christmas. Prices range from 35c to $2 a box. Among the newest ideas in papers are the "Bayeux" and "Cartes Lettres."

"Taffeta Rougeant" is another new and extremely popular finish—a beautiful gray. Full quire with 24 envelopes in box decorated with flag lilies—50c.

Burlingham linen (white) also 50c.

Pillows at Half Can't stack up the sofa pillows too deep to suit any owner of a "den" or boudoir. No question about such beauties as these being welcome additions to the most luxuriously furnished homes in town:—$6.50 to $15 finished sofa pillows on sale today and tomorrow at half—$3.25 to $7.50. Some of them show the effects of having been handled and used in window displays, but the defects are nothing in comparison with the price concessions.

Some of them covered with rich velours, with burnt leather trimmings; some with rich silks; others with art ticklings, tapestries, velours and denims; some exquisitely embroidered; some jeweled. Half price today and Saturday.

Imported Cretonnes 1/3 Off English Cretonnes—the real imported article—will stand washing.

And, being figured on both sides, are particularly desirable for couch covers and door draperies—articles which many a housewife would heartily appreciate as Christmas gifts. This sale makes the giving easy—cuts practically a third off the price of every yard in this magnificent collection. No, "magnificent" is not misapplied, for these Cretonnes have the beauty of design and harmony of colorings that you'd expect in none but costly Oriental stuffs.

Broad variety of floral designs and Oriental patterns.

But those prices hold good for today and Saturday only.

Umbrellas As Gifts You know how it is when a man has only one umbrella—it's usually at the other end of the line when needed. Never any question about a new umbrella making a most acceptable gift.

The Coulter collection offers a wide range for choice, no matter what your price-limit may be.

Good serviceable umbrellas for men for as little as 75c and $1.

Umbrellas with Mercerized cloth covers—look like silk and wear much better—for $1.50 and $1.75. With Gloria silk covers, $2 to $4. All silk, $5, $6 and $7.50.

Great variety of handles—natural sticks, sterling silver mountings, ivory and silver, etc.

All have best steel frames.

Art Tickings Splendid showing of new Art Tickings for draperies, pillow tops and various sorts of fancy work; 32 inches wide, 30c a yard.

Art Denims 36-inch Art Denims, in solid colors, for pillow tops and other fancy work, 25c a yard.

Girls' Tailor Suits

The clothing of children and older girls is not a side issue with US—you'll realize that fact the moment you enter the Dept.

No other store in town shows such complete assortments.

And besides, the designers of these suits had due respect for girlish likes and dislikes—the styles are essentially girlish; they don't look as if they were made for under-sized women.

Two piece suits of rich browns, black, and navy blue cheviots, prettily trimmed with braid and buttons; blouse coats, pleated skirts.

Sizes 10 to 16 years.

(New Series.)

An Ordinance ordering the holding of a special municipal election in the City of Los Angeles on Monday, the 5th day of December, 1904, dividing said city into municipal election precincts and appointing polling places and boards of election, and submitting to the electors certain proposed charter amendments, certain ordinances and a question concerning the erection of a public library building in Central Park.

The Mayor and Council of the City of Los Angeles do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That a general municipal election shall be held in the City of Los Angeles on Monday, the 5th day of December, 1904, for the purpose of electing the following officers of said city, to wit: A Mayor, a City Clerk, City Attorney, a City Treasurer, a City Auditor, a City Tax and License Collector, a City Engineer, a Street Superintendent, a City Assessor, seven members of the Board of Education, and by the electors of each of the nine wards of said City one member of the Council to represent said ward.

Sec. 2. That at said election there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city the proposed charter amendments numbers 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6, proposed by Ordinance No. 9,996 (New Series), entitled "An Ordinance providing for the submission to the qualified electors of the City of Los Angeles, at a general municipal election to be held in the City of Los Angeles upon the 8th day of December, 1904, of certain proposals to amend the charter of said city," approved October 3, 1904, and the ballots used at said election shall have printed thereon, in addition to the other matter required by law, the following questions, to wit:

"Shall proposed charter amendment number one, creating a Department of Public Works, to be under the control of a Board of Public Works, and changing the date of city elections from the even to the odd-numbered years, be ratified?"

"Shall proposed charter amendment number two, providing that contracts must be let by the Council to the lowest responsible bidder after previous advertisement for bids, be ratified?"

"Shall proposed charter amendment number three, authorizing the consolidation of certain city and county offices, be ratified?"

"Shall proposed charter amendment number four, providing that the city shall have power to acquire, construct, lease or operate public works, be ratified?"

"Shall proposed charter amendment number five, providing that no franchise shall be granted for a longer period than twenty years, and that every grant of a franchise shall provide for the purchase by the city of the plant at the granting of the expiration of such franchise, be ratified?"

And opposite each of said questions there shall be printed on separate lines the word "Yes" and the word "No."

Sec. 3. That at said election there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city the following question: "Shall a Public Library Building be erected in Central Park, as required by Ordinance No. 9,997 (New Series,) entitled "An Ordinance requiring the submission of the question of erecting a Public Library Building in Central Park to the electors of the City of Los Angeles at the general municipal election to be held December 5th, 1904, and providing for the publication thereof?" And the ballots used at said election there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said city some four certain ordinances submitted to the council by petitions of registered electors of the city equal in number to at least five per cent. and less than fifteen per cent. of the entire vote cast for Mayor at the last preceding general election, which petitions were filed with the City Clerk, certified by him to be sufficient, and presented by him to the Council, viz., to wit: A petition proposing an ordinance making it unlawful to slaughter any animal within the City of Los Angeles, except within certain described limits in the Eighth Ward thereof, when done so as not to create a nuisance, filed with the City Clerk October 18th, 1904, certified by him to be sufficient October 25th, 1904, and submitted by him to the Council November 1st, 1904; a petition proposing an ordinance making it unlawful to slaughter any animal within the City of Los Angeles, except within certain described limits in the Sixth and Eighth Wards thereof, when done so as not to create a nuisance, filed with the City Clerk October 18th, 1904, certified by him to be sufficient November 2nd, 1904, and submitted by him to the Council November 7th, 1904; a petition proposing an ordinance making it unlawful to slaughter any animal within the City of Los Angeles, except within certain described limits in the Sixth and Eighth Wards thereof, when done so as not to create a nuisance, filed with the City Clerk November 2nd, 1904, certified by him to be sufficient November 2nd, 1904, and submitted by him to the Council November 7th, 1904; a petition proposing an ordinance making it unlawful to slaughter any animal within the City of Los Angeles, except within certain described limits in the Eighth Ward thereof, when done so as not to create a nuisance, filed with the City Clerk November 2nd, 1904, certified by him to be sufficient November 2nd, 1904, and submitted by him to the Council November 7th, 1904.

The ballots used at said election shall have printed thereon, in addition to the other matter required by law, the following propositions, to wit:

"For the Ordinance making it unlawful to slaughter any animal within the City of Los Angeles."

[New Series.]

An Ordinance authorizing property owners to improve a portion of Western avenue under private contract.

The Mayor and Council of the City of Los Angeles do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That permission is hereby given the property owners on

from the south line of San Marino street, to the north line of Pico street, to improve said street under private contract in the following manner, to wit:

To grade and gravel Western avenue in the City of Los Angeles, from the south line of San Marino street to the north line of Pico street, including all intersections of streets (excepting such portions as have already been graded and graveled and accepted) said grading and graveling to be done in accordance with the plans and profile on file in the office of the City Engineer of said city, and specifications on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city for grading and graveling streets in the City of Los Angeles with the natural gravel of the streets, said specifications being No. 17 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 9673 (New Series.)

To build and construct a cement curb along each line of the roadway of said Western avenue from the south curb line of San Marino street to the north curb line of Pico street (excepting along such portions of the line of said roadway upon which a cement or granite curb has already been constructed on the proper line and grade.) In accordance with specifications on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City of Los Angeles for constructing cement curbs, said specifications being No. 1 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

To build and construct a cement sidewalk six (6) feet in width along each side of Western avenue from the south curb line of San Marino street to the north curb line of Pico street (excepting such portions of said street between said points along which a cement or asphalt sidewalk six (6) feet in width has already been constructed on the proper line and grades) said sidewalk to be constructed in accordance with specifications on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being No. 2 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

To build and construct two (2) culverts across Western avenue at the first and second ravines respectively north of Pico street. One (1) of said culverts to be constructed of vitrified pipe together with the necessary concrete end walls. One (1) of said culverts to be constructed of brick together with the necessary concrete end walls.

Said work to be done in accordance with the plans therefor on file in the office of the City Engineer of the City of Los Angeles.

To build and construct a cement gutter along each side of said Western avenue from the south curb line of San Marino street to the north line of Pico street (excepting along such portions of the line of said roadway upon which a cement or granite-block gutter has already been constructed to the official line and grade.)

Said gutters shall be three and one-half (3½) feet in width excepting at intersections of streets, where said gutters shall be seven (7) feet in width; and said gutters shall be constructed in accordance with the plans and profile thereof on file in the office of the City Engineer, and in accordance with specifications for the construction of cement gutters on file in the office of the City Clerk, said specifications being No. 8 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

Provided all of said work is done under the supervision of the Street Superintendent of said city, and fully completed to his satisfaction and acceptance on or before the fourteenth day of June, 1905.

Sec. 2. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this Ordinance and cause it to be published once in the Los Angeles Daily Times, and thereupon and thereafter it shall take effect and be in force.

I hereby certify that the foregoing Ordinance was adopted by the Council of the City of Los Angeles at its meeting of November 21, 1904.

FRANK G. CARPENTER'S LETTERS FOR 1905.

UP-TO-DATE MATTER FOR AMERICAN READERS.

Panama—Cuba—Canada—Out West.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

The Times is authorized to publish the following:

Panama will be a live subject in the next Congress. Uncle Sam will at once begin spending millions on his great ditch, and President Roosevelt may possibly complete the canal during his administration.

Cuba, the Baby Republic, has become a new country since the war. We are giving it reciprocity. Americans are settling there and it is a dependency of the United States. Just what it is today I want to show.

Canada is at last on the boom. The land is bigger than the United States or Australasia—big enough to make 33 Italys, 18 Germanys or 30 United Kingdoms. Only one-fourth is occupied. One-third has not been explored. Nevertheless Canada has nineteen thousand miles of railways. It has big cities, rich mines, the greatest wheat lands of the globe, and a big American trade. Within the past few years about 200,000 American farmers have settled there, and it is swallowing up our farmers' boys by the tens of thousands. I shall start in at Quebec and travel across the country to the Pacific Ocean.

LETTERS FROM PANAMA.

I shall sail for Panama next month, armed with instructions from the United States government and others, which will give me reliable information. Among the letters will be:

THE WORLD'S GREATEST CANALS.
I have seen all the great canals of the world, and in an introductory letter will compare them with Panama. The Suez Canal and its enormous business. What it costs to go through it. The Corinth Canal, which cuts Greece in two. The great canals of Holland. The Canal at Kiel. The Manchester Ship Canal. China, the canal country of the world. The canals of India, France and Germany.

A TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLAR JOB.
Pen Pictures of the Canal as it is today, made upon the grounds. Its cost.

BIG CANAL PROBLEMS.
The Culebra Cut and the Bohio Dam. New Machinery. The big electric plant. Harbor improvements which will cost millions, etc.

UNCLE SAM'S TEN-MILE STRIP AND CHANCES FOR AMERICANS.
Showing just what Uncle Sam has in Panama and its possibilities. The plantations, mines and other resources. How lands are held, etc., etc.

LABOR AT PANAMA.
Engineer Wallace's $25,000 job. What engineers get. Openings for college boys. Common labor and the trades unions. Can white men work at Panama? Wages and hours. Cost of living and how to live.

THE WORLD'S BABY REPUBLIC.
A talk with the President of Panama. The new government and its leaders. Its resources and possibilities. Will the neighboring Colombian States come in? An object lesson to all Spanish-American Republics.

THE NEW REPUBLIC OF CENTRAL AMERICA.
Central America is scared over the possible foreign policy of President Roosevelt. A convention has just been held at Corinto to form a union, a new United Republic to prevent American encroachments. I shall give the status as I find it at the Isthmus. Up-to-date information about Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Guatemala, Honduras, and their American trade.

COLOMBIA IN 1905.
Our mad Sister Republic and Panama. Will the Panama Republic absorb her? The enormous resources of Colombia. It has produced $700,000,000 in gold, and has the richest farming lands of South America, which will be opened up by the Panama Canal.

OUR PACIFIC COAST TRADE.
The new steamship lines of the Pacific and what they are doing. Lines to Mexico and San Francisco and South America. How American Trade is growing, etc., etc.

THE AMERICAN MEDITERRANEAN.
I expect to go from Panama to Cuba. There is no direct line. I may go by way of Jamaica, or may have to cross to New Orleans, or possibly to Vera Cruz, and get to Cuba from there. At any rate, I shall have considerable traveling to do in the Caribbean Sea, which is fast becoming known as the American Mediterranean.

One general letter about the Caribbean, showing how it should be treated and how defended. Describing our naval and coaling stations, etc., will be interesting.

CUBAN LETTERS.

THE AMERICAN INVASION OF CUBA.
Our investments doubled since the war. More than $100,000,000 of American Capital; $40,000,000 in sugar plantations; $2,000,000 has gone into the iron mines at Daiquiri, and millions in copper at Santiago. The Havana branch of the tobacco trust has $15,000,000 capital. American money in Havana railroads. The Boston manganese mines. Pittsburgh Land Company, etc., etc.

AMERICAN TRADE WITH CUBA.
How it is increasing. What Cuba buys. Opening for American goods. American shoes, hardware and agricultural implements. Chances for cotton goods. What reciprocity treaty will do. We take five-sixths of Cuba's exports. How the Germans and English are stealing our trade. A United States exchange for Havana.

UNCLE SAM AND THE NEW REPUBLIC.
Uncle Sam was the father of Cuban independence. The new government of Cuba. Pen picture of Congress. A talk with the President. People as voters. Comparisons for the Philippines. What the government costs. Civil service, etc.

CUBAN BANKS AND BANKERS.
How money is handled. The $15,000,000 loan which is now offered the United States. Cuban bonds and their negotiation. The debts. Municipal loans. The Shylocks. American banks and bankers, etc.

CUBA'S NEW RAILROADS.
The trunk line to Santiago, built by Sir William Van Horne. It has cost $10,000,000, and kept seven thousand men busy. Railroad work and wages. Cuba has about 2000 miles of railroads, which cost in the neighborhood of $100,000,000. Dividends of the roads. Openings for electric lines, etc., etc.

FARMING IN CUBA BY AMERICANS AND OTHERS.
A Boston Colony which raises cotton and oranges. A Pittsburgh Colony has 135,000 acres. What sugar lands are worth. Something about the tobacco country. Farm hands at 70 cents a day and servant girls at $10 a month. Cuba has now about 20,000 immigrants annually. The colonial system of farm work. Money in hogs and cattle. Cuba imports $5,000,000 worth of pork annually, and hogs bring $15 a head, etc.

CUBA'S TOBACCO AND OUR TOBACCO TRUST.
Millions of American money are invested in Cuban tobacco, and Cuban cigars are smoked everywhere. I shall go down into the Vuelta Avajo, at the western end of the island and describe the plantations. Tobacco factories will be visited and something about work and wages told. Havana's American cigar factory.

CUBA'S NEW SUGAR PLANTATIONS.
Largely owned by Americans and operated by American machinery. Cuba sweetens the tea and coffee of the United States. She expects to raise a million tons of sugar this year. Much money going into such plantations. Cane sugar versus our beet sugar. The sugar trust. Forty million American dollars in sugar plantations.

NEW CUBAN MINES.
Cuba is a great mineral country, and its mines are just being opened up. The copper mines of Santiago produced $48,000,000 before 1868. They are now in the hands of Americans and are turning out a thousand tons a month. The Boston mines of manganese iron are another great property. There are asphalt and other mines.

HAVANA IN 1905.
The capital of Cuba and its American residents. A town of newspapers, theaters, schools and high society. How the people live and what living costs. Rents. Work and wages. Business, politics, etc.

OTHER LETTERS MAY BE:
Across Cuba by Rail—San Juan Hill and other Battlefields in 1905—Santiago and the new Cuba of the East, etc., etc.

LETTERS FROM CANADA.

CANADA AND AMERICAN TRADE.
The commerce of Canada about 500 millions dollars. It increased 43 millions in 1902, and has doubled in eight years. Fifty-seven per cent. of the imports are from the United States, and only 31 per cent. of the exports. How to increase trade. The American shoe. American groceries, machinery, etc.

THE RICHEST PEOPLE OF THE WORLD.
All about the Canadians and Canadian wealth. They are on the average the richest people on earth. They are worth about $400 more per head than we are, and aggregate about $6000 per family. How wealth is distributed. Millionaires. Paupers, etc., etc.

CANADA'S FORESTS AND THE PAPER TRUST.
Canada has the biggest forests on the continent. A million square miles of standing timber. Big forest reserves. The pulp wood timber and the pulp mills. Canada exported last year $3,000,000 worth of wood pulp. She furnishes the printing paper for the United States. I may visit the pulp mills.

CANADA'S NEW RAILROADS.
The country has now 19,000 miles of roads, more per head than any other country. Most of this has been built in the past few years, at a cost of $1,000,000,000. The Canadian Pacific has 7400 miles. The Grand Trunk 4000 miles. The government railways and how they are managed. Big land grants.

CANADA'S MIGHTY WATERWAYS.
A land of great rivers and canals. The Mackenzie 2500 miles. Yukon 2000 miles. The St. Lawrence.
Six thousand miles of water from St. Lawrence to the Mackenzie, with only 150 miles of land; 10,000 miles of navigable rivers west of Lake Superior. Canada's new canals. About the Soo. The Welland Canal and others which cost a million dollars a mile. Some good points for Panama.

CANADIAN MINES AND MINING.
In the past few years Canada has produced more than a half billion dollars in minerals. It turned out 18 millions in gold last year. It has the greatest nickel mines in the world at Sudbury, the greatest asbestos mines, and enormous copper and other mines. The country is just being opened up, and new prospects are found weekly. I shall visit the nickel mines and others.

CANADA'S BIG IMMIGRATION.
Immigrants are now coming at the rate of a thousand a day. Fifty thousand Americans came in last year, bringing about $50,000,000. Queer immigrants From Europe. The Doukhobor Colony. The Mormons. The Hungarians and Chinese.

THE QUESTION OF LABOR.
All about unionism and non-unionism in Canada. Hours of work and wages. Farm hands and factory work. Canada has a half billion dollars invested in manufacturing and the labor element is large.

MONEY MAKING AND BANKING IN CANADA.
How money is handled in one of the great banking countries of the world. Big banks with many branches. Thirty-three banks have 1000 branches. Banking trusts. Chartered banks with $600,000,000 assets. The government savings banks and their 1000 branches. They have over 200,000 depositors. Stories of rich Canadians and big fortunes.

THE HUDSON BAY COMPANY.
The old Canadian Trust which still owns millions. It was founded A. D. 1670, and still has stations throughout the country. Its enormous land grants. Great fur trade, etc., etc.

LETTERS FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA AND THE NORTHWEST.

MANITOBA AND ITS MIGHTY WHEAT FIELDS.
Canada has a wheat area of 171,000,000 acres with only 5,000,000 under cultivation. It will in time supply the home market and three times the present British demand.

CANADIAN LANDS AND LAND GRANTS.
The railroad companies have millions of acres. The Canadian Pacific has sold 5,000,000 acres for $15,000,000. Four million acres were sold last year. How lands are taken up. Public lands.

WINNIPEG, THE CHICAGO OF CANADA.
It is the banking and mercantile center of the West, and capital of Manitoba. It has 70,000 people, and spent $5,000,000 in new buildings last year. A town of newspapers, electric roads, etc.

ASSINIBOIA AND SASKATCHEWAN.
From Winnipeg I shall go to these great provinces of the Northwest. Assiniboia is almost as large as Missouri. It is 450 miles long and 250 miles wide, and has vast areas of fine lands. Saskatchewan is as big as California. This country is, I think, now reached by new railroads.

ALBERTA.
Another great wheat and cattle province. Stock is driven from the United States to Alberta to pasture. It is even shipped from Texas. I shall visit Calgary, and may go as far north as Edmonton, describing some of the highest wheat fields of the world.

THE GRANARY OF THE NORTHWEST.
Canada is fast becoming the great grain field of the globe. In ten years it is estimated that it will produce 250,000,000 bushels of wheat, 200,000,000 bushels of oats, and 50,000,000 bushels of barley. This will mean an export of 200,000,000 bushels of wheat, enough to load a continuous train from Vancouver to Montreal. Our wheat crop is about 700,000,000 bushels. Canada will soon raise half as much as we do.

CANADA'S BIG FLOUR BUSINESS.
The elevators and flouring mills owned by Americans. A visit to Fort William, the Minneapolis of Canada. How grain is shipped down the lakes. Competing for the British bread basket and the British stomach. Canada now sells Great Britain about one-fifth of her wheat.

IN THE CANADIAN ROCKIES.
I shall visit the Canadian National Park at Banff and describe the glaciers, the new mines and other features of the Canadian Rockies.

HOW CANADA IS DEFENDED.
This will describe the defenses of Quebec, Vancouver, and along the lakes, showing how Canada would act in case of war. The militia, 40,000 men. The rifle associations with 22,000 men. The mounted police, etc., etc.

CANADIAN ANNEXATION.

EXCHANGE NOTES. There was a good attendance at the stock exchange yesterday and some active trading done in Home Telephone, Home Trust Company and Pacific Light and Power Company. There were four distinct sales of Home Telephone stock at ten shares each at $47 in each case; two of the Home Trust stock at $47.25, two Home Telephone bonds at $85.50 each and one Pacific Light and Power bond at $98.50. There were no transactions in oil stocks. Bids for Associated were a little lower than on Wednesday. Other stocks were quoted generally a little higher.

COMMERCIAL.

CITRUS MOVEMENT. On Wednesday the railroads moved 44 cars of oranges and 5 of lemons, making a total of 461 cars, of which 180 were lemons.

ORANGES FOR AUSTRALIA. P. Duffy, an Australian commission man, was in the State last week and made arrangements for a car of Porterville oranges to be shipped to Sydney, Australia, for the Christmas trade. Oranges are largely grown in Australia, but the seasons there are reversed and the fruit comes on the market in what is here the middle of summer and at Christmas there are none to be had.

PEANUT CROP. An annual report on the peanut crop made by a firm in Norfolk, Va., says that there has been a material reduction during 1904 of the acreage planted owing to the remarkable advance in cotton that occurred just prior to the planting season, which led the planter to neglect other crops for this. Replies received from correspondents indicates there is a reduction in acreage of from 10 to 40 per cent. The amount of the crop is estimated at about 85 per cent. of that of 1903. The yield is not altogether satisfactory as there are generally less nuts on the vines, but the quality is said to be about all that can be desired.

The high prices that have prevailed during the last two years have resulted in large foreign shipments coming in from France, Spain and Madagascar, which undersell the home product even after paying the duties. American firms are said to be exporting machinery to these countries for cleaning and sorting the nuts.

STEEL MILLS. According to a representative of the United States Steel Corporation all structural mills now idle will be placed in operation as soon as it is possible to do so. The demand for structural material is more pronounced at present than at any time within the last twelve months, and it is believed that all the mills will be running full before the close of the current year. A structural steel manufacturer declares that building in New York will be resumed on a large scale next year. Specifications, he said, indicate as much.—[Wall Street Summary.

BAKERSFIELD HAY. A Bakersfield man now in the city has contracted for four cars of hay from Kern county for the local market. Two cars have already arrived and two are en route. More orders may be placed. There is a good crop on the irrigated lands around Bakersfield, and ranchers are shipping it to different points.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The month opened auspiciously in the wholesale district, although some lines were quiet. There was much activity in butter, beans and potatoes, but practically no change in prices in these lines.—Coast and valley butter was still received in large quantities and market was weak. Potatoes were quite firm and strong with much activity shown. There were no changes made by the Produce Exchange.

The retail fruit and vegetable markets were very quiet. Trade fell to a very low point, and there was practically nothing doing at most places of this kind. Dealers look for an advance later and are waiting developments at present.

Onions were very firm, the lowest price being $2.75 with an advance to $3.00 expected. The supply does not appear to be large and the crop was said by one merchant, to be shorter than in several years.

Apples were unchanged. The demand was only fair.

There was a lull in the orange trade reported by a number of dealers. Fancy stock navels bring from 2.00@2.50; choice varieties 1.50@2.00.

All kinds of fish, including rock cod, were reported scarce yesterday.

Some wild ducks and geese were received yesterday, but no rabbits.

Peas were lower and sold at 3@4 cents a pound.

Tomatoes, good varieties, yesterday were bringing 60@75 cents.

Cabbage was worth $1.10 a sack for the best variety.

Celery was to be had yesterday at 30c, 35c, and 40c a dozen. Some fine stock was received from Santa Ana and was quoted at the higher price. It was much larger than the common varieties.

Strawberries are coming in, chiefly from Glendale, Gardena and Carpinteria. They are ranging in price from 8@12 cents a box and some are a very good quality.

NEW YORK MARKETS.
SHARES AND MONEY.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Prices moved upward in the opening dealings in stocks today in a fairly uniform manner. But that was the least of uniformity in the day's market. There were many strong spots, and they were developed in rotation, spreading the effect of the movement through the session of the Stock Exchange, but the general list did not become animated at any time, and the day's business was considerably contracted from the recent average. Some of the most notable features of recent advances were laggard or inclined to sag on light offerings. Even in the most sharp gains in special stocks, there were no well-defined weak spots, but only dullness and heaviness. There is still unabated confidence that the tranquility of the money market is not to be disturbed by the year-end requirements, although it is commonly expected that rates will work somewhat closer. So long as money rates remain easy, there seems nothing that can disturb speculative confidence in the present market. There was a revival of confidence that the Northern Securities decision was imminent, but some uncertainty was professed as to what its character would be, so that this served to induce some hesitation rather than to stimulate speculation, as has usually been the case. The strength of St. Paul was generally attributed, however, to hope of an early decision of the Government case. The most notable advances were divided between stocks of an extremely high class and those of little-tried and unexpected issues. The junior Vanderbilts were conspicuous examples. A distinctly-detected absorption for investment of this group of stocks is of greater sentimental effect on the market for securities than almost any other act that could be named in the operations of the market. For this reason, a concerted advance in the group is a favorite device of the market leaders to help along the rest of the market by sympathy. The rapid manner in which these prices were advanced today was sufficient to make the movement as suspicious, the railroad investor, as has been truly observed, not following the manner of a bargain-counter rush to secure his holdings. The rise in Amalgamated Copper was based on rumors of an intended increase in the dividend on one of its subsidiary companies. Railroad earnings reported were generally favorable. The conclusion of the London settlement occasioned favorable influence from that source. The December settlements here and the payments of a $36,600,000 installment on Southern Pacific stocks induced a firmer tone, both for call and time loans. But this was not an effective influence in the stock market. The reactionary tendency became fairly general, however, late in the day, and the closing was weak and generally below last night's level of prices. Bonds were easier; total sales $7,855,000. United States new 4s coupon advanced ¼ per cent. on call.

Espee Stock Paid up.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The final 50 per cent. installment on the $40,000,000 of new preferred stock of the Southern Pacific Company was paid in today.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKET.
GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—At the opening wheat market was strong. Higher prices at Liverpool and unexpectedly small receipts in the Northwest were the factors mainly responsible for the initial firmness. With increased offerings by pit traders, however, prices caved off. The weather was still dry throughout the winter-wheat country. The prospects of moisture in the drouth-stricken region gave courage to sellers. Late in the day, prices received an additional setback as a result of heavy selling by Northwestern houses. A late cablegram from Argentina stated that the weather was improving, and this also had a weakening influence on the market. The market closed barely steady, with December at 1.03, and May was ¼ to ⅜ lower, at 1.09¾@ 1.09½. Heavy primary receipts caused weakness in corn. May closed ⅛ lower, at 46⅝. In the cash market, trading was dull. May closed a shade lower at 21¼@21⅜. An easy tone prevailed in provisions throughout the entire session. At the close, May pork was off 10c, and lard and ribs each 2½c lower.

The leading futures closed as follows:

EIGHTH WARD POLITICS.

EXCITING MEETING OF GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE.

Resolution in Favor of Packing-houses Adopted—Tom Savage Fails to Get Endorsement for City Council—Proceedings Wind up With a Rough House.

A meeting of the Eighth Ward Good Government Club in Garibaldi Hall, on Date street, last night, broke up in a rough house. The meeting did not good thing, however, before disorderly proceedings began. It unanimously adopted a resolution in favor of retaining packing-houses within the confines of the ward. Following is the resolution:

"Each city, if at all progressive, must have manufactures, and should encourage all legitimate expenditures of money in building and the employment of labor. Therefore, be it

"Resolved, that we, residents and taxpayers of the Eighth Ward, invite manufacturers to locate within our boundaries. The Cudahy Packing Company is already established, and the Maier Packing Company should be encouraged to build and operate its proposed plant, and the Hauser, or any other packing company, would also be welcomed in this district."

About 600 people attended the meeting which adopted the foregoing resolution and there was not one dissenting vote. Maj. M. L. Starin, vice-president of the club, presided.

Ben Groves, independent Democratic candidate for the City Council, was present and addressed the meeting. He was given a very cordial reception. Groves is a house-mover by occupation, and is opposed to saloon dominance of the city government. He was a candidate for the regular Democratic nomination for Councilman from the Eighth Ward, but Tom Savage, the notorious saloon and bawdy-house-keeper, beat him in the convention by devious methods. Groves then announced himself as an independent candidate, and is meeting with much encouragement from the respectable voters of the ward.

Groves, in his speech last night, said efforts had been made to pull him down so as to give Savage a clear field, it being conceded that the Republican nominee, Barney Haley, has not a shoot of a show to be elected. But Groves said he was in the fight to stay. He had been offered money to draw out, but a nugget the size of the gas company's office could not buy him off. This declaration was greeted with tumultuous applause.

Tom Savage, the regular Democratic nominee for the Council, was also given a hearing. He made one of his characteristic speeches, couched in the Bowery, or, more properly speaking, Barbary Coast, dialect, the only language Savage can speak. He had a crowd of plug-uglies present, who whooped it up for Tom, but the ovation for him was not nearly so pronounced as that accorded Groves.

Other candidates present were Bert Barham, Democratic candidate for City Assessor, and James Hanley, Democratic nominee for Superintendent of Streets. Both made speeches, and Hanley's reception was such as to indicate that the good government people of the Eighth Ward will vote for him almost to a man.

John C. Ince, ex-labor-union agitator, was present and spoke in behalf of Mayor Snyder, and Barham for City Assessor.

A wild-eyed Socialist of the Nihilistic name of Lovendowsky, or some other "owsky," made a rampant address in opposition to allowing any of the packing-houses to do business in the Eighth Ward, but the meeting promptly voted a resolution inviting all of them to locate within the ward boundaries.

A motion to indorse Tom Savage for the City Council was proposed, whereupon pandemonium broke loose and it failed to carry.

After adjournment a general rough house ensued, as the result of charges that delegates to the Democratic convention, instructed for Groves for the City Council, were bought off. In the melee chairs were used as weapons of offense and defense, and Max Pozzo, a Democrat, was struck on the arm with a loaded cane by Fernando Olivas, said to be a Republican. The riot was quelled without interference by the police, and there were no arrests.

It seems the Eighth Warders are determined to have good government this year, if they have to fight for it. Ben Groves's chances to beat Tom Savage are said to be excellent, although Savage claims to carry the vote of the ward in his vest pocket.

MEETING AT BETHLEHEM.

A few Eighth Ward citizens met at No. 510 North Vignes street last night to listen to political arguments by various city candidates or their henchmen. The session was held in the reading-rooms of Bethlehem Institutional Church, and Rev. Dana W. Bartlett explained that the lack of a crowd was perhaps caused by absence of liquid refreshment.

The scheduled speeches—brief ones—were made by Thomas Savage, Fred Barham, James Hanley, C. Brown and A. P. Fleming. Savage looked rather out of place in his mild surroundings, but presented his regulation arguments with equanimity.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Municipal League, and was specially called in order to boost the non-partisan school board. Surprises were sprung by several Republican volunteers in the audience, who apparently did not like the political tactics of the committee of fourteen, and who argued strongly in favor of the regular party nominees, who, they insisted, were not in any sense politicians.

REPULSE RUSSIAN ATTACKS.

TOKIO, Dec. 1.—[By Asiatic Cable.] Manchurian headquarters reports as follows:

"At midnight yesterday a body of the enemy's infantry attacked Machuasantzu Mountain. Our non-commissioned officers picketed there repulsed them.

"Japanese scouts dispatched to Liu Chanaku encountered and repulsed a body of the enemy, and succeeded in discharging the duties required of them.

"A Japanese force in the neighborhood of Haienchuang reports that about 2 o'clock on the afternoon of November 28 a body of the enemy, consisting of infantry and cavalry, advanced on Siantziatzu Heights. We repulsed them at about 7 o'clock in the evening. The same day at 4 in the afternoon, the enemy's cavalry and artillery attacked Suchisloutza. Our fire drove them back.

"The same day, our forces caused some losses to the enemy's infantry and cavalry appearing north of Chentzulin."

Illinois Central Bonds Sold.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The reported sale of $12,000,000 4½-per-cent. first-mortgage bonds of the Illinois Central Railroad Company to Speyer & Co., and Kuhn, Loeb & Co., was confirmed today. The price paid is not disclosed.

ROCKEFELLER WEARY.

John D., Jr., Going Abroad for His Health, Impaired by the Strain of Ceaseless Industry.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John D. Rockefeller, Jr., thirty-one years old and the wealthiest man of his age in the world, has succumbed to overwork. The strain of ceaseless industry in connection with some of the most extensive financial enterprises in existence and his devotion to religious affairs, have at last told on him, and he is going abroad for a vacation of two or three months. The break-down has been plainly discernible for some time.

LOCAL RAILROAD RECORD.

MORE STALLS FOR ENGINES.

ACTIVITY AROUND SALT LAKE'S ROUNDHOUSE AND YARD.

Extensive Improvements Being Made — Heavy Tourist Travel Breaking Records—All Lines Doing Capacity Business—West Adams Electric Car Service Very Poor.

Extensive improvements were begun yesterday on the round house of the Salt Lake Railroad. For the present the capacity is to be increased to nineteen stalls at an expense of $6000, but it is the intention to later reconstruct the building for the accommodation of forty-two locomotives, which will represent a total outlay of over $60,000.

A large blacksmith shop and a car paint shop are also being built and plans for a big brick structure have been passed upon, but for what purpose it is to be used has not been disclosed by the railroad company.

While it is a well-known fact that the big shops of the Salt Lake are to be located in this city the officials are still loth to admit it and simply say "We are mowing and new buildings will be built from time to time as they become necessary."

The construction work now under way is in charge of Contractors Olmstead & Paulson. The Salt Lake is also receiving bids on several round-houses to be built at various points along the line between here and Salt Lake.

RUSH TO CALIFORNIA.

"I do not know of an October in ten years when we did such a large passenger business to California," writes George W. Hagenbach, general agent, passenger department, of the Santa Fe at Kansas City. "The California Limited has been sold out three weeks in advance every day for the last month. There is also a large business to southwest resort points."

The Rock Island will start its Golden State Limited the middle of this month, from Chicago, using the Southern Pacific tracks from El Paso west and accommodations have already been engaged well in advance.

"A record business," said John W. Gay of the Raymond & Whitcomb Company yesterday, "I know that this talk about heavy travel is made every year, but while it may be an old song, it is to be especially true this season, and is a refrain which Californians should never get tired of."

BETTER SERVICE ASKED.

So thoroughly provoked have the residents of the growing district of the city west of Vermont avenue that is reached by the West Adams line of the Los Angeles Interurban become over the abominable car service to which they are subjected that a petition signed by most of the adult male dwellers of that district has been forwarded to the railroad authorities, requesting better treatment.

In this city of much vaunted street-car excellence the West Adams-street line of the old "Traction" system is declared doubly disgraceful by the people out that way. While the University line of this system has been brought up to standard by the introduction of large, fast, new cars, and plenty of them, the West Adams service seems to be falling more to decay every week. Old, weak-motored cars and inadequate provision for handling the excessive travel of the evening home-going hour place the residents of the district that is dependent on this line at a disadvantage that is not suffered, it is claimed, in any other high-class residence section of Los Angeles. Weak "juice" is also a potent factor in breaking up the schedule of the old "Green" line continually.

The petition that has been addressed to the Interurban authorities was passed about from passenger to passenger in the West Adams cars returning home in the evening, and no one was found in the least reluctant to sign it.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Shooting at Sutter Creek.

SUTTER CREEK, Dec. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] W. H. Hancock fired five shots at Daniel Odgers on Main street this afternoon, but with no effect. Hancock was arrested.

The men had been quarreling for some time. They are brothers-in-law, and Hancock's wife is dead. From these facts there are many surmises. Both men named keep saloons. Hancock was intoxicated at the time of the shooting.

Codlin Moth's Sway Ends Soon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The codlin moth's destructive sway in the California apple and pear orchards is soon to end. A parasite from Southern Europe, the moth's natural-born enemy, is to attack and destroy it. Shipments of larvae of the parasite have just been received from Europe by Horticultural Commissioner Elwood Cooper.

Injured Trying to Escape Landlord.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—W. T. Buckley jumped from a second-story window at No. 1198 Folsom street today and sustained serious injuries. He was pursued by his former landlord, Henry Schuur, who was armed with a revolver. There had been a dispute between the men which resulted in Schuur attempting to kill Buckley and the latter's wild attempt to escape.

Stanford's New Museum Enriched.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Dec. 1.—Stanford's new museum has been enriched by a valuable collection of antiquities from Timothy Hopkins of Menlo Park, one of the trustees of the university. The antiquities are general in their nature, including collections from Egypt, Nubia, South Sea Islands, the ancient missions and various minerals and geological specimens.

Lion Tamer Dies of Injuries.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Charles Hendricks, the lion tamer who was badly lacerated by a huge lion during an exhibition last Sunday, died today. The accident happened during a dangerous trick, in which the lion was made to jump through a paper hoop. The trainer slipped and was attacked by the huge beast, which tore his leg frightfully and caused a shock from which he could not recover.

Dunsmuir Case Set Back.

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Dec. 1.—The present hearing of the appeal in the Dunsmuir case suddenly came to an end today, when a strong point was scored by the plaintiff which sends the parties back for further evidence. This point is that the plaintiff's acclaim that one of the witnesses to Alexander Dunsmuir's signature to his will did not know that the document was a will. Under the California law this would make the will null and void. The appeal will be continued at the next full court, when additional evidence on this point has been secured.

Grand Jury and Weber.

AUBURN, Dec. 1.—The grand jury has been in session all day. Although the examination of witnesses has covered all of the Weber murder cases, nothing has developed.

L. M. Fletcher Resigns.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—L. M. Fletcher, secretary of the California State Board of Trade, has resigned his position with the board.

Coronado May Now be Discharged.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 1.—The sensational ending of the trial of Nolberto Coronado for murder, when the jury was discharged because of alleged improper conduct of one of its members, was followed today by service of notice of motion on the District Attorney to dismiss the complaint and discharge the defendant on the ground of "once in jeopardy." The motion will be heard December 9.

PORT ITEMS.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

The cargo of the schooner Ethel Zane, Capt. Erratt, which arrived late last night from Astoria, consists of 730,000 feet of lumber consigned to the Southern California and L. W. Blinn Lumber Companies. The Ethel Zane had a very rough voyage, losing her mizzen gaff and fore staysail boom in the fierce gales.

The schooner Dauntless, Capt. Smith, which arrived yesterday from Gray's Harbor, on November 17 spoke the American ship Saint Francis, Capt. Murry, in lat. 42 deg. 40 min. N., long. 125 deg. 9 min. W. The Saint Francis is bound from Puget Sound to Antofogasta, Chile.

The steamer Coquille River, Capt. Adler, arrived today after a very rough passage from Everett. She brought a cargo of lumber for the Southwestern Lumber Company.

Capt. M. Dannevig has succeeded C. J. Noe as master of the schooner Vine. C. J. Lancaster has been enrolled as master of the barkentine Archer.

The steamers Northland, Olympic and Chico finished discharging lumber cargoes and cleared for San Francisco with freight and passengers.

The steamer Lakme, Capt. Carlson, finished discharging that portion of her lumber cargo consigned to this port and cleared today for Redondo, where she will discharge the remainder.

THE ROYAL HAWAIIAN HOTEL, Honolulu

HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

The hotel is beautifully situated amid tropical foliage, in the heart of the city of Honolulu. Its grounds cover an acreage of 72,250 square feet in fee simple, and 26,251 square feet under long lease. It has entrances on four principal streets, three of which are traversed by an up-to-date electric street-car system.

The premises include a two-story main building, of solid concrete, a large two-story annex, a brick kitchen and bakery, three 2-story and six 1-story cottages, upwards of 200 bedrooms, together with bathrooms, offices, reception rooms, public and private dining-rooms, ladies' and gentlemen's writing-rooms, retiring-rooms, bar, billiard and card-rooms. Accommodations for more than 150 guests.

The style of architecture throughout is essentially tropical; broad verandas on every side, and vistas of beauty meet the eye at every turn.

The furnishing, plumbing and general equipment are modern in every respect.

Honolulu is located 2100 miles from San Francisco; it is connected by cable with that city, and with the Orient, and is a regular port of call for five lines of splendid steamships.

IT'S AN IDEAL TOURIST AND HEALTH RESORT. Its climate is delightful at all seasons; the heat is never excessive, and hurricanes are unknown.

The Pacific is destined to become a theater of great commercial activity in the near future; and Honolulu, located as it is at the crossroads of this mighty ocean, and soon to become a large U. S. Navy and Army Station, cannot fail to participate largely in its rapid development.

Parties contemplating the purchase or lease of the above desirable property may obtain full information from the HAWAIIAN TRUST COMPANY, LIMITED, Honolulu, Hawaii. (Cable address "TRUSTCO.")

All communications must be received by December 31, 1904.

Hall Caine's

What is this tale with the daring title? In the words of the author himself "the story is an attempt to show that the parable of Christ is a picture of heavenly mercy, not human justice and that if it were used as an example of conduct among men it would destroy all social conditions and upset the government of the world."

The first editions were 225,000 copies. There were 183,000 printed in English alone.

PASADENA MAN WILL SUE THE TELEPHONE COMPANY.

Has Discovered that He is Paying More Than Some Other Patrons and Resents This Show of Favoritism—"Lost" Man Found at Work. New Christian Church.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 38 South Raymond avenue, Dec. 2.—F. J. McNally, a real estate agent at No. 36 South Raymond avenue, declared yesterday that he intended suing the Home Telephone Company for all the money that he has paid for rentals on his 'phones at his office and at his house since the company has been in operation. The suit, if it is brought, is likely to precipitate a telephone war that may be of some benefit to the public in the way of reducing rates, by bringing the two telephone companies into closer competition.

McNally discovered that the Home company has been making some very low rates to some individuals, who, it is said, have agreed, in consideration thereof, not to use the Sunset lines. This didn't look good to McNally, and he demanded that his own rate be reduced, which was refused. Thereupon he had his 'phone taken out, and declared he would test the case in the courts on the ground that the Home Telephone Company, by virtue of its franchise, is a public utility and has no right to discriminatae in the fixing of rental charges.

The Home company declares that McNally may sue if he pleases. Their defense is that they have a perfect right to make rates to their officers and stockholders or to "deadhead" names if they so desire. It is understood that both companies have been in the habit of making special propositions for securing new subscribers and to hold old ones that have threatened to take out their talking machines. Should the courts decide that these practices are illegal, a rate war may be expected, say wise citizens.

ONLY PARTLY LOST.

Ralph Rahm, aged 33 years, has been giving his relatives here a great deal of a scare, but 'twas groundless. Rahm started last Saturday for Wilson's Peak. He was known to have passed the foot of the trail, but he never reported at the top. As time passed without word from him, his aunt, Mrs. E. F. Lancaster of No. 256 North Marengo avenue, became alarmed and informed the police and the mountain rangers, and the latter began a search for the missing man, presuming that he had wandered from the trail. But not every passenger on the toll road is a through one. It was found yesterday that Rahm, who has been leading a rather strenuous life with Ringling Bros.' circus, had decided upon quiet for a while and had secured a job with Schneider at the Half-way House, where he has been since he started up the moun-.

NEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

At a board meeting of the First Christian Church next Monday evening the question of a new church will be discussed. The congregation wishes to move from its present location because of the proximity of the electric railway car barns. Besides, the present church has been outgrown. There are two propositions to be considered. One is for enlarging the present edifice and the other for building elsewhere. There is also talk of an assistant for Pastor Ewing, whose health is poor.

PLAYA DEL REY.

BLIND PIG SQUELCHED.

PLAYA DEL REY, Dec. 1.—Acting under instructions received from the District Attorney's office, Constable H. I. Pritchard has just paid a visit to this place. And since he departed there is an aching void in the commodious room on the ground floor of the new pavilion. Here the thirst of the weary traveler was wont to be slaked. It was not what might be called a blind pig, although less pretentious places of the same sort have been so designated. It is understood that on Thanksgiving Day some of the little overwhile blind pigs from different places in the county visited this beach. They quite naturally found their way by following the crowd, to the renowned beneath the pavilion. Here a surprise awaited them. They saw some liquid refreshment being served in a minute openly over the bar than they might hope to sell on a lively Sunday, and it made them mad. They had been pinched and pulled and pinched again for a like offense of lesser magnitude. And it is told that they went straightway to the city and poured a tale of woe into a listening ear at the District Attorney's office. They simply wanted to know why they couldn't do business while others did. The visit of Constable Pritchard to this town tells the rest of the story. Nothing is doing here now. Ocean Park precinct went dry at the late election—and Playa del Rey cast her votes with Ocean Park this year.

SANTA MONICA.

EVENTS OF THE DAY.

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 1.—Theros Meliopane, the Greek who was arrested Wednesday evening on a charge of burglary, was today held by Justice Jencks to answer to the Superior Court.

It is probable that the County Supervisors, in reviewing the Nevada-avenue bridge that was burned, will replace it with a dirt fill. The structure is on the main road to the Soldiers' Home. The horse-car line is out of commission until the repairs are made.

Anna Riley, when tried by jury before City Recorder Guldinger today, was found guilty. The charge was disturbing the peace. He was fined $20.

Something is expected to be doing in Santa Monica Cañon at an early date. Emil Navarina is applying for a liquor license there. The County Supervisors will consider his application on December 20.

LA CANYADA.

TO SHIP ORANGES DIRECT.

LA CANYADA, Nov. 30.—La Cañada Fruit Growers' Association has made arrangements to ship the entire orange crop directly to Chicago, where it will be sold by Fenton Knight. Jesse Knight, who was sorely disappointed in his shipments last year, thinks that with his son in the East the dividend will be greater and that an enormous commission will be saved by this arrangement. Oranges are ripening fast and several cars will be shipped before Christmas.

Eli Cope and others have made arrangements with Joseph Dall for the development of water on the latter's ranch. Prof. Kimball of Los Angeles located the place where the well is to be sunk. Operations will be commenced at once.

Jesse Knight, who represents the committee from the local improvement association, has made rapid progress in the rural-route delivery matter. A petition has been circulated and the required number of names has been secured, only two men refusing to sign the petition.

Harry White recently purchased twenty acres from the Spawforth estate. The tract is located on Michigan avenue between Center street and the Loughery tract.

The Home Telephone Company has completed the line into the valley, and twenty-five phones are in service. The line was put out of order for a short while by the recent fire in La Crescenta, but was not badly disabled.

REDONDO.

NOTES OF THE NEWS.

REDONDO, Dec. 1.—Miss Ollie Usrey and G. B. Greer were married last evening in the parsonage of the Hewitt-street Methodist Episcopal Church, Los Angeles, Rev. McCarthy officiating. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Yess Usrey, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. After the ceremony the wedding supper was partaken of at an uptown restaurant, followed by a box party at the Mason. Mr. and Mrs. Greer will reside here.

A special meeting of the Board of Trade was held last evening in the City Hall to formulate plans for the bonding of the city for pavilion purposes. A committee of seven was appointed to visit the neighboring cities and investigate the pavilion facilities at those places with a view of improving on the other plans if possible.

Dances will be held at the Auditorium every Saturday evening during the winter under the auspices of the Redondo Improvement Company.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational Church held a tea this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Charles Grassel. There was a large attendance.

The ladies of the Congregational Church are making preparations for a concert to be held Tuesday evening at the Redondo Hotel. Talent from Los Angeles and Redondo has been secured.

The steamer Samoa arrived today from Eureka with a cargo of lumber for Ganahl Lumber Company.

The steamer Lachme arrived from San Pedro today with 120,000 feet of lumber for Nofziger Bros.

The steamer Robert Dollar arrived from the North and is discharging 370,000 feet of lumber for Ganahl Lumber Company.

The steamer San Pedro sailed for San Francisco this evening after discharging 250,000 feet of lumber for Ganahl Lumber Company.

The steamers James S. Higgins and Melville Dollar are due at this port tomorrow.

EAGLE ROCK.

FELL THIRTY-FIVE FEET.

EAGLE ROCK, Dec. 1.—Alfred Howard, a carpenter, who was doing volunteer work on the belfry tower of the Congregational Church yesterday, was badly injured by a fall. He was nailing the last shingle on the roof when he lost his hold and fell to the scaffold, ten feet below. Here he lost his balance and fell to the ground, a distance of about twenty-five feet. His nose was broken and right shoulder dislocated.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montague of Cairo, Mich., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Adams.

SAWTELLE.

COLLAPSE OF LARGE TANK.

SAWTELLE, Dec. 1.—Sawtelle was the scene of a peculiar accident this morning that came near resulting in at least two fatalities. Without warning, a hoop on the 50,000-gallon elevated tank of the Sawtelle Water Company parted and the entire tank, contents and supporting tower, fell to the ground with a mighty crash, flooding the community and demolishing the engine-house upon which it descended. In this house were Engineer A. S. Nevis and his son, and miraculously both escaped unharmed, although deluged with water and buried beneath débris. The tank was full of water at the time, and it ran waist deep into the near-by houses, flooding streets and yards and carrying chickens and furniture to lodgment against the first fence encountered.

The damage incurred by reason of the accident is not great beyond the cost of the tank and tower, and the inconvenience will be but slight, as the water company was about ready to add its new steel tank to the city's water system.

LONG BEACH.

WORK ON NEW CHARTER.

LONG BEACH, Dec. 1.—The work of the Board of Freeholders is fairly under way and no difficulties have yet been experienced. Among the provisions already adopted is a clause for the municipal ownership of water, gas and electric light, telephone and railway franchises. The charter also provides for the enforcement of ordinances against the existence of saloons, bars, barrooms and kindred evils. One section that will give general satisfaction to the business and professional men is that whereby the Council is authorized to create a fund by taxation for public entertainments of visiting societies, conventions or celebrations, thereby relieving a few of the burden of standing the expense of celebrations that have benefited the entire city.

CLUBBED HORSE TO DEATH.

Humane Officer T. W. Williams today swore out a warrant charging Charles Hammond, a teamster, with cruelty to animals. Hammond's act was a most brutal one, consisting of clubbing his horse to death. The offense was committed on Third street opposite the Long Beach Lumber Company yards, and was witnessed by several. The horse balked and Hammond in a rage picked up a club and pounded the animal until it died. At first Hammond claimed that the horse broke its neck, but later admitted that he clubbed it to death and that as the animal was his it was nobobdy's business. He was arrested this afternoon and will be given a hearing tomorrow.

NEW CAMP MEETING GROUNDS.

In response to the determination of the Methodist Conference to discontinue its annual camp meetings at Long Beach, because a bustling city detracts from the peaceful quiet desired, an offer has been made the conference of a large tract of land near Newport Beach, which it is claimed will prove an ideal spot for the annual gathering of the Methodist hosts.

NEWS NOTES.

The Finance and Auditing Committee of the Pier Day celebration has nearly completed its final labors and announces that the guaranteed fund will pay all expenses, which, considering the magnitude and success of the affair, gives those in charge good reason for rejoicing.

William Gray, one of the "regulars" who love to fish off the pier, this morning after a ten minutes' battle landed a thirty-seven-pound white bass. Since the new wharf was opened there have been many catches of large fish.

AZUSA.

FORMER CITY CLERK DEAD.

AZUSA, Dec. 1.—Ferber L. Wade, who died at his home in this city on Wednesday had been a resident of Azusa for the past fifteen years, and had been a leading figure in the business, social and fraternal life of the community. He was for several years engaged in the grocery business in partnership with his brother, W. J. Wade, and latterly had been in the insurance business and acted as secretary of the Azusa Electric Light and Power Company. He was elected City Clerk last April, but served only about six months, resigning on account of failing health. He was a member of the local lodges of Odd Fellows and the A.O.U.W. The funeral services will be held at the Methodist Church on Friday afternoon in charge of the Odd Fellows.

WOMEN'S CLUB WORK.

At the meeting of the Azusa Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. T. W. La Fetra presented a very interesting paper on Caupolican and his successors, giving the club considerable insight into Chilean history. Mrs. Ella P. Hubbard gave a full report of the recent meeting of the District Federation at Long Beach, which she attended as a delegate from the club. The greater part of the afternoon was given up to a social hour, the arrangements being in charge of Mmes. E. V. Rice, Ella P. Hubbard and W. J. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Berner have returned from their eastern trip and Mr. Berner will resume charge of the Santa Fé station on Friday.

The William Dearking ranch, southeast of the city, has been sold to D. A. Homfeld, a recent arrival from Abilene, Kan.

Mrs. J. B. Bridges, who has been the guest of her son, W. S. Bridges, for several weeks, has returned to Long Beach.

DARLING DOTES ON JACKIES.

SAILORMEN HONORED BY HIGH NAVAL OFFICIAL.

Visiting Assistant Secretary of Navy Receives Naval Militia and is Received by Members of Chamber of Commerce — Will Inspect San Pedro Harbor Today.

A man in the uniform of a jack tar, who has seen twelve years' service in the navy of the United States and served a 6-inch gun on board the battleship Texas during the memorable battle with Cervera's fleeing fleet off Santiago, held out his tanned right hand to Assistant Secretary of the Navy Darling last night during the public reception to the naval official in the Chamber of Commerce.

It was while the members of the local organization of the Naval Reserve were filing past the distinguished visitor, enjoying the privilege of a personal handshake. Somebody whispered in the Secretary's ear the record of the heartiest and brownest-looking jackie in the line, as the latter stepped up and saluted, and the Secretary kept the whole file marking time while he held the sailorman's hand in both of his and had a friendly chat with him then and there. The veteran was Philip Boyle, who says he has sailed the seas from pole to pole in merchantmen and naval vessels.

In fact, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy gave the major portion of his attention to the sturdy, really salt-looking boys of Capt. E. J. Louis's command. He stepped up to them as soon as they were aligned in the directors' room of the chamber, without awaiting any formal introduction, and began to talk to the lads, leaning there on their guns, in a heart-to-heart fashion. He did not make a speech aimed at the rest of the crowd at all—just talked in low, earnest tones to these young militiamen of his sea service. Mr. Darling told them that it did his heart good to see them in the familiar uniform of the navy, away out here so far from the center of naval interest, giving their time to training themselves to be fit to enter this valuable service should circumstances require. The nation, he said, is in the greatest need of a trained sea militia, made up of men ready and competent to step in and help man the fighting ships in a sudden emergency, and also to form a course from which to draw men fit to be trained as officers to fill the complements of the great new ships of war that are being launched.

"You are the men we look to in case of an emergency; you are the men whom we must fall back on should occasion arise to defend the honor of the nation on the sea, just as we looked to you when the Spanish-American War began," said Mr. Darling.

When the Secretary stepped back from in front of the jackies, Capt. Louis addressed him on behalf of the naval militia, and pleaded that the department take sufficient cognisance of the reserves of Southern California to assign a naval vessel to take them on a cruise. He said that the men are very anxious to get a real taste of sea service and learn the duties of the ship. A cruise once in a while, he stated, would greatly stimulate interest in the naval militia, and put the service on a more practical footing.

The Secretary evidenced great interest in this request.

"If I can possibly get you a cruise, I'll do it; rest assured of that," he answered. He then went on to explain that the Navy Department has been very busy of late, especially since the matters at Panama have come into their present standing, with the ships in Pacific waters, and that it was on this account that it had been found almost impossible to assign ships to the temporary use of the Naval Reserve.

The jaunty boys broke into applause when they were promised Mr. Darling's influence toward getting them a cruise. Afterward they gave a brief drill in the hall, and were complimented by the guest of the evening on their good form.

The reception was entirely informal, no set speeches being on the programme. A. W. Skinner and T. E. Gibbon addressed brief remarks to the visitor on behalf of the chamber, and later the guest was shown through the different exhibit rooms. Early in the evening he was greeted by a man, an old sailor, who had known the Secretary twenty years ago in his native State of Vermont, and another who had been at college with him.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Darling, following his arrival with Mrs. Darling from San Diego, was taken on a trolley ride about the city, in a special car furnished by the Los Angeles Railway, escorted by the following-named members of the Chamber of Commerce Reception Committee: A. W. Skinner, Frank W. King, George W. Parsons, W. J. Washburn, O. T. Johnson, J. C. Drake Randolph H. Miner, Hancock Banning.

This morning, shortly after 9 o'clock, a special train on the Salt Lake road will convey Mr. Darling to San Pedro, where he will be given a tour of the harbor on one of the Banning steamers. Members of the chamber's committee and their wives will accompany him. He will leave for the East via New Orleans shortly before noon.

STARVED TO DEATH.

Our text today is the story of the miser who taught his ass to live on straw, of which he gave him a smaller portion every day.

Just as the miser had got him so trained as to eat one straw a day—the poor ass died.

He is an ass who starves himself to death—as thousands are doing, misled by foolish teachers—because their stomachs have become too weak, through neglect or disease, to do the work which nature has provided for their stomachs to do.

Because the engine is out of gear, would you consign it to the junk heap?

Why, no! Mend it!

Commit slow suicide because your digestive organs leak?

Certainly not! Take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

One thing is sure as shooting.

You can never get a new stomach.

You must mend it, or it will lead you a miserable existence.

The only way to mend it is to take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

This has been practically and scientifically demonstrated by the many thousands whom Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have positively cured, after every other treatment of medicine, mineral waters, pills, and slow, suicidal starvation, had failed.

These methods are all unscientific—therefore false.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are scientific—therefore true, and successful.

Having cured so many thousands—many of whom doubtless have suffered more than you do—do we claim too much when we say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will surely do good to you?

Surely not.

Especially when we make it plain that no promise is made to cure more than one disease—Dyspepsia.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a positive cure for just this one disease.

They are a scientific combination of ingredients which search out the weak spots in all the digestive organs and make them strong and well.

They have an immediate digestive action on undigested food, and thus, while curing weak organs, they at the same time help them to do their work.

They thus stand for all that is good in the medical treatment of Dyspepsia, and for nothing that is bad.

They are not a fad, but a fact.

They are safe, pleasant, certain and permanent, and can be taken by the most delicate invalids without fear of harmful results.
